Act as if

Hello there and welcome. It is Bob Proctor with Six Minutes again.

I want to suggest that you live the part that you want to grow into. Now, think what I am saying for a moment. I want you to think of where you are going, see yourself already there, and make up your mind that you are going to transform your life like that.

You are going to become the success that you really want to be.

You know, William James said, 'act as if'. Now, how are you going to do that? I want you to go and buy the movie 'Lawrence of Arabia'. It was filmed in 1962. It is an old film, but it looks like it was done last week. It won seven academy awards; Best Film, Best Actor.

Watch Peter O'Toole and Omar Sharif. Watch them and understand. They read a script, they memorized a script, and they became the script.

Watch their acting, You can enjoy the movie, but watch the acting and then realize that is what you are doing. You become a star in your movie. See where you want to be, and then be there.

Write the script and live it. I want you to work all day long thinking where do I really want to be.

What would I be like? How would I live? How would I act? And start doing that today. And get the movie, 'Lawrence of Arabia', and watch it. I am presently watching it again right now, for about a thousandth time.