

Everyday Girl

VI:

Sometimes I hate the words coming outta my mouth
And sometimes I don't think before I speak
Sometimes you don't listen to what I really wanna say
Cause you've already heard all my bullshit anyway

PC:

No I don't blame you for feeling that way
There's too many words I wish I could unsay

CH:

But I love you more n' more everyday girl
It wouldn't be the same without you in my world
I don't know what I did to deserve
You in my life everyday girl
For everyday girl

VII:

Even after all the shouts n' whispers
And the "goodbyes" we've been through
I've always been thinking, wishing, hoping
For the next time I'd get to say, 'hello, I still love you'

Cause... Chorus

B:

No more fights, slamming doors, walking out, left alone's
We both know it ain't the same not seeing each other's face, everyday girl, everyday girl

CH:

But I love you more n' more everyday girl
It wouldn't be the same without you in my world
I don't know what I did to deserve
All your love, everyday girl
Everyday girl
