If you are the registered voter on this card and you still live at the address listed above, you do not need to return this card to the county auditor's office.

NOTICE:
Important Information Concerning Your Voter Registration
Please read this notice carefully!

Records on file with the county auditor's office show that you have not voted, re-registered, nor reported a change of address, name or party affiliation during the past two consecutive general elections. Therefore, state law requires that we attempt to confirm your continued eligibility to vote in this county.

If you are no longer registered to vote at the address listed on this card, please check the appropriate box on the reverse side of this card, detach at the perforation, and drop the card into any mailbox. Postage is not required.

If you are not the voter to whom this card is addressed, your cooperation will help us maintain an accurate voter registration list. If you are the voter to whom this card is addressed, your cooperation will ensure that you will not encounter any unnecessary delays at the polling place should you decide to vote sometime in the future.

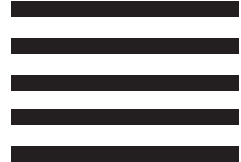

Please call the Auditor's Office at 641-555-2546 with any questions.
