

Join the Inaugural Climate Action Commission

Are you passionate about strengthening community resiliency and adapting and mitigating climate change impacts in Somerville? The Climate Action Commission (CAC) is actively seeking 13 new members. We invite all eligible residents to consider applying.

What is the Climate Action Commission?

The CAC is a new commission that will help the city implement Climate Forward, Somerville's community climate action plan. Commissioners will advise city staff on climate change adaptation and resiliency issues and participate in public engagement and outreach opportunities.

Who can join?

The CAC is seeking to fill 13 positions:

- (List specifics on positions (and term limits?) here)

What is the time commitment?

The Interim CAC meets virtually via zoom on the second Tuesday of the month from 7 to 8:30 p.m. This is a volunteer position. CAC members are confirmed by the City Council.

How do I apply?

To apply, send us a message sharing why you are interested in joining the CAC. You can send your message to Kate Crowley, Environmental Policy Manager, by Wednesday, [REDACTED] by 5 p.m.

- Email your application to kcrowley@somervillema.gov with the subject line "Commission Application"
- Mail your paper application to 50 Evergreen Ave, Somerville, MA 02145 ATTN: Sustainability and Environment, Commission Application

When is the application deadline?

Wednesday, [REDACTED] by 5 p.m.

Questions?

If you have questions or would like more information, contact Kate Crowley via email at kcrowley@somervillema.gov or by phone at 857-270-4608.

Commented [CB1]: Can it be Kate (commission liaison) or does it need to be the hiring manager?