

Alarm by Brighid Fry

Feels like we're all cartoon characters lost in the desert.
Because we're tired and we laugh too much and never seem to crack a smile.

And I can lie to myself but not to you
And you can lie to yourself but not me too.

And they're saying, they're saying we set ourselves up to lose.

CHORUS

Alarm, alarm, it's late in the morning
Alarm, alarm, it gets kind of boring.
Just walking in circles and I can't find a mirage.
Back at the start.
Alarm, alarm, alarm.

Spend all day chasing the shade,
and all night we shiver.
Yeah we're tired and we want too much but we say we want a little.

And I'm lying to them but not to you.
And we're trying again to break through.

Are we setting, oh just setting ourselves up to lose?

CHORUS

Alarm, alarm, it's late in the morning
Alarm, alarm, it gets kind of boring.
Just walking in circles and I can't find a mirage.
Back at the start.
Alarm, alarm, alarm.

BRIDGE

I'll wake you up if you wake me up.
Oh I need to change it up.

CHORUS

Alarm, alarm, it's late in the morning
Alarm, alarm, it gets kind of boring.
Just walking in circles and I can't find a mirage.
Back at the start.
Alarm, alarm, alarm.

(Repeat chorus)
