The Railway Porters' Song

Lyrics-Dan Hill

Music-Paul Novotny

Verse:

People come and go, we've seen them all.
Babies, children young and old, more than we recall.
Some ask us how we've held on proud and strong
But in life you take what comes your way

Declaration:

Here is our song.

Bridge:

The railway's our life
And our life is our job
Coast to coast, dusk 'till dawn
How the wheels roll along
Oh, it's the railway porters' song
The railway porter's, The railway porters' song

Verse 2:

It's late, my body's tired
I missed my man so long
Each night our children cry his name
Prayers like tears
Soft as rain, sing the railway song

Declaration 2:

The railway's my life

Bridge:

And my life is my job

Coast to coast, dusk to dawn

How the wheels roll along

It's the railway porters' song

Verse 3:

People ask us how we've held on

Proud and strong

But in life, we'll take what comes our way

It's the railway porters' the railway porter's...

It's the railway porters' song.
