

they passed a law last week scientists can't speak gag order they want every tape recorder they want to con-trol the blues restrict access to news shamelessly they grin
there will be no facts without spin they're tough on crime that's right they own a patent on that soundbite their grand plan unveiled build more jails

they want to con-trol the blues
shamelessly they grin

their ok with foul play every little G20 cop got paid but what's especially perverse is that this all feels rehearsed
they want to con-trol the blues
shamelessly they grin
