

Job Description – Eliot Institute Registrar

General Responsibilities: The registrar of the Eliot Institute plays a crucial role as the face of the organization. They provide the initial and ongoing contact with all Eliot stakeholders (board, campers, staff, and speakers) and should represent the organization with enthusiasm and consideration for the wide variety of needs of all. Strong organizational skills, communications skills, and unwavering confidentiality are needed to track a variety of details, including: staff contracts, invoicing, volunteer forms, housing requests, vaccination records, etc. In addition, the Registrar needs to have strong skills with a variety of software packages, including Microsoft Office Suite (or Google Doc and Sheets), Salesforce, Wufoo forms, and others.

Specific Responsibilities: Please refer to this chart for a list of specific responsibilities. This list, while extensive, is not comprehensive; applicants should understand that reasonable extensions of this list are expected.

Contract Terms: The contract for this position will last for one year and can be renewed by mutual consent of both parties. It includes responsibilities as outlined in the attached chart (and reasonable extensions thereof), as well as in-camp services for 3 of 4 camps each year and attendance at each Eliot Board meeting (January, April, and October). The Eliot Secretary will serve as the Registrar for one of the four camps, to be agreed upon between the Registrar and Secretary, provided the Registrar handles pre-camp registration and the Secretary is trained to serve as Registrar at camp. The camp at which the Eliot Secretary serves as Registrar shall vary from year to year. Services will be provided to Eliot Institute at an annual cost of $24,000 payable in 12 monthly installments of $2,000 on or about the 15th of each month. In addition, Eliot Institute will provide camp credit for the Registrar to attend three Eliot conferences during the period of this contract, at a rate sufficient to provide full room and board in the conference housing of their choice. Family members or others who accompany the Registrar will follow regular conference registration procedures and pay all fees at prevailing rates. While providing Eliot with administrative services, the Registrar will not serve on the Eliot Board or the Nominating Committee.

Time Management: While compensation is paid in equal monthly installments, workload is seasonal and varies greatly month-to-month. The Registrar is free to arrange non-camp working hours as they choose. Expect efficiency from job experience to substantially reduce the hours worked over the course of a year or two.

Travel: Mileage to and from Eliot conferences and meetings and other travel costs, such as tolls and ferry tickets, will be reimbursed by Eliot, at Eliot's prevailing rate.

Other expenses: The Registrar will be reimbursed by Eliot Institute for reasonable expenses incurred for the purposes of providing the stated administrative services.

Independent Contractor. The Registrar, during the term of the contract, will at all times be an independent contractor and not an agent or employee of Eliot Institute. The Registrar shall be responsible for reporting all income received by the Registrar pursuant to the contract and for payment of all federal and state taxes and charges with respect to the fees to be paid to the Registrar hereunder.

Renewal: This contract may be renewed at any time for a period to be agreed upon in writing by both Eliot and the Registrar. Unless otherwise negotiated and provided in writing, terms will continue as stated above.

Termination: Unless duly renewed, this contract shall be deemed complete and terminated on January 31, 2025. This contract may also be terminated by either party without cause with a 30-day written notice. Breach of contract on either part is grounds for immediate termination by written notice. Upon termination of contract, fees earned to date are due and will be paid in full within two weeks of termination date. Expenses incurred must be billed within 30 days of termination and will be paid in full within two weeks of receipt by Eliot Institute.
