

National Title I Association
Summer New Directors Training
July 23, 2014 | 8 am to Noon

AGENDA

8 am to 9 am	Title I Must-Knows
---------------------	---------------------------

New directors will learn basic must-know information about the following Title I core requirements and rules:

- Schoolwide and Targeted Assistance Models
 - Identification of Eligible and Served Title I Schools
- Supplement, Not Supplant
 - Comparability and Maintenance of Effort

Presenters: Margaret MacKinnon, Alaska | Jack O'Connor, Montana

9 am to 10 am	Panel of Directors – What I Wish I Knew as a New Director
----------------------	--

Directors will share reflections on their first few years as a Title I director and the information or insights they wish they had at the start. Topics covered will include:

- Navigating SEA Relationships and Politics – Veronica Tate, Virginia
- Organizing Technical Assistance and Training for LEA Directors – Melina Wright, Illinois
- Effective use of SEA Administrative Budget – Marcus Cheeks, Mississippi
- SEA Process for Review and Approval of LEA Grant Applications – Gayle Pauley, Washington

-----TEN MINUTE BREAK-----

10:10 am to 11 am	Roundtable Discussions
--------------------------	-------------------------------

This hour will be divided into three blocks of fifteen minute discussions during which directors will be able to select areas of interest and go to a table of choice. Topics will include:

- Support to Non-Priority and Non-Focus Title I schools not meeting objectives – Lynn Sodat, Virginia
- Unique Needs of Rural Title I Schools – Jack O'Connor, Montana
- Understanding Required versus Optional Set-asides – Marcus Cheeks, Mississippi
- Supplement, Not Supplant and Schoolwide Schools – Considerations – Trish Boland, Colorado
- Preparing for SEA Monitoring - Veronica Tate, Virginia

11 am to Noon	Review Game – Battle of Directors
----------------------	--

During this session, directors will participate in an interactive game designed to review important Title I programmatic and fiscal information.

Game Host: Veronica Tate, Virginia