DETERMINATION OF SIGNIFICANCE STAFF REPORT

Site: 10 Oak Street
Case: HPC 2018.017
Applicant Name: 10 Oak Street LLC
Date of Application: February 28, 2018
Recommendation: Not Significant
Hearing Date: April 1, 2018

I. Historical Association

Historical Context: Oak Street appears on the 1858 Walling Map of Boston and Vicinity with several houses indicated but not on the 1852 Draper Map which is based upon an 1846 Survey. The first known owner of 10 Oak Street was Charles Bent, Thomas A. Bent, provision dealer at 17 Lakeman Market, Boston. He and his family are found in the 1870 and 1880 US Census, although their particular address can only be deduced. From the U. S. Census and City Directory information it can be deduced that the house was used as a two-family residence beginning around 1890 when two men are listed at 10 Oak Street. This is confirmed by the 1900 U.S. Census and subsequent censuses. The attempt to trace the ownership through deeds electronically back came to a dead end with the 1939 Deed when the foreclosed property was transferred from Somerset Savings Bank to Antonio Ferreira. See the attached table with all information found regarding the known residents of the building.

Evolution of Site: The map and building permit record show that the house has changed little over time. The barn was changed to a garage in 1919, porches were repaired and altered in 1925 and 1930 and sided with asbestos in 1957 and then vinyl in 1993. Other changes are visible but no documented such as enclosed porches and egress stairs, window sizes and materials, and the removal of the garage. Several houses along Prospect Street were demolished and replaced with automotive serves as can be seen in the Sanborn Maps of 1925 and 1958.

Site: 10 Oak Street

Architectural Description: The building is a 2 2 ½ story 2-bay by 2 bay side hall entry pattern main structure with a 2-bay by 1-bay ell. The ell has a 2-story enclosed porch and enclosed stairs. The chimney has been removed from the main structure but not the rear ell. The front is enlivened by a 2 story polygonal bay.

Summary: 10 Oak Street is a much altered possibly Italianate style house encased in vinyl. There is little remaining of the building beyond its essential form and massing, which in itself has been altered. The house has been home to workers since around 1890 as can be seen in the table below.

Findings on Historical Association

For a Determination of Significance, the subject building must be found either (a) importantly associated with people, events or history or (b) historically or architecturally significant (Ordinance 2003-05, Section 2.17.B). Findings for (b) are at the end of the next section.

(a) In accordance with the historic information obtained from Findings on Historical Association, which utilizes historic maps/atlases, City reports and directories, and building permit research, and through an examination of resources that document the history of the City, such as Somerville Past and Present, Staff find 10 Oak Street Street to be associated with one or more historic persons or events, or with the broad architectural, cultural, political, economic or social history of the City or the Commonwealth, however not importantly associated with any of them.

The subject building is NOT found importantly associated with the broad architectural, cultural, economic and social history of the City. Little information has been found about Thomas A. Bent, Boston provision dealer or the numerous workers who do not represent one particular group of people.

II. Historical and Architectural Significance

The findings for historical and/or architectural significance of a historic property address the period, style, method of building construction and association with a reputed architect or builder of the subject property, either by itself of in the context of a group of buildings of structures (Ordinance 2003-05, Section 2.17.B).

The period of significance for 10 Oak Street begins circa 1870 as home to Thomas A. Bent.

Integrity

The National Park Service identifies historic integrity as the ability of a property to convey significance. A property should possess sufficient integrity to convey, represent or contain the values and qualities for which it is judged significant; therefore, the following is an identification and evaluation of these qualities and alterations as they affect the ability of the subject property to convey significance.

- a. Location: The building has not been moved. Oak Street a residential street of Prospect Street is little changed since the late 19th century. However, many houses along Prospect Street in this block have been demolished in favor of automotive businesses as can be seen in the maps for 1925 and 1959.
- b. Design: The design began as a side hall pattern Italianate house.

Site: 10 Oak Street

c. Materials: The building is wood-frame with vinyl siding and modern windows.

d. Alterations: The siding has been changed as have the window openings and materials. The 2-story porch on the ell has been enclosed as have the added egress stairs.

Evaluation of Integrity: The building is set on a street that has little change since the 19th century beyond 20th century alterations of siding materials. 10 Oak Street retains the core of a 19th century house with more modern accretions.

Findings for Historical and Architectural Significance

For a Determination of Significance, the subject building must be found either (a) importantly associated with people, events or history or (b) historically or architecturally significant (Ordinance 2003-05, Section 2.17.B). Findings for (a) can be found at the end of the previous section.

(b) In accordance with the Finding on Historical and Architectural Significance, which addresses period, style, method of building construction, and association with a reputed architect or builder, either by itself or in the context of a group of buildings or structures, as well as integrity, which assess the ability of the property to convey significance, Staff do not find 10 Oak Street historically or architecturally significant.

The subject building is NOT found historically and architecturally significant due to numerous alterations to the building and no associations with a reputed architect or builder.

III. Recommendation

Recommendations are based upon an analysis by Historic Preservation Staff of the permit application and the required findings for the Demolition Review Ordinance, which requires archival and historical research, and an assessment of historical and architectural significance, conducted prior to the public meeting for a Determination of Significance. This report may be revised or updated with a new recommendation and/or findings based upon additional information provided to Staff or through further research.

For a Determination of Significance, the structure must be either (A) listed on the National Register or (B) at least 50 years old.

(A) The structure is NOT listed on or within an area listed on the National Register of Historic Places, nor is the structure the subject of a pending application for listing on the National Register.

OR

(B) The structure, circa 1874, is at least 50 years old.

AND

For a Determination of Significance under (B), the subject building must be found either (a) importantly associated with people, events or history or (b) historically or architecturally significant.

(a) In accordance with the Findings on Historical Association, which utilizes historic maps/atlases, City reports and directories, and building permit research, and through an examination of resources that document the history of the City, Staff recommend that the Historic Preservation Commission do not find 10 Oak Street importantly associated with one or more historic persons or events, or with the broad architectural, cultural, political, economic or social history of the City or the Commonwealth.

10 Oak Street is a much altered possibly Italianate style house encased in vinyl. There is little remaining of the building beyond its core form and massing, which has been altered with changed window and door penetrations and various additions. The house has been home to workers since around 1890.

The subject building is NOT found importantly associated with the broad architectural, cultural, economic and social history of the City. Little information has been found about Thomas A. Bent, Boston provision dealer or the numerous workers who do not represent one particular group of people.

OR

(b) In accordance with the Findings on Historical and Architectural Significance, which addresses period, style, method of building construction, and association with a reputed architect or builder, either by itself or in the context of a group of buildings or structures, as well as integrity, the ability to convey significance, Staff recommend that the Historic Preservation Commission do not find 10 Oak Street historically and architecturally significant.

The building is set on a street that has little change since the 19th century beyond 20th century alterations of siding materials. 10 Oak Street retains the core of a 19th century house with more modern accretions.

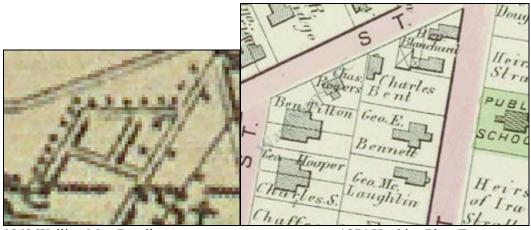

The subject building is NOT found historically and architecturally significant due to numerous alterations to the building and no associations with a reputed architect or builder.
