

Snapchat lady

I woke up this morning
After a hell of a night
I heard my phone a buzzing
I must have gotten a bite
And there we were
Lying face to face
In just one minute (couple seconds)
gone without a trace

Well you're so close yet so far
And I find it all a little bizarre
You've got me out of my mind

My snapchat lady

Oh my lord
You did squats today
You put that fine behind
Up on display

And girl you look so fine
Oh the way that you smile
Why don't you come on over darling
Just for a little while

Girl you're so close yet so far
I know your story but don't know who you are
Why don't you come over tonight

Whistling solo

Just watching you hurts me
Just watching you teasing me baby
Just watching you snapping
Just watching you
