

Michael Walther
President Coastal Tech Inc.

“A protective structure placed landward of the HHWL would not have an adverse effect on sand movement until a storm event and/or beach erosion results in exposure and wave interaction with the structure.”