April Events

April 1 – Fast of the First Born Siyyum – 7:00 a.m.

In recognition of the rescue of the Israelite first born males from the 10th plague while the Egyptian first born males died, a first-born male of his mother or father observes the Fast of the First born which begins at dawn the morning of Erev Pesach. However, if the first born comes to minyan and participates in a siyyum, the completion of study of a tractate of Rabbinic literature, the first born is exempt from the fast and is permitted to eat a festive meal with everyone else at minyan. Please join us for regular morning minyan, a siyyum led by Rabbi Joshua and a breakfast, Wednesday, April 1st, at 7:00 a.m. Please scan the QR code or visit ShulCloud to RSVP for breakfast. The Breakfast is sponsored by the Alan and Nancy Saturn Fund.

April 1 – Community Seder – 6:30 p.m.

Join us for a unique Passover Seder led by Rabbi Joshua Kullock and catered by Goldie Shepard! Be prepared for a journey into our tradition, filled with music and cre-
