

Welcome Sun Devils!

On behalf of the Arizona Board of Regents, welcome to Arizona State University and the start of a new academic year filled with opportunity and possibility. ASU is recognized around the world for innovation, a reputation that is built by students like you. We are so excited you're here.

Whether you're arriving on campus for the first time or returning for another year, this is a chance to build on your experiences, explore new ideas and take the next step toward your goals. ASU is more than a place to earn a degree. It's a community where you'll make connections, discover new perspectives and create experiences that can shape your future.

As student regents, we encourage you to make the most of everything ASU has to offer. Challenge yourself academically, get involved on campus and take advantage of opportunities that help you grow both inside and outside of the classroom. The experiences you have here can open doors and help prepare you for what's next.

- Take advantage of campus resources – College is not easy, and you matter! Every student needs support at some point, and ASU offers a wide range of resources to help you succeed. From health and wellness programs, networking opportunities and campus safety resources, we've got your back.
- Put in the work – Go to class, stay engaged and, yes, read your emails. ASU offers extensive academic support services, including tutoring, writing assistance, study hubs and other resources designed to help you succeed. You have the power to shape your education.
- Make the most of campus life – Some of the best parts of the college experience happen outside the classroom. Join a club, attend events, cheer on the Sun Devils, participate in research, give back through service and connect with others across campus. Getting involved is one of the best ways to make ASU feel like home.

We are excited to see all that you'll accomplish this year. Welcome back and Go Devils!
