

RAIN OF ANGELS

Written, arranged and performed by © Emmanuel Lopez, 1999

Lyrics:

Lonely again
Sending my bottled thoughts through the air
Can somebody hear me?

Praying for rain
Every well of love I find ends up dry
Before I can drink it

Light from the clouds
A rain of angels land over me
Cradle me in their wings

Deep in my heart I know
It's new love
Whatever you call it
It comes from above

Some say they're angels
Some say it's Christ or Buddha's hand
Some say that I've seen God
But...

Deep in my heart I know
It's new love
Whatever you call it
It comes from above
