DT Key:

- # Blank - June Draft
- # 6sc - June Secondary
- # 1rg - January Draft
- # 1sc - January Secondary Draft.

NOTES:

Players in bold italics reached the major leagues.

Currently, 28 former West Chester University baseball players have been drafted since the draft's inception in 1965.

Three of those players have eventually reached the major leagues. John Mabry enjoyed the longest stay in major league baseball. He appeared in 1,321 games during his 13-year career and hit 96 career home runs.

Currently, three former West Chester University baseball players are still playing professional baseball in the minor leagues.

The 1965 draft was the first year of the MLB Entry Draft. It had a major league and AAA section (rounds 1-3), a AA section (4-7) and A-ball sections (8+). Each team had one pick in rounds 1-7 (MLB, AAA, and AA picks). Starting with the eighth round, teams received a pick for each A-ball team in their system in the reverse order of the affiliate finishes. Franchises that shared affiliates, alternated the picks round-by-round. This means that a franchise will have multiple picks in a "round". For presentation reasons here, we have re-labeled the rounds to be the number of the selection made by this franchise. This means that the Twins' 10th round pick could come after the Mets' 12th round pick.
