

Been So Long by Melanie Peterson

It's hard to say
How this came to be Lying here with you
So close to me
Caught up in your arms
Tangled in your sheets
Lying so close
I can feel you breath

Pre-chorus
And I don't know how you did it
But you really caught my eye
No I don't know how you did it Once bitten twice shy

you woke me up
brought me back to life
led me out
into the sunlight
been so long since my heart crossed
my mind
now I'm knocking at your door
scene of the crime
I'm pulling you out
into the moonlight
been so long since my heart crossed
my mind

I open up
Like never before
When I'm in your arms
Behind closed doors
I'm as free as air
High as a kite
Never felt so real
Never felt so right

Pre-chorus
And I don't know how you did it
But you really healed my pain
No I don't know how you did it
Lit a fire in my veins

you woke me up
brought me back to life
led me out
into the sunlight
been so long since my heart crossed
my mind
now I'm knocking at your door
scene of the crime

bridge: I'm fallin' fallin',,,fallin' for you

you woke me up
led me out
my mind
my mind

double chorus

It's hard to say
How this came to be
Lying here with you
So close to me
