

Tough Love

L. RYAN /L. LABELLE

Before you I was afraid
Didn't think I'd ever fall again
But something must have changed
Cause here I am, ready and willing
I kept trying to fight this feeling
Now nothing will be the same
Don't you hesitate...

This is a safe place to fall
Come into my open arms
I'm ready for your tough love baby, you know
I'm here if you should ever need
I'm yours if you are wanting me
I'm ready for you're tough love baby
Tough love, ohhhh
I'm ready for your tough love baby, tough love

Before me, you were torn apart
But I came along and dusted off your heart
Now, Something needs to change
Cause Look at me, I'm ready and willing
So stop trying to fight what you're feeling
You can trust again
Come and let me in...

This is a safe place to fall
Come into my open arms
I'm ready for your tough love baby, you know
I'm here if you should ever need
I'm yours if you are wanting me
I'm ready for you're tough love baby
Tough love, ohhhh
I'm ready for your tough love baby, tough love

I'll mend your wounds
If you want me to...
There's nothing we couldn't do
Nothing we couldn't do
Oh I promise you

This is a safe place to fall
Come into my open arms

I want your tough love baby, you know
I'm here if you should ever need
I'm yours if you still want me
I'm ready for you're tough love baby
Tough love, ohhhh
I'm ready for your tough love baby, tough love

I want your tough love
Give me some of that tough love
I'm ready for this tough love
