

NOW OR NEVER

Lora Ryan

Now or never, worse gets better
Time can't stand this still forever
Now you know, all feelings show
And I'm completely vulnerable

Now time, moves so slow and
I have hope, that you will love me
But if you don't
I cross my heart, that I might die
But if you could love me
All would be fine, fine.

Now or never, you will let her
Go so you can love me better
Now I wait, as you tempt fate
My everything is now at stake

And time, moves so slow and
I have hope, that you will love me
But if you don't
I cross my heart, that I might die
But if you could love me
All would be fine, fine
Fine, fine.

Maybe, I'm crazy, in love
Maybe, you're all that I want
Maybe, I keep holding on
Maybe, I don't want to give you up

Now or never, send this letter
Time goes on, but I know better
My heart will break, hearing your name
For years to come, I won't be the same

And time, moves so slow and
I lost hope, that you will love me
I know you don't
I cross my heart, that I might die
But if you would love me
All would be fine, fine (now or never)
Fine, fine (now or never)
Now or never
