

Parent Camp Tool Kit

This tool kit is intended to give some general guidance on how to produce a ParentCamp of your own. Click on the links below to find out more.

1. What is a ParentCamp?
ParentCamps, designed to bring home and school together, began in 2015, and to date the Department has hosted three. Read more. [link to About ParentCamps].
2. How do I plan a ParentCamp?
Gathering support and connecting with parents are important parts of planning. Read more.[link to How to Plan a ParentCamp].
3. What should I do on the day of ParentCamp?
Your main focus will be to ensure attendees can address topics of interest to them and engage with each other. Read more. [Link to How to Conduct a ParentCamp]
4. What can I do for follow-up?
Concrete plans and activities to address the issues and concerns raised should be the result of your ParentCamp. Read more. [Link to Follow-up After the Meeting]

