

Intermediate Cruising Course On Board “Lady Nathalie” Antigua

Why take your Sail Canada Intermediate Cruising Course with Sailabration Cruising in Antigua, West Indies

- Teaching boat “Lady Nathalie” meets Canadian Standards for Safety equipment and Sail Canada recommended equipment
- Captain is a Certified Sail Canada Advanced Cruising Instructor
- Direct flights from Toronto to V. C. Bird International Airport, St. John, Antigua, 30 minutes from the boat
- A friendly British island with uncrowded anchorages and beautiful white sandy beaches

Intermediate Cruising Course

- 8 day/7 night live-aboard vacation style course
- Certification required by bareboat charter companies
- International Certificate of Competency (ICC) also available
- Adhere to all safety protocols
- Perfects sailing manoeuvres on all points of sail, tacking, gybing, sailing to weather efficiently, crew overboard.
- Charting, plotting courses and navigate with hand instruments

- Sailing a compass course
- Proper Anchoring techniques
- Maneuvering a larger vessel under power
- Dinghy Management
- Focus on resource management
- Builds leadership skills
- Develops prudent skippering skills
- Competently handle a 10 – 12 m vessel

Breakfast, lunch, snacks, 4 dinners on board, fuel, port, park fees and yacht expenses included

Price: Intermediate Afloat $1,450.00 USD* pp ICC Afloat addon $260.00 USD+ pp

*Note: Flights, transfers, meals and drinks while visiting shore side restaurants, alcoholic beverages and dockage outside of Simpsons Bay are the student’s responsibility. The Ashore theory will be reviewed during the week, the student will be responsible to review and write the exam back in Canada.

