Please describe your family. List other children, their ages, schools and colleges attended.
Is this student the first in the family to attend college?

List three adjectives that best describe your child.

In what areas has your child shown the most development and growth during high school?

What is the single most important fact for the admissions team (that is evaluating your child's application) to know about him/her?

Describe an ideal college for your son or daughter in terms of location, size, competitiveness, programs of study, cost, activities, and other features.

Are there particular colleges in which you have a strong interest and which you would like your senior to seriously consider?
Do you have any special connections at those colleges? If so, please describe them.

Have you visited colleges with your son or daughter? Please list them, along with your impressions.

Can you think of any obstacles he/she has overcome? (This is often an essay topic).

Are there any special circumstances about your student or your family that will affect this process?
