

Hi, my name is _____.

I like playing with my friends!

Sometimes, I want to play with a toy that my friend is playing with.

I can ask them for a turn using my words, or offer to trade toys.

Sometimes, my friend might say no. It might make me feel sad or mad. But it's a little deal!

I can use my calming strategies to calm down.

Then, I can ask for help, or wait one minute before asking again.

If they still don't want to share, it's okay, I can choose something different.

Now I know how to ask for a turn!
