Supporting ROTC

May 12, 2012 7:14 AM

Lt. Col. George Davis, head of the ROTC program at UCSB, speaks Friday to close an awards ceremony at the UCSB Mosher Center after accepting a $100,000 donation from the Pierre Claeysens Veterans' Museum. The money will be used to support cadets who need financial support. The UCSB ROTC unit, known as the Surfrider Battalion, ranks No. 1 in the United States for academic and military performance, along with retention rate.
