

Blind Man *

Behind closed doors
The deals are made
They play with our lives
Like it's all just a game
And when they want
When they crave
They can take it all away
When man plays God
Nothing stands in his way
He takes what he wants
It's the power he craves
One by one
Surrender and obey
Or be branded enemy
Until one power
Controls everything
You're entrapped
You're enslaved

Blind Man
Open your eyes
Blind man
They stole your life
Blind man
Stand up and fight
Blind Man
We're running out of time

There goes the blind man
He's at it again
Punching the clock
And waiting for death
Climbing up mountains
Fighting for a spot on the hill
Look at the blind man
Out in the mud
Killing his brother
Killing his son
Killing just to help them
Build up these walls

I get so tired
Of seeing
All this wrong
I get so tired
Of living in this world
Tell me father
Tell me
Where's the love?
