

At Our Congregations...

@ Chabad

The celebration will include a dynamic multimedia Megillah reading where Purim characters come alive, followed by a delicious dinner buffet inspired by flavors from around the world.

Live Jazzical musical entertainment will set the tone as children and adults enjoy a cruise themed photo booth, fun face painting, a Purim bounce house, and other Bahamian inspired surprises. The evening will conclude with a lively costume contest and a special Purim gift for every participant.

Please RSVP at www.chabadnashville.com.

Come celebrate, connect, and experience the joy of Purim together.

@ Congregation Micah

Congregation Micah – an inclusive and innovative Reform synagogue dedicated to exploring and celebrating Jewish life – is deeply committed to building meaningful community and repairing the world. We offer creative, engaging, and diverse pathways to Jewish living in Tennessee and beyond, grounded in the rich beliefs and practices of Progressive Judaism. Experience our beautiful 30+ acre campus in person or take part in our vibrant virtual programs anytime through our website, www.congregationmicah.org. Stay connected by following us on social media: Facebook and Instagram @MicahNashville. Learn, pray, and celebrate with us in person, or livestream our services on our website or YouTube. In our tent, there truly is room for everyone.

Weekly Events

Sanctuary Shabbat Services: Fridays at 6 PM

Shabbat at Micah offers many pathways to the Divine through inspiring words, the beauty of sacred space, heartfelt intention, and the power of music and song. Each service is thoughtfully crafted to be welcoming, participatory, and spiritually uplifting. Services reflect the diversity of our community and invite you to engage in ways that feel meaningful to you. Come early to schmooze with old and new friends beginning at 5:30 PM, when light refreshments are served. Services are available in person and online.

Torah Study: Saturdays at 9 AM on Zoom

Begin your Saturday with rich conversation and learning as we explore the weekly Torah portion together. Led by our clergy, this group brings together thoughtful, curious, and caring participants for in-depth discussions, diverse perspectives, and meaningful connections with the text and one another.

Storah Time: Tuesdays at 7 PM on Zoom

Storah Time is a reflective and accessible supplement to our weekly Torah Study. This evening gathering invites you into learning that blends story, interpretation, and spiritual exploration in a gentle, welcoming space designed to meet you exactly where you are.

Mah Jongg: Tuesdays from 12:30 PM–3:30 PM

Enjoy a lively and friendly afternoon of Mah Jongg in Micah's social hall. Players of all levels are welcome for games, laughter, and connection. For more information, please contact Paula at pgkwn@comcast.net.

Schmooze & Views: Thursdays from 10:30 AM–11:30 AM

At Micah, we keep politics off the pulpit but not out of the building. Schmooze & Views offers a respectful, engaging round-table discussion of current events, facilitated by Rabbi Flip and Dr. Bob Smith. Bring your thoughts, listen deeply, and enjoy thoughtful conversation in a welcoming community setting.

March Events

Women's Circle: Friday, March 13 at 12 PM

Rabbi Laurie warmly welcomes you to Women's Circle, a relaxed and meaningful conversation group. All are welcome, and friends are always encouraged. Come as you are and enjoy thoughtful connection and community.

Shabbat in the Round: Friday, March 13 at 6 PM

Congregation Micah presents Shabbat In The Round—an evening of joyful music, connection, and celebratory song. The social hall will transform into an intimate circle-style service, with seating arranged in the round to foster equality, belonging, and shared spirit. With accessible melodies and a participatory atmosphere, every voice helps shape this uplifting Shabbat experience.

Micah Reads: Monday, March 16 at 7 PM on Zoom

Education Director Julie Greenberg guides an engaging and thoughtful discussion of Goyhood by Reuven Fenton. Reuven will join us for this session on Zoom. All are welcome to take part in a lively conversation, share insights, and explore the book together in a welcoming setting.

“All We Carry” Screening: Wednesday, March 25 at 5:45 PM

We are honored to present a film screening of “All We Carry.” Directed by Cady Voge, the documentary follows a mother seeking asylum in the United States and the community that rallies around her. The film focuses on the connections we have with one another and what it means to leave everything. Following a young Honduran family's emotional, cultural, and spiritual journey through powerful storytelling, viewers observe the bonds that form between volunteers and asylum seekers.

Micah Minis: Saturday, March 28 at 9:30 AM

Experience a joyful, high-energy Shabbat celebration created especially for families with children 7 and under, where music, movement, and meaningful moments come together in a warm and welcoming space. This lively gathering encourages kids to be themselves, fosters a sense of community, and creates beautiful family memories filled with laughter, connection, and Jewish joy that carries into the rest of the weekend.

First Night Passover Seder: Wednesday, April 1 at 6 PM

Celebrate the beginning of Passover at our first night Seder. Together, we will retell the story of the Exodus with a blend of tradition and contemporary insight, uplifting music, and a delicious holiday meal. This family-friendly evening welcomes all—whether you are deeply familiar with the Haggadah or experiencing a Seder for the first time—and creates space for questions, connection, and spiritual reflection. Gather with friends, meet new faces, and experience the warmth of community as we mark this sacred moment of freedom and renewal.
