

Dying Well Prepared: Conversations and Choices for Terminal Patients

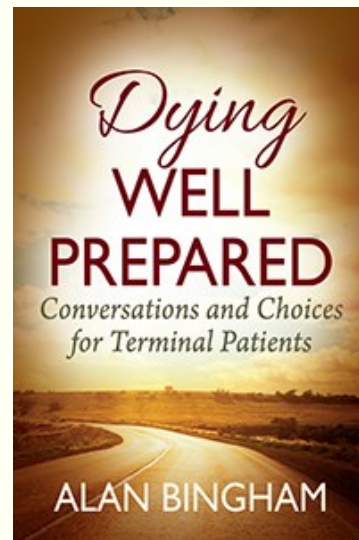

a discussion with author Alan Bingham

Wednesday March 1st 2017

7:00 to 8:00 pm

Central Library Auditorium

79 Highland Avenue

Join author and Somerville resident Alan Bingham for a discussion of his recently published book: Dying well prepared: Conversations and choices for terminal patients.

Alan Bingham is a retired hospice and palliative care executive who has spent many hours with terminal patients and their families. He has spent most of his career in healthcare informatics, working on HIPAA, developing medical records systems, becoming a HIPAA compliance officer and an Ombudsman working in nursing homes.

This program is co-sponsored by the Somerville Council on Aging.
