ALL-SPORTS COMPETITION

1986-87 NAIA-SPORTS INFORMATION DIRECTORS ASSOCIATION ALL-SPORTS COMPETITION

As Central Washington University, Ellensburg, WA, strengthened its hold on first place in the men's division, Kearney State College, Kearney, NE, jumped from fifth to first place in the women's division, as each institution claimed championship titles in the 1986-87 NAIA-Sports Information Directors All-Sports Competition.

Established in 1969, the All-Sports contest measures the success of an institution's overall athletics program by the accumulation of points in postseason competition on the district, area and national levels.

After compiling 91 points during the winter sports season, Central Washington sealed its first All-Sports title by adding 28 points during the spring sports season. The Wildcats, who scored in more events than any other institution in the men's division, compiled a total of 142 points in cross country, division I football, wrestling, golf and outdoor track and field.

Kearney State scored 69 points during two of the three women's spring sports championships to jump four places in the final team standings, accumulating 129 total points. Winning the national fast-pitch softball title sealed the win for the Lady Lopers who had finished third at indoor track and field. Kearney State also added points in volleyball, basketball, and outdoor track and field.

In all, 182 NAIA member institutions scored in the men's division, while 141 scored in the women's competition. Wayland Baptist University, Plainview, TX, was the only institution to have its men's and women's teams finish in the top 10 in both divisions.

BASEBALL

31st ANNUAL
NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP TOURNAMENT
May 22-28, 1987
Lewis Clark State College, Lewiston, Idaho

Host institution Lewis Clark State College of Lewiston, Idaho, scored seven runs in the bottom of the seventh inning to break-open a close game, lifting the Warriors to a 11-4 victory over Emporia State University, Emporia, Kansas, and the championship of the 10-team NAIA World Series. It was the third national title for Lewis Clark in four years. Warrior outfielder Pat Mackey, who batted .741 in six series games with 17 runs scored 15 RBI's, was voted the most valuable player.

BASKETBALL - MEN'S

50TH ANNUAL
NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP TOURNAMENT
March 11-17, 1987
Kemper Arena, Kansas City, Missouri

All-America center Tom Meier scored 22 points and grabbed 15 rebounds, pacing Washburn University of Topeka, Kansas, to a 79-77 victory over West Virginia State College of Institute, West Virginia, and the championship of the golden anniversary NAIA men's basketball tournament before a crowd of 8,137 at Kemper Arena. The free throw line proved to be the deciding advantage for the Ichabods who were 18 of 28 for the game compared to the Yellow Jackets' three-for-three showing. West Virginia State did not shoot a free throw in the second half. Meier was named the tournament's most valuable player. In the third place consolation contest, Central Washington University of Ellensburg, Washington, had three players score in double figures in a 79-69 win over Georgetown College, Georgetown, Kentucky.

BASKETBALL - WOMEN'S

7TH ANNUAL NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP TOURNAMENT March 13-17, 1987

Municipal Auditorium, Kemper Arena, Kansas City, Missouri

Junior forward Joyce Boudreaux sank a 12-foot shot with four seconds to play, capping a second half comeback and lifting Southwestern State University of Weatherford, Oklahoma, to a 60-58 victory over North Georgia College, Dahlonega, Georgia, and the championship of the NAIA National Women's Championship Tournament. It was the fourth national title for the Lady Bulldogs in five tries. Senior forward Rhonda Smith led Southwestern with 18 points, while Boudreaux added 17 for the winners. North Georgia was paced by sophomore forward Gretchen Smith and All-America center Brenda Hill, who combined for 48 points. Hill was voted the tournament's most valuable player. Southwestern coach John Loftin was named the national coach of the year for the fourth time in his career.

CROSS COUNTRY - MEN'S

31ST ANNUAL
NAIA NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP MEET
November 15, 1986
University of Wisconsin-Parkside, Kenosha, Wisconsin

Perfect weather conditions contributed to record individual performances and the first tie for the team championship in the 21-year history of the NAIA Men's Cross Country Championship. Adams State College of Alamosa, Colorado and Western State College of Gunnison, Colorado, finished as co-champions in the team standings with 78 points each, just ahead of Malone OH in third with 86 points. The title share increased Adams State's all-time team championship total to nine, while Western State claimed its first title. Adams' Rick Robirds captured the individual championship in a record time of 24:10 over the 8,000-meter course, outdistancing Western State's Eduardo Navas (24:13) and Juan Diaz (24:28), both of whom broke the previous meet mark of 24:39 established by Mark Marsun of Simon Fraser BC in 1984. Joe Vigil of Adams State and Duane Vandebusch of Western State were named co-recipients of the NAIA National Coach of the Year Award.

CROSS COUNTRY - WOMEN'S

7TH ANNUAL

NAIA NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP MEET

November 15, 1986

University of Wisconsin-Parkside, Kenosha, Wisconsin

The University of Wisconsin-Parkside became the first school to win more than one team title in capturing the 1986 NAIA Women's Cross Country Championship on its home course. The Rangers' previous title came in the very first women's championship in 1980. In the individual competition, Gina VanLaar of Hillsdale MI captured the 5,000-meter race in a time of 17:40, helping her Charger team to a fourth place finish in the team standings. Lucian Rosa of Wisconsin-Parkside was named the NAIA National Coach of the Year.

LAWTON, OK--Cameron University emerged victorious from a wild series of four overtime possessions and defeated the University of Central Arkansas 35-34 before a crowd of 4,518 at Cameron Stadium. Placekicker Darrell Hamilton missed an extra point attempt after UCA had answered Cameron for the fourth consecutive time with a tying touchdown. The two teams finished regulation time in a 7-7 deadlock before the thrilling overtime procedure which gives each team alternate possessions from the 25 yard line. Cameron quarterback James Skinner threw for three touchdowns and rushed for two others. Aggie receiver John Brandes, who caught two touchdowns, was named the game's outstanding offensive player, and linebacker Thomas O'Kelley earned defensive player of the game honors.

JEFFERSON CITY, TN--An 80-yard punt return for a touchdown by Carson-Newman's Pat Johnson midway through the second quarter proved to be the key play in a defensive struggle as the Eagles won the NAIA Division I National Championship, defeating Cameron University, 17-0, before an overflow crowd of 5,233 at Burke-Tarr Stadium. Johnson's run broke open a scoreless game and it was followed minutes later by running back Ken Tyson's one yard dive, giving Carson-Newman a 14-0 halftime lead and momentum for the rest of the afternoon. Johnson was named the game's outstanding offensive player and Eagles' defensive end Don Bramlett, who recorded nine tackles including two sacks, was the defensive MVP.

GOLF

36TH ANNUAL NAIA NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP TOURNAMENT June 2-5, 1987

Zollner Golf Course, Tri-State University, Angola, Indiana

Huntingdon College of Montgomery, Alabama, recorded the lowest 72-hole team score since the first national tournament in 1952, in capturing its third consecutive NAIA golf title. The Hawks posted a four-day team total of 1137, 15-under-par on the 6628-yard Zollner Golf Course on the campus of Tri-State University, Angola, Indiana. The NAIA record is 1123, established at the inaugural tournament by North Texas State at the Abilene (TX) Country Club. Huntingdon placed three individuals in the top five led by senior Joe Durant, earning medalist honors with a 11-under-par 277, the lowest 72-hole individual score since Ray Ferguson of North Texas State posted an all-time mark of 273 in 1955. Other individual finishes for Huntingdon included All-America performances from Scott Warzecha, second with a 280, and David Schreyer, finishing fifth with a 285. Durant, Warzecha and Richard McKillop of Boca Raton FL tied for the low round of the tournament, each shooting a 68 to establish a course record at Zollner in tournament play. Huntingdon's Steve Condon won his third straight honor as national coach of the year.

SWIMMING & DIVING - MEN'S

21ST ANNUAL
NAIA NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP MEET
March 4-7, 1987
Walter Schroeder Aquatics Center, Milwaukee, Wisconsin

Central Washington University, Ellensburg, Washington, captured six event titles and established four meet records in capturing its second consecutive team title at the NAIA National Swimming and Diving Championships. The Wildcats compiled a winning total of 443 points to outdistance runner-up Drury College, Springfield, Missouri, which finished with a 404 total for the four-day event hosted by the University of Wisconsin-Stout. Double winners Jeff Hillis and Tom Harn led Central Washington to victory, Hillis capturing the 100 and 200-yard breaststroke and Harn winning the 100 and 200-yard freestyle. Nino Pisciotta of Wisconsin-Stevens Point was named the meet's outstanding swimmer, becoming only the 17th athlete in the history of the championship to capture three event titles, winning the 200-yard backstroke and 200 and 400-yard individual medley. Wisconsin-Eau Claire's Tom Prior, directing his Blugold team to a third place finish, was voted the coach of the year.

SWIMMING & DIVING - WOMEN'S

7TH ANNUAL
NAIA NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP MEET
March 4-7, 1987
Walter Schroeder Aquatics Center, Milwaukee, Wisconsin

The University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire, Eau Claire, Wisconsin, continued its strength in the diving events and captured the team title of the NAIA National Swimming and Diving Championships, hosted by the University of Wisconsin-Stout. Eau Claire compiled a winning total of 538 points to easily outdistance Central Washington University, Ellensburg, Washington, which had a second place total of 497 points. Fairmont State College, Fairmont, West Virginia, led the individual title parade with seven event championships and the Falcons finished fourth in the team standings. Fairmont's Lisa Bailey and Barbara Graham of Simon Fraser BC were named co-recipients of the outstanding swimmer award. Bailey posted victories in the 50-yard freestyle, the 100 and 200-yard backstroke and was a part of her team's victories in the 200-yard freestyle and 400-yard medley relays. Tom Prior of Wisconsin-Eau Claire was named the national coach of the year. A total of 14 meet records were established during the four-day championship event.

TENNIS - MEN'S

36TH ANNUAL
NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP TOURNAMENT
May 18-22, 1987
Rockhill Tennis Club, Kansas City, Missouri

Auburn University-Montgomery of Montgomery, Alabama, and the College of Charleston, Charleston, South Carolina, dominated the individual finals to finish one-two in the team standings at the NAIA National Men's Tennis Championships. Senior Jeff Skeldon of Auburn-Montgomery won the individual singles title by default over injured teammate Daryl Shapiro, leading the Senators to their first team championship with a winning total of 26 points. Charleston's third-seeded doubles team of Matt Willson and Eric Girard defeated teammates J.D. Bradley and Pierre Lauzon, 6-3, 1-6, 6-1, in the finals, leading the Cougars to a second place team finish with 25 points. Skeldon was named the recipient of the Ward-Ballinger Award as the tournament's outstanding performer. Bobby McKee of Presbyterian SC was voted the national coach of the year.

TRACK & FIELD - MEN'S INDOOR

22ND ANNUAL
NAIA NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP MEET
February 27-28, 1987
Municipal Auditorium, Kansas City, Missouri

Wayland Baptist University of Plainview, Texas, rallied from 24.5 points back after one day of competition to capture its third consecutive team title in the NAIA Men's Indoor Track and Field Championships. The Pioneers captured championships in five individual and one relay event enroute to a winning total of 115 points, outdistancing Azusa Pacific University, Azusa, California, which finished with 62.5 points. Wayland Junior Alrick Munroe led the way for the Pioneers with victories in the 60-yard dash and long jump, and was also named the winner of the Gill Company Outstanding Performer Award. The Pioneers also posted victories in the 440, 600, 1,000 and mile relay. Two NAIA meet records were established by Paul Aufdemberge of Hillsdale MI in the three-mile run, and Christian Okoye of Azusa Pacific CA in the weight throw. Okoye's victory in the weight throw and his second place finish in the shot put brought his All-America performance total to 17 for his brilliant track and field career with the Cougars. John Creer of Wayland Baptist was named the national coach of the year.

TRACK & FIELD - WOMEN'S OUTDOOR

7TH ANNUAL
NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP MEET
May 21-23, 1987

Arkansas Tech University, Russellville, Arkansas

Prairie View A&M University, Prairie View, Texas, continued its dominance by winning its sixth consecutive team title in record form at the NAIA Outdoor Track and Field Championships. The Tigerettes established a meet standard with a winning total of 144 points and their 58-point winning margin over Wayland Baptist University, Plainview, Texas, was also a NAIA meet record. Led by Edith Renfro, named the outstanding performer of the three-day championships with a record-setting performance in the heptathlon as well as running a leg on the winning 1600-meter relay team Prairie View athletes won seven of 21 events. New NAIA marks were also established by Prairie View's LaVonda Luckett in the 400-meter hurdles and Michelle Neal in the triple jump. Other meet record breakers included Leah Pells of Simon Fraser BC in the 1500-meters, Beth Stuart of Kearney State NE in the discus and Barb Lashinski of Whitworth WA in the javelin. Prairie View coach Barbara Jacket was named the national coach of the year.

VOLLEYBALL

7TH ANNUAL
NAIA NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP TOURNAMENT
November 20-23, 1986
Texas Wesleyan College, Fort Worth, Texas

Brigham Young University of Laie, Hawaii, bounced back after a loss in the final round to defeat Lewis and Clark College of Portland, Oregon, 5-15, 15-10, 15-13, and win the championship of the 1986 NAIA National Volleyball Tournament at the Sid Richardson Center on the campus of Texas Wesleyan College. Both BYU-Hawaii and Lewis and Clark were at-large entrants in the first year for the new expanded 20-team field. The Seasideers had lost to Lewis and Clark 10-15, 9-15 in an initial championship round match, but since that was the first loss for BYU-Hawaii in the double elimination format, an additional match was necessary to crown the champion. The University of Puget Sound, Tacoma, Washington, which had defeated BYU-Hawaii and Lewis and Clark a week earlier in the Tri-District 1 playoffs, finished third at the national tournament and had the most valuable player in Cathy Flick. BYU-Hawaii's Wil Navalta was named the NAIA National Coach of the Year.

WRESTLING

30TH ANNUAL NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP TOURNAMENT March 5-7, 1987 West Liberty State College, West Liberty, West Virginia

Central State University, Edmond, Oklahoma, continued its dominance on the collegiate wrestling scene in winning an unprecedented fourth consecutive team title at the NAIA National Championship Tournament. The Broncos also tied an NAIA record for all-time team championships with seven, equalling the mark held by Adams State CO. Central State scored 92.5 points to easily outdistance newcomer Alaska Pacific University, Anchorage, Alaska, which had a second place total of 71.5 points. Todd Steidley at 142 pounds and Johnny Nimmo at 150 pounds were individual weight class winners for the Broncos, who scored in seven classifications and had six All-Americans. Nimmo was named the winner of the tournament's outstanding wrestler award. Alaska Pacific's Les Hogan was voted the national coach of the year.
