

2013 WIAC Outdoor Track & Field Championships

Hosted by UW-La Crosse
Roger Harring Stadium
at Veteran's Memorial Field Sports Complex

WELCOME TO UW-LA CROSSE!

The University of Wisconsin-La Crosse is proud to host the 2013 WIAC Outdoor Track & Field Championships. Our university, staff, student-athletes, and community are excited to provide a first-class championship experience for the inspiring men and women competing across our conference -- among the best Division III track and field athletes in the country. Our goal is to provide a fun, safe, and enjoyable experience for all our competitors.

An important part of our championship experience is our venue, Roger Harring Stadium at Veterans Memorial Field Sports Complex, which was opened in May 2009. The facility is named in recognition of UW-L's Hall of Fame football coach, Roger Harring, who led the Eagles from 1969 to 1999, and it also highlights many significant features honoring our nation's veterans, including, most notably, the memorial outside the stadium's main entrance and the Veterans' Hall of Honor. In addition to the WIAC Championships, this spring our university will, for the 23rd year, host the WIAA Track & Field Championships for our state's high school track and field athletes. We are also very proud to host the NCAA Division III Outdoor Track & Field Championships for the first time since 1997.

We would not be able to host these championship events without tremendous support from our community and, in particular, from our corporate partners. Please make an effort to use their services while you are here. For your reference, a listing of local restaurants and hotels is included on the final page of this meet packet.

If there is anything anyone on our staff can do to make your visit to La Crosse more enjoyable, please be sure to let us know.

Good luck to all the competitors!

Athletic Training Services

M E M O

To: Participants of the 2013 WIAC Outdoor Track & Field Meet

Head Athletic Trainer

Re: Athletic Training Services

The Athletic Training Staff at the University of Wisconsin – La Crosse would like to congratulate all of the qualifying participants for the 2013 WIAC Outdoor Track & Field Championships hosted in La Crosse, WI. We welcome you to our majestic campus and our genuine hospitality. Below are the details for our services that will be provided over the weekend.

The athletic training room is located in the basement of Mitchell Hall across the street from the stadium and will serve as the main treatment facility throughout the meet. This facility will be staffed by both certified athletic trainers and students all weekend and will have the usual amenities such as ice, hot packs, ultrasound, electrical stimulation, etc. A secondary treatment area is located at the south end of the stadium grandstand, for post competition needs such as ice, etc. Cold baths/tubs will also be available in a tent on the south end adjacent to the track but athletes must provide their own towels. The athletic training staff will be unable to provide any massage therapy of any kind before, during or after the meet.

A physician will be on-call but not on-site for the competition. If any emergencies arise, we have two hospitals within only a few miles that can be utilized. The athletic training room(s) will be open 2 hours prior to the first scheduled event and athletic training services will be available for 1 hour following the conclusion of the last event. If your team is traveling without an athletic trainer(s), please provide the necessary supplies and documentation. A letter from an MD or athletic trainer detailing treatment parameters will be needed for any modalities other than hot packs and ice related treatments.

Please feel free to contact Kari Emineth regarding any questions or special accommodations. She can be reached at 608-785-6532 or at kemineth@uwlax.edu.

Best of luck to everyone!

WIAC Lightning and Inclement Weather Policy

Unquestionably, the underlying basis for decisions related to the starting, suspension and resumption of athletic contests that may be affected by lightning and/or inclement weather is the safety and welfare of the participants and spectators. The following policies are for the purpose of providing general direction to administrators, coaches, athletic training staff and game officials in making these decisions, particularly as it relates to issues of authority. Consequently, each individual institution is encouraged to develop more detailed policies and procedures specific to their institution's unique circumstances (e.g., field locations, personnel).

LIGHTNING / INCLEMENT WEATHER

While lightning is the most consistent and significant weather hazard that may affect an outdoor contest, other types of severe weather conditions (e.g., tornadoes) are not to be ignored. Education and planning are the keys to safely dealing with lightning and inclement weather. Staff members and game officials need to know the dangers and what their responsibilities are in the event lightning and/or inclement weather is evident. Institutions should establish plans for the safe and efficient evacuation of participants and spectators.

In relation to decisions regarding the starting, suspension or resumption of a contest due to lightning or inclement weather, the WIAC conference states the following:

- The host institution's athletic trainer (or other person designated by the host administration who is not a game official or coach) will be the designated spotter. A spotter's responsibilities include monitoring weather reports, employing the Flash-to-Bang method to determine the proximity of the storm, and altering the host administration and game officials of a potentially unsafe weather development.
- Prior to the start of a contest, decisions regarding whether a contest will begin rest with the host administration. The host administration should confer with the participating coaches, game officials, an administrator representing the visiting team (if present) and the athletic training staff of the host institution.
- Once a contest has begun, the decision to suspend and subsequently resume a contest is the responsibility of the game official(s). Game officials are expected to confer with the host administration, an administrator representing the visiting team (if present), participating coaches, and the athletic training staff of the host institution.
- Decisions regarding the starting, suspension and resumption of a contest are to be made independent of considerations related to any team gaining a competitive advantage. Among the factors that should be considered are travel issues such as distance, expenses, and missed class time, severity of the weather conditions, immediate weather forecast, and playing-field conditions. In all cases, the safety and welfare of the participants and spectators is the single most important consideration.
- Weather related decisions involving conference championship events will typically be made by the designated tournament committee.
- The flash-to-bang method described in the NCAA Sports Medicine Handbook is to be employed for estimating how far away lightning is occurring.
