

C. 1920, corner of Washington Street and Somerville Avenue

“Union Square Landscape: Looking Forward and Backward”

Join our 2018 Union Square Walking Tour- FREE!

Sunday, September 23rd, 2:30-5PM

Rain date: Sunday, September 30th

Start: Bow Market Union Square (entry next to 345 Somerville Avenue)

End: Reception with light refreshments at Aeronaut (14 Tyler Street), at the end of "Innovation Way"

The tour will be led by Edward Gordon, architectural historian and President of the New England Chapter of the Victorian Society in America. It starts at Bow Market, an innovative re-purposing of a parking lot, winds its way along the western edge of Union Square, and then loops around Lincoln Park, newly reopened and creatively designed. The walk will highlight the architecture and potential of the many historic buildings that have been preserved as the landscape of Union Square transforms around them.

Sponsored by the Somerville Historic Preservation Commission through a grant from the Somerville Arts Council.

Space is limited, so advance reservations highly appreciated by emailing bwilson@somervillema.gov or calling 617-625-6600, ext 2532.

Mayor Joseph A. Curtatone
www.somervillema.gov/historicpreservation

