Alt Text:

A small advertisement banner that reads, "Passionate about education, assistive, technology, and adaptive design? Join us! BB&N Middle School's Science Club is looking to partner with a community member to help create a custom-built technology to assist with a simple task. No task too small!" Surrounding icons include a disability symbol, a key, a lightbulb, a wrench, and the logo of BB&N School. Contact mklein@bbns.org if you're interested.
