The Westminster College basketball team, under seventh-year head coach Kevin Siroki, return 13 letterwinners from last season. Among the Titan returners is senior Austin Armwood. Armwood finished 17th in the Presidents' Athletic Conference (PAC) in points per game with 11.2 last season. He also finished fourth in assists (93), fourth in three-point percentage (.432), and fourth in made three-pointers (60). Armwood totaled 314 points last season, good for third on the team, and also shot 84.6% from the charity stripe, making 44 of 52 free throws.

“We’re looking to build on the success from the last couple of years” Siroki said. “Replacing two 1,000-point scorers from last year’s team will be hard to do, but having a great leader in Austin Armwood, who will be a four-year starter, will provide great stability for our team.”

Other returners include seniors Marco Delorenzo, African Grant II, juniors Lloyd Chatman, and Blake Payne. Delorenzo finished eighth in the conference in total steals with 36. He also recorded 184 points (fifth-best on the team), 16 blocks (third-best), and 108 rebounds (fifth-best). Grant II gathered 43 rebounds last season, including 30 on the defensive side. Chatman recorded 170 points, 48 assists, and registered an 85.5% free throw percentage (23-26). Payne was fourth on the team last season with 120 rebounds, totaled 164 points and finished second on the team in blocks with 19.

“We return a lot of players with quality game time experience, so we are excited to see them step up and fill in the spots left open due to graduation” Siroki mentioned. “It will be an exciting season, with a challenging non-conference schedule and I believe the PAC championship is wide open for anyone to win.”

Rounding out the returning letter winners are juniors Preston Stitt, juniors Dylan O’Hara, Ricky Roth, and sophomores Malique Burton, Josh Hutcherson, Anthony Ritter, Kai Skinner, and Isaac Stamatiades.
