FIRST SERVE

- No. 29 Wichita State (27-3) makes its eighth-consecutive NCAA Regional appearance and will open against No. 37 TCU (15-6) in Friday’s First Round. The eight-time defending Missouri Valley Women’s Tennis Conference champion Shockers have won a school-record 17-straight matches but are in search of their first postseason win in nine years. An opening round triumph would also set a new program record for most dual wins in a season.

TOURNEY TIDBITS

- WSU has played in 10 of the last 11 NCAA tournaments. Prior to 2006, the Shockers’ only other taste of the postseason had come in 1982 when they qualified for the 16-team AIAW Tournament under current Notre Dame head coach, Jay Louderback.

- WSU climbed as high as No. 13 in the Oracle/ITA Division I Rankings in early March, and its current No. 29 rating is its best-ever heading into the postseason. This also marks the first time that the Shockers have played a First Round match as the high seed.

- This is WSU’s third NCAA trip to Coral Gables. It’s the site of the Shockers’ lone NCAA Tournament win back in 2007. Ranked 35th that year, WSU downed No. 25 South Carolina in the First Round before eventually falling to the host Hurricane. The Shockers returned to Coral Gables in 2014 but dropped a 2-1 First Round decision to No. 18 Oklahoma.

- WSU will be trekking to the Sunshine State for the third year-in-a-row for NCAA Tournament play. In 2015, the team was assigned to the Gainesville Regional where it dropped a 4-3 heartbreaker to No. 24 Georgia Tech. The swing match came at No. 4 singles, where WSU had a match-point opportunity in a second-set tiebreaker. Instead, Tech rallied back to force a third and eventually claimed the deciding point.

- All five of the Shockers’ matches against teams in this year’s field of 64 came in true road settings. WSU dispatched a pair of No. 2 seeds in Kansas and Tulsa but fell to Arkansas (No. 3), Oklahoma State (No. 1) and Texas A&M (No. 2).

ABOUT THE SHOCKERS

- No. 29 Wichita State is led by a core of veterans. Four of the top- six in the rotation are seniors and all but one have seen action in at least one NCAA Tournament.

- WSU’s 27 dual wins ranks second nationally behind North Carolina (29) and is tied for the school record set by the 2006-07 Shockers.

- Head coach Colin Foster has made the NCAA Tournament in all seven of his seasons at WSU, and his .726 winning percentage (.138-52) is the highest in school history.

- WSU faced one of the nation’s most difficult non-conference schedules, and racket up some serious mileage in the process. The Shockers played 14 times against teams that were ranked at some point during the regular season (with 12 of those coming at either a road or neutral site) and won 11-3, resulting in a much-needed strength of schedule boost and an influx with wins.

- WSU went 11-0 in Wichita, extending its school-record home winning streak to 35 matches. The Shockers last tasted defeat in their home city in February of 2013.

AROUND THE REGION:

#37 TCU (15-6)

• The WSU coaching staff is well-acquainted with first-round opponent, TCU Colin Foster spent three years there as an assistant before taking over the WSU program in 2009, and his wife/assistant coach, Kewa (Nichols) Foster, was a two-time all-conference selection for the Horned Frogs during her playing days.

• The No. 1 doubles portion will be a rematch of last September’s OU Fall Invite championship match. TCU’s team of Arantekin/Wegner defeated WSU’s duos of Porubin/Schiller 6-2.

• WSU and TCU also collided in the OU Fall Invite singles draw. Alexis Pereira (TCU Alternate) defeated Julia Schiller (WSU #3) 6-4, 7-5 in the Round of 16, and Aleksandra Zenovka (TCU #5) won a winner’s bracket consolation match over Abby Stevens (WSU #6), 6-4, 6-1.

• TCU No. 1 singles player, Marie Norris, is from the Western Kansas town of Burdett.

• TCU leads the all-time series 5-0. The first three meetings took place in Fort Worth in the mid-to-late 1980s. Foster’s arrival at WSU inspired two more recent matchups. The Frogs won a narrow, 4-3 decision in Wichita in Foster’s first season (2010) and swept WSU 6-0 in Fort Worth in 2013.

#7 MIAMI (19-5)

• WSU is 0-2 all-time against Miami, with both meetings taking place in Coral Gables. The Shockers fell 4-0 to the ninth-ranked Hurricane in the Second Round of the 2007 NCAA Tournament and lost a rematch the following year, 6-1.

QUINNIPIAC (15-10)

• WSU and Quinnipiac have never met in women’s tennis.

Porubin Heads to Nationals

Wichita State will need to win two dual matches this weekend to reach the NCAA Championship site in Tulsa, Okla., but its top player is already guaranteed a trip.

Sophomore Gabriela Porubin (ITA No. 91) earned the Missouri Valley Conference’s automatic bid to the NCAA Individual Championships, joining a short list of Shockers who have competed in the women’s singles draw. Lutfiana Budiharto made trips in 2010 and 12, and Madina Rakhim (2007) and Sandy Sadler (1984) round out the group.

Guided by Guidetti

Sohomore Giulia Guidetti (38-5) broke a 32-year-old single-season record for individual wins and ranks second overall among players in this year’s tournament field, behind North Carolina’s Hayley Carter and Jessie Aney (75). Guidetti enjoyed a solid freshman year, going 16-1 (7-0 in duals), but she failed to crack WSU’s singles or doubles rotation and did not participate in the team’s NCAA Tournament duals against Georgia Tech. A year later, Guidetti has played a key role in WSU’s success, winning 17-straight matches coming into the postseason.

Momentum traces all the way back to October. After a rough first-round loss in the ITA Central Regional, Guidetti reeled off five-straight wins to earn the consolation bracket title and has been tough to beat ever since, winning 35 of her last 37 singles decisions.

Hot Spots

- WSU's six rotation players have combined to drop just two singles sets since March 15, while winning 96.
- Five of the six players in WSU's rotation enter the weekend with double-digit winning streaks: Giulia Guidetti (17), Gabriela Porubin (11), Rebecca Pedrazzi (11) and Aleks Trifunovic (10). The “weak link” is at No. 3 singles where Julia Schiller has won merely seven-in-a-row.

Weekly Strong

The Cissie Leary Award is given annually to a Division I women’s tennis player who displays inspiring dedication and commitment to her team, which has enhanced her team’s performance and exemplified the spirit of college tennis. The award dates back to 1997 and is in memory of the late and widely admired Penn women’s tennis coach Cissie Leary.

WSU Wins 8th-Straight MVC Tournament

Tournament host Wichita State needed just over 90 minutes to finish off a 5-0 win over second-seeded Southern Illinois in the finals of the Missouri Valley Conference Team Championships, claiming its eighth-consecutive crown.

WSU swept eighth-seeded Evansville 4-0 in the quarterfinals and won by the same score over fifth-seeded Bradley in the semifinal round.

The Shockers have won 10 of the last 11 MVC Tournaments and 18 overall since the 1981-82 season.

All of the All-Conference Team

- Wichita State made a clean sweep of the top-six All-Missouri Valley Conference singles honors and gobbled up two of the three doubles spots.
- The 2015-16 team becomes just the second group in Shockers history to claim all six singles awards, joining the 2011-12 group.
- Colin Foster won his third consecutive MVC Coach of the Year Award and his fourth in seven seasons at WSU. He has never lost to an MVC opponent.
- Gabriela Porubin took home MVC Player of the Year honors, becoming the seventh Shockers player in the last 10 seasons to win the honor.
- Over the past 10 years, the Shockers have taken four of a possible six positions in the all-conference singles lineup.

Schiller finishes out a decorated career of her own, becoming just the fourth player in school history to earn all-conference singles accolades in all four seasons.

Homecoming for Trifunovic

Senior Aleksandra Trifunovic — from Gothenburg, Sweden, played her first two collegiate seasons at Florida International in Miami before transferring to Wichita State in the fall of 2014. She’s 58-9 in two seasons as a Shockers.

Tourney Veterans

- Seniors Rebecca Pedrazzi and Julia Schiller are each making their fourth NCAA Team Tournament appearances. Abby Stevens has played in three and Gabriela Porubin and Aleks Trifunovic have experienced one each.
- Pedrazzi posted wins at No. 1 doubles and No. 3 singles in the First Round of the 2015 NCAA Tournament and also won a match in 2014 at No. 2 doubles. Her next dual match point would make her WSU’s career NCAA leader.

Service with a Smile

Earlier this week, senior Rebecca Pedrazzi earned the ITA Central Region’s 2016 Cissie Leary Award for Sportsmanship.

The Cissie Leary Award is given annually to a Division I women’s tennis player who displays inspiring dedication and commitment to her team, which has enhanced her team’s performance and exemplified the spirit of sportsmanship.

The 2015-16 season marks Colin Foster's seventh as head women's tennis coach at Wichita State.

Under Foster's leadership, the Shockers have been a Missouri Valley Conference juggernaut, sweeping the conference regular season and tournament championships in each of his first seven seasons. Since Foster's arrival in August of 2009, WSU is a perfect 48-0 in MVC regular season matches and is 68-0 overall against Valley competition.

Foster's Shockers have also fared well on the national stage, ending the year with national rankings in four of the past five regular seasons while building up a string of eight-straight NCAA Tournament bids.

A Purdue graduate and three-year assistant at TCU, Foster owns the highest winning percentage in WSU history at .726 (138-52). Over that span, WSU has piled up 43 all-conference selections, 26 MVC Player of the Week Awards and 19 MVC Scholar-Athletes.

Under Foster, WSU has had the MVC's Player of the Year in five of the past seven seasons. Current senior Julia Schiller won the award in 2014, and sophomore Gabriela Porubin won it in 2016. Previously, Luftiana Budharto won three-consecutive years (2010, 11, 12). Budharto, who finished her career ranked second on WSU's all-time singles list, was also a two-time NCAA singles qualifier.

In addition, Foster has been named MVC Coach of the Year a total of four times, and four of his recruits have earned MVC Freshman of the Year honors (Raphael Zotte, 2010-11; Lucia Kovalova, 2011-12; Rebecca Pedrazzi, 2012-13; and Gabriela Porubin, 2014-15).

As an Assistant Coach:
In his three seasons with the Horned Frogs, Foster helped create a Mountain West Conference power. He guided TCU to the NCAA Tournament in each of his three seasons in Fort Worth, sending players to the NCAA Individual Championships each year as well.

Foster mentored three All-Americans as an assistant, and was twice voted the ITA Southwest Region Assistant Coach of the Year in 2008 and 2009. The Horned Frogs won a pair of regular season championships during his time there, including the 2009 Mountain West Conference Tournament title.

Playing Career:
Before launching his coaching career, Foster enjoyed a highly successful playing career at Purdue. He spent the majority of his senior year competing in the No. 1 position and finished his career as the team’s Most Valuable Player. The Western Springs, Ill., native was also successful in the classroom, being named to the Academic All-Big Ten Team every year.

Family:
Foster and his wife Kewa (who serves as his assistant coach) have a two-year old son, Isaac.
