

Something Like I'm Beautiful

Written by Angela Saini

Charred burnt toast fills the room
Can't see past my own gloom
Crows feet walking all over my face
My mirror hates me today
Blue jeans feeling too tight
Lifeless hair can't get it right
Feels like no one has called me in a year
Only thing I need to hear

If I ask you will you tell me
Something like I'm beautiful
I have wanted you to tell me
And I promise I'll believe you
That I'm not a dime in a dozen
That everything about me is worth loving
Tell me something like I'm beautiful

Deep scars are on display
Feel like a duck when I walk away
Reaching for a better place
Only frowns in this head space
It's getting harder to believe
That there might be nothing wrong with me
When you're feeling ocean blue
There's nothing else left to do

But to ask you will you tell me
Something like I'm beautiful
I have wanted you to tell me
And I promise I'll believe you
That I'm not a dime in a dozen
That everything about me is worth loving
Tell me something like I'm beautiful

I've found myself on the cold hard ground
Awake in a dream and I can't get out
The hardest thing to grasp is a helping hand
Only I can let myself feel this bad

If I ask you will you tell me
Something like I'm beautiful
I have wanted you to tell me
And I promise I'll believe you
That I'm not a dime in a dozen
That everything about me is worth loving
Tell me something like I'm beautiful
Tell me something like I'm beautiful
Tell me something like I'm beautiful

Living on The Bright Side

Produced by Bill Bell

I've never owned a poncho
Whenever it rains, I only see a rainbow Splashing through the puddles, knowing that's how green grass grows
Only sun comes through my window

It's cold and the car won't start
Must be a great day for a walk

I'm living on the bright side
I'm living on the bright side
It's all a state of mind
I'm living on the bright side
It's my state of mind

When a bulb burns out I see
Even in the dark, it feels sunny to me
Skipping in the shadows, every corner holds beauty
There is always light if you look closely

My train home is three hours late
Guess there's time for another piece of cake
(I like chocolate)

I'm living on the bright side
I'm living on the bright side
It's all a state of mind
I'm living on the bright side

Poison tastes so good on my tongue
Enjoying life, I've got only one

I'm living on the bright side
I'm living on the bright side
It's all a state of mind
I'm living on the bright side
I'm living on the bright side
I'm living on the bright side
