

Honor Somerville's 175th Anniversary

with a

Flag Day Celebration

Saturday, June 17th: 10am - Noon

Prospect Hill Tower, site of the first flag raising in 1776

Free and open to all*

Climb to the top of the Tower to enjoy the view

Listen to a special guest speaker at 11am

Contribute your Somerville story at the "Storytelling" booth

Enjoy music and a docent-guided tour

City information tables and light refreshments for the whole family!

*Byron DeLear lives in St. Louis, Missouri and is the editor-in-chief of NAVA News. His research into the lost history of the first flag of America — the Grand Union flag — has uncovered a moment in time during the Siege of Boston where the first documentary evidence of the name of our nation is intrinsically connected to the debut of the first flag of America at Prospect Hill.

www.somervillema.gov/historicpreservation

Mayor Joseph A. Curtatone

* Individuals with disabilities who need alternative means for experiencing the Tower, auxiliary aids and services for effective communication, written materials in alternative formats, or reasonable modifications in policies and procedures, to access the programs and activities of the City of Somerville, or to attend meetings, should contact the City's ADA Coordinator, via nbacci@somervillema.gov