

RUN

(eh-oh-uh-oh-du-du-da, eh-oh da-da-duh)

Maybe I got some place to go, ever think about that Maybe I'm just lost again, yeah I think about that All of a sudden it's time to think again so before I sink back to my senses

I would like to run,
to run to run away
I would like to run,
to run to run away (x2)

(eh-oh-uh-oh-du-du-da, eh-oh da-da-duh)

I'm looking for a place that's infinitely hipper than where I've been craving a nice space, life at the right pace, yeah this small time drama where no one thinks they're mean let me tell you something none of us are clean

I would like to run,
to run to run away
I would like to run,
to run to run away (x2)

(eh-oh-uh-oh-du-du-da, eh-oh da-da-duh)

Well a mind at sea's a clever endeavor after all, feelings are buried treasure surprise you find disappointment mired in rage and now it's all awash how do people have so much to say I can barely think sometimes

I would like to run,
to run to run away
I would like to run,
to run to run away (x2)
