CHRIST THE WIFE OF THE LAMB HAS REDEMPTION FOR BOTH SOUL AND BODY

How wonderful, wonderful are God's ways and the depth of His riches, both of wisdom and knowledge; and how unsearchable are His judgments, and His ways past finding out! They are past finding out in our natural mind, but being in the fullness of Christ, everything has unfolded for us; and we praise God for that! We praise God for His Word, how His plan is in His Word, but the details have come to us in this day that we are living in.

When we look at God's plan from the beginning of the New Testament, we see that He begot a Word-Son through a virgin named Mary, and that Son was a Word-man (the Word made flesh) walking around here on earth for about thirty years. Then when He was baptized by John the Baptist, the fullness of the Christ Spirit came into Him, and He became Jesus the Christ; and He had about a three and a half year ministry. And at the end of His earthly ministry, He entered into the Lamb office. And when He did, that was a time of distress for Him there in the Garden of Gethsemane as He was making the decision to go to the cross and give His life. He knew what He had to do, for "the spirit is willing," He said, "but the flesh is weak." So there in the garden, the flesh was crying and praying until His sweat became as it were great drops of blood. Paul spoke about it in the Book of Hebrews, Chapter 5, saying that was the way Melchizedek did; and Melchizedek overcame death. And that is what Jesus Christ did, He overcame death Himself there in the garden. That is when He was given the word from Almighty God that He did not have to die; for God said to Him, "Presently you can call more than twelve legions of angels to deliver yourself." But if Jesus had delivered Himself, then He could not have taken this earthly tabernacle that we are living in and convert it into a Word-body of glorified flesh and bones in this moment of the twinkling of an eye.

Notice, it was at the end of His earthly ministry that He went from the office of the prophet to the office of the Lamb. And from there He went to the cross. He was whipped, beaten, crucified, and died for our sins. But before He was taken to the cross, He had overcame death there in the Garden of Gethsemane; and by that victory He bought a new body for us all, a Word-body of glorified flesh and bones. And now He had a choice; and rather than accepting this life for Himself alone and not dying, He chose to die because He had a Wife out there that sinned and needed salvation. So He gave His life to redeem not only His Wife but all of God's children whose names were in the Book of Redemption.

After the Lord Jesus Christ became the Lamb of God by giving His life, He became the mediator, sitting on the Father's throne; and that lasted throughout the church ages. And then after the church ages were over, Christ Jesus came back in Revelation, Chapter 10, showing that there was a feminine breakaway part from the masculine part of the Christ Spirit so that the feminine part could take on a separate physical body of glorified flesh and bones. Therefore, we the members of that body became the physical glorified body of the feminine part of the Christ Spirit as His Wife in the earth, thus, leaving the Lord Jesus Christ all masculine. From this point, the Lord Jesus Christ became Husband, and the King of Israel, and the King of all the earth. This was made possible because of the breakaway of the feminine part of the Christ Spirit for the marriage of the Lamb, and we the feminine part of Christ became His Queen, which has taken place. So now the Lord Jesus Christ is all masculine and His Queen is all feminine. So the marriage made us one with the Lord Jesus Christ, but now in separate bodies so that God's Word could be manifested in glorified flesh and bones as Husband and Wife, showing forth God's perfect plan, as He has unfolded His plan for His Son and His Son's Wife.

It was like when God created Adam and Eve; for in the Book of Genesis 1:27, it says, "So God created man in His own image, in the image of God created He him; male and female created He them." So it was that them (the masculine and feminine parts), it was the attributes that were in God. So in God were the good things that belonged to the female, the feminine part, and also the good things in the male, the masculine part. And God put it all in Adam to begin with, every bit of it. He put in Adam not only the masculine, but He also put the feminine in him for safe keeping until He created Adam's wife, Eve. But then when God put Adam to sleep, He took a rib from Adam's side and with that rib He created a body for Eve that was made from Adam's body. And then He took the feminine part of the spirit that was in Adam (for Adam was both masculine and feminine) and put it into Eve. And by this we can see a type of what God did with the Lord Jesus Christ in creating His Wife here in the end time. He broke away the feminine part that was in Adam and created Eve and gave her the feminine nature, and she was all feminine. And Adam was all masculine. And that is the way the creation of mankind got its start.

In Adam and Eve, we see a stream of life, known symbolically as the river of life, which was started then. But evil got in through the serpent and began to pervert that life stream (river of life) for mankind, which caused this river to begin to be muddy as it traveled through time. And though this happened, there was still the life of God in that river along with the works of man. And we see this all the way through the Old Testament. And when the gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ started, then that Old Testament river became part of the New Testament river (which we call the main salvational river), for He came saying, "Salvation is to the Jews." And that main salvational river continued to flow through time to not only the Jews but also to the Gentiles. So it is still flowing in this very day to provide life for all the people until the earth goes into eternity. But later on in this message, we will show that there was a breakaway river from that main salvational river that had gotten muddy through time. And that breakaway river is Christ the Wife of the Lamb.

As said earlier, when Jesus was born, He was the Word made flesh and lived thirty years, and then He was baptized, which at that time the Word made flesh was anointed as the Christ Spirit came into Him without measure, making Him Jesus the Christ, and He had both the masculine and feminine parts of that them that was in the Christ Spirit within Him. And then He went forth and was seen as a prophet, and then He became the Lamb as He went to the cross and died. Afterwards, He went down into the heart of the earth and preached to the spirits in prison and delivered those Old Testament saints who had kept the law and died under the blood of bulls and goats, which could not take away sin. So He went down and brought them up, and they were seen on this earth for forty days and nights, as shown in the Book of Matthew, Chapter 27. And when Jesus Christ ascended up to heaven, He took them up with Him to their place of abode.

Notice, here was the Lord Jesus Christ in a glorified body, but He had in His Spirit the masculine and feminine parts of the Christ Spirit. And, of course, that lasted throughout the seven church ages. But in this last day, the virgin was restored back to the foundation that Paul laid. And at the time the virgin was restored back, it came time (shown in Revelation, Chapter 10) for Christ Jesus to come and claim the Wife of the Lord Jesus Christ, which was a virgin. Therefore, that feminine breakaway part, the feminine part of the Christ Spirit that was in the Lord Jesus Christ (the glorified Christ, which was both masculine and feminine), was broken away, and then with that breakaway part, God created us the Wife of His Son.

How did God do all this creation? With the Word, with this message of the last trump of God. And that is what we are showing forth today. He created all of this with His Word. And because that feminine part of the Christ Spirit separated or broke away from the masculine, that left the Lord Jesus Christ all masculine. He is the King. He is the Lamb. And He is the only Lamb. And He is the only King. And we are the only Wife. And He clothed us in fine linen, clean and white. So we are married to Him and are showing forth all the feminine attributes. Therefore, we are not crossbred or a crossed up seed or anything of that nature, but we are the Wife of the Lamb. And now in this moment of time as the action of the twinkling of an eye ### is taking place, He is showing us by revelation how He created us glorified flesh and bones.

I want you to notice here that the Lord Jesus Christ fully paid the price for us there in the garden, as He suffered and overcame death free and clear. I love that part! Again, Paul referred to what happened to Melchizedek, showing the same thing that happened to the Lord Jesus Christ as He overcame. See, Melchizedek overcame death and did not The Lord Iesus Christ also overcame death, but instead of not dying, He gave that up and turned around and died in order to save not only His Wife but all the other children of God. In Matthew, Chapter 26, and in Luke, Chapter 22, we get the story where He went to the garden and prayed three different times, "If it be possible, Father, let this cup pass from me." Then He said, "Nevertheless, not my will, but thine be done." And right then and there the will of the Lord Iesus Christ and the will of God the Father (who is a Spirit) came together perfectly. And then the Lord Jesus Christ stood to His feet and said to Peter and the others with Him, "Let us be going;" and at the same time, Judas, who had betrayed Him, brought the soldiers to arrest Him. And, frantically, Peter pulled out his sword to defend Jesus, and he cut off an ear of a servant of the high priest. But Jesus said, "Put up thy sword." And then He touched the man's ear and healed him. And then He said, "Thinkest thou that I cannot now pray to my Father, and He shall presently give me more than twelve legions of angels? But how then shall the scriptures be fulfilled, that thus it must be?" In other words, He was saying, "How else can the scriptures be fulfilled if I do not do this?" Now I say, "How else could the scriptures be fulfilled today if there was not this last trump of God message

echoing forth in 1 Corinthians 15:51-52? How else could we have the Word of glorified flesh and bones that is of and to the Wife?" God is showing us how He created a Wife for His Son. It was through this last trumpet sound. And that is what is right before us, for we have and are the Word of glorified flesh and bones. That is what we see right now. And that is what these books are all about. So we, the Wife, are here and can go to the books and find that contentment and realize all these promises that were made are now promises that are kept, and they are yay and amen. In other words, there is no argument about it. It is 'Yay and Amen.' It is the truth. There is revelational truth laid in here. And that truth is this Word that is coming forth.

A few weeks back, I preached the message God Has Given the Wife of the Lamb a New and Pure Language. And that language is what this message is speaking. There is new revelation and new phraseology that was not there in the days when Paul preached (or anyone else since for that matter). There are new ways of presenting; and it is not exact quotes as to what Paul or someone else said. And we find out that even Paul himself showed the same thing, for when he quoted from the Old Testament, he quoted the meaning of it rather than the words of it. So sometimes we quote the meaning rather than word for word. A lot of people are so careful to get 'word for word.' Well, I have news for them; Paul said the letter will kill if that is all you have got. There was a Spirit that went with the message that Paul preached to introduce the virgin, and then it was all put into written form. And the church world has taken it today, and they are reading someone else's letters. Much of what Paul wrote was for the virgin, to energize her while she came through the church ages. But the prophetic part is for the Wife. And we the Wife are energized at the reading of it, even in this very moment. And now we are putting the Wife's message in written form.

Notice, Paul's saying of 'the letter killeth' (meaning, 'the tree of knowledge alone without the tree of life killeth') does not apply to the Wife, because the feminine part of the Christ Spirit broke away from the masculine part of the Lord Jesus Christ and is the Spirit of this last trump of God message. And that feminine part of the Christ Spirit has taken a permanent dwelling place in us, for we furnished Her with a body of glorified flesh and bones. And for the Wife of the Lamb, there is no 'the letter killeth' because the tree of knowledge does not exist for us as we can see in Revelation, Chapter 22, for there is only the tree of life.

Today much of the church world thinks they are the spiritual body of Christ, the virgin bride, and there are even now some that think they are the Wife and have begun to call themselves that. And both are calling themselves that without having this message of the last trump of God and the feminine part of the Christ Spirit, which has already taken on a physical glorified body in us. But that is all right. We know they do not have the feminine part of the Christ Spirit that broke away from the masculine Lord Jesus Christ; because when the breakaway feminine part of the Christ Spirit took place in Revelation, Chapter 10, it took a permanent home (a permanent resting place) in us, a physical body of glorified flesh and bones. We are the Wife that gave Her (the feminine part of the Christ Spirit) a glorified body. That made Her and Us the same. And the Lord named us Christ the Wife of the Lamb. So we are the breakaway feminine part (that breakaway river that is pure, clear as crystal) shown in Revelation 22:1 which is flowing today.

God showed us that there are two rivers. Remember here the dream He gave some weeks back. In the dream, I saw a great river coming around the bend, and from this main river (which is the main river of salvation that has come through time), there was another river that broke away from it. And that breakaway river was clear as crystal, while the other river had gotten muddy over time. But within that muddy river, there were also some people that really loved the Lord and had gotten caught in that, as they were not to be the Wife, so they could not have the revelation of glorified flesh and bones. So God lets that main river of salvation roll on until it is time for the predestinated that are in that river to hear the Word that is for them. And there is a song called Roll on Muddy River. And Jordan happens to be a river that is muddy most all the time. Roll on! And we see this main river of salvation is also seen in the message for Israel that the two prophets are part of that are shown as the two witnesses of Revelation, Chapter 11. And following the two prophets, there will come 144,000 Jewish preachers preaching the everlasting gospel to the whole world, which the tribulation saints will hear (as well as the natural people that are to go into the millennial reign in their natural state of being). But prior to all of that happening, here is the last trump of God echoing out through Christ the Wife of the Lamb (who is that breakaway river that is pure and clear as crystal) with this message that is showing the forming of glorified flesh and bones on the Wife, which includes those members of the Wife that are in Israel.

So this message of the last trump of God is sounding forth today. And it is being put into book form. And in times past, we may not have fully understood why we put these messages into book form, and why we are so particular about it; but it is because it is of and to the Wife of the Lamb, so that we can pick it up and read it. And it is also a testimony and witness to those that will have to go through the tribulation. For once we are gone, others can get ahold of it and read it and say, "Yes, here is what they had. This is good! How come we could not see this?" But they go rolling on down the muddy river.

Notice, after the two prophets are put to death in the middle of 70th Week of Daniel. God raises them from the dead; for after three and a half days the Spirit of life from God enters into them, and they stand upon their feet. And then they hear a great voice from heaven saying unto them, "Come up hither." And they will ascend up to heaven in a cloud; and their enemies will behold them as they leave this earth. Then the anointing of God falls upon 144,000 Jewish preachers, and they follow the Spirit of the Lamb (Revelation, Chapters 14 and 18), and the earth will be lightened with His glory. They will go forth with a message, and no one can stand against it. Many will resist it and will curse and blaspheme God about all the plagues and all that has come upon the earth, but there is 144,000 ministering Jews that are untouched, who will preach the gospel to fear God and give glory to Him, 'Babylon has fallen; it has already fell.' They will be saying, "There is only one hope for you; come out of that religious and political system and stand for the Lord Jesus Christ!" And those that do, many of them will be put to death; and the Bible refers to that as 'they wash their robes and make them white in the blood of the Lamb.' (Revelation, Chapter 7) And they go to the grave. But as soon as the tribulation and the day of the Lord is over, here we are, Christ the Wife of the Lamb, back on earth, clothed in fine linen, clean and white, and here is King Jesus that has fought the Battle of Armageddon to bring this world into a new order, which is the millennium. And He will raise all of those from the dead that were born again, including those that went through the tribulation and gave their lives for their stand for the truth of God's Word.

When we get there, when the millennium starts, there will be people that we will be surprised to see, those that could not see this last trump of God, the message of glorified flesh and bones. And there are some that do not try to see it; they just want to come against it. But here it is, a message laying here that is available to all the world that has been printed, a permanent record of it, just like for the virgin there was a permanent record that Paul left her because she needed it coming through time. But, see, all other religions tried to get some of what Paul said and mix it with their doctrine, and it made a mud hole. And this does not mean there was not someone that really got the truth of what it was and realized that they had to stand for that truth that had life in it for them. So when the message of the 144,000 comes forth, there is only one chance, and that is to come and stand for God, to be true to Him, to be true to what they know, saying, "If we die, we die." And that is what Esther said when she went before the king, "If I die, then so be it. I am going to stand for God." She made a decision there and saved Israel.

It is so great today to be rejoicing in the Lord and to realize and see what He has done. He has given us a message! It is "The trumpet is sounding!" And we know that we are the breakaway river. See, this river broke loose from the main river of salvation; and this river is flowing from the throne of God and of the Lamb and on through us the Wife of the Lamb. Yes, there is life in that main river because that water is the life-giving source to many things. But this breakaway river is the life of Christ the Wife of the Lamb. It is the glory. It is the power. It is the fine linen, clean and white. It is the righteousness that came by our marriage to the Lord Jesus Christ. And it does not have any attachments other than to be in this river and float right along rejoicing in it, as we have become this pure river of life.

So here we are today, Christ the Wife of the Lamb, that breakaway river, dressed in fine linen, clean and white, with the righteousness which is of the fullness of the faith of Christ, wearing a crown of life, and we are speaking a new and pure language. We are not in the image of the Son of God, but we are showing forth the image that was prophesied by John in Revelation 19:7-8. So that image has been brought to life and is speaking! No, it is not something that we are pressing for and trying to be. We do not try, because if we are that, then we do not have to try. Here, we are just being what we are. Some people ask me, "How do I get in the Wife?" You do not have to do anything. You just had to be part of that special part of the Word there with Him before the world was. And when you hear this trumpet sounding, by revelation you will know. The Wife has made Herself ready, how? By hearing this message; the trumpet is sounding!

So we are the full grown Wife of the Lamb, for we reached the stature of the fullness of Christ. Therefore, we are the same stature as our Husband the Lord Jesus Christ. And that means we know the difference between male and female, the masculine and the feminine attributes. He is the Lord Jesus Christ the King; He is the Lamb King and we are His Queen.

Here, I want to mention the message that was preached recently and put into book form called The Breakaway Feminine Part of the Christ Spirit and the Wrath of the Lamb, which showed that the feminine part had to be taken out of the Lord Jesus Christ, thus leaving Him all masculine and His Wife all feminine with a physical body of glorified flesh and bones given to Her by us, the members of this body of saints.

Prior to this, when the Lord Jesus Christ walked around here, and then became the Lamb of God that Isaiah, Chapter 53, prophesied about, it gave us such a beautiful picture of how humble the Lamb was and how when He went to the cross He opened not His mouth, even at the urging of Pontius Pilate there saying, "Help me out; I want to let you go." Because Pilate, who was the Roman governor of Judaea at that time, had gotten a letter from his wife saying, "Have nothing to do with this just man, because I suffered many things in a dream because of Him." And Pilate was trying to find a way out. So he asked Jesus, "Are you the King?" And Jesus simply answered, "You say." And other times He opened not His And that fulfilled the scripture that Isaiah prophesied, "As a lamb goes to the slaughter, He opened not His mouth." What was He doing? He was buying complete salvation for us so that we would have it today, so that we could have glorified bodies, and so that we could have not only eternal life for the soul but eternal life for the body as well, so that our whole self could have eternal life.

Now here we are, Christ the Wife of the Lamb, clothed in fine linen, clean and white. And we no longer have to die, for we have received our full redemption. Yes, there are others that will get to the place of their redemption where it says in Revelation 14:13, "Blessed are they that die in the Lord from henceforth." That is in the great tribulation period when the whole world is falling apart and the mark of the beast is being forced upon the world. Yes! They die in the Lord, but they will be resurrected at the beginning of the millennium; and they will have a place, and they will be instructors to the farmers, and to those that take care of this earth.

Remember there is a commandment that has not been fulfilled yet. And that is what God gave to Adam when He said, "Be fruitful, multiply and bring forth children; replenish the earth and take control of it, and let the earth be your servant instead of you being a servant to the earth." But when Adam and Eve sinned, that day the earth began to bring forth thorns and thistles, and it was said to them that the earth would not yield its abundance anymore. There was a curse put upon it, and it is going to be lifted when King Jesus comes. That is why in the Book of Ezekiel 21:27 it says that the governments of the world shall be overturned, overturned till He comes whose right it is to reign, which is the Lord Jesus Christ. Then and only then will we see a government where everything is done right on earth. And there will be a thousand years when children will be born. There will be beautiful marriages, with each family having a husband and wife to teach their children the way of the Lord, and on their farms, they will plant their fields and vineyards. In Isaiah, Chapters 65 and 66, it says that they will plant vineyards and eat the fruits thereof. And they will not work hard to get everything ready, then relax and suddenly have a heart attack and die. No, they will live throughout the millennium and enjoy the fruits of the labor of their hands while rejoicing in the Lord. And from time to time they will come up to Jerusalem where the King sits on the throne to see Him and His Queen Wife. And the pure river of the water of life is flowing through Her, as it is now. And Her fruits are right there (and are manifested here and now as well). And that Her is Us. Notice, that is spiritual fruit and water. It is the Spirit of Life. And they will leave Jerusalem and go back home rejoicing with such joy! And during this thousand years, death will only be used for those that insist on breaking God's laws. (Isaiah 65:20)

Today there is nothing for us to be down about! The crown that the Lord Jesus Christ has given us does not fit our head too well if our head is hanging down. But our head is lifted up; for we are not carrying a cross, but we are wearing the crown of life and are rejoicing every moment! It is like the song my wife wrote called Lord, It Was That Wonderful, Wonderful You! Who did all these things? Who made all of this for us? Who gave us this message of glorified flesh and bones? Who caused the trumpet to sound? Who gave a voice in the land for the trumpet to blow through? Glory to God, it was that wonderful, wonderful You! Oh, hallelujah! Amen. Thank you, Jesus! This is something to rejoice about, something to praise

God about—to know that we have complete salvation. "We are giving honor and glory too, and sing praises to that wonderful, wonderful You!" We are eternal beings, both soul and body. We are that breakaway river. See, that river flows from the throne of God and of the Lamb in eternity (Revelation, Chapter 22). Well, we, Christ the Wife of the Lamb, are that river, and it is even now flowing. So what is over there is also over here. Amen.

Years ago, I preached about the city of God, which types out what God did through time. He just comes down to this earth to reveal and show what He has done—the wall of the city and the street of the city was pure gold like unto clear glass. Well, there is no literal 'pure gold as clear as glass.' Then there were the gates of the city. And in building an ancient city, they set the gates first; and then they built the wall around the gates so that when they had a war and the battering ram would beat against the gates and wall, the gates would hold, and that is why the city where they dwelled was practically impregnable. So the twelve patriarchs of the Old Testament are those gates. The twelve apostles of the Lamb in the New Testament were the twelve foundations of the wall, showing Israel. But then there was Paul; and he said, "I laid THE foundation." That is where he laid the New Testament Word in there unlike any of the other twelve apostles in his day, unlike any other writer in his day. So there was a foundation laid within this city that we are built upon, which includes the prophetic part for our day. So many times I will go right to the prophetic part of what Paul said and bring it right up to what we are saying. And he did not say it exactly like we say it in this time. But he laid it in the foundation in a prophetic manner, and when it came to pass, then it was all made clear.

Now, here in the present, we the Wife have the message of glorified flesh and bones that is just for us. Now comes the rejoicing! Now comes the praising of God! For now we have the fullness! All of the growth has taken place, and we are here in fullness, walking in eternity; for it has made the body and the soul both to become eternal in this new and pure stream of life; and here we are, rejoicing in the Lord!

Notice, before God did all of this, He sent Christ Jesus back with those saints shown in 1 Thessalonians 4:14 that died through the seven church ages that were only under the introduction to this, those that had Paul's message, those that were espoused, those that became the virgin under Paul; and now we all together, all members of the Wife, are married to the Lord Jesus Christ. because of this message of and to the Wife of the Lamb, we know that the marriage has taken place, and we have all become part of the marriage because the Bible says together. We are together with them. And "together we will be caught up to meet the Lord in the air." And we are all clothed in fine linen, clean and white. This message has given us fine linen, clean and white. And there are no spots and no wrinkles, nor anything of that nature; it is just glory hallelujah! Praise be to God! Amen!

Who did this? Lord, it was that wonderful, wonderful you! And we were with Him before the foundation of the world. And to the glory of God we got married to the Lord Jesus Christ in Revelation, Chapter 10; for Christ Jesus came, but the Lord Jesus (the man part, the glorified man part) stayed in heaven. And we were married to Him by proxy. And now we are the Christ Wife in the earth, and we are one with Him, bone of His bones and flesh of His flesh, and we are Spirit of His Spirit because we received the fullness of His Spirit, starting with the revelation of receiving the Holy Ghost for that earlier time. But now it is not just the baptism of the Holy Ghost, which gave eternal life to the inner man, but here came the fullness of Christ giving full redemption to the body without dying. That is why we had to wait for the marriage; it could not take place in Paul's day, it had to take place when Christ Iesus came down from heaven, because we had to be united (or joined) to a man that is glorified flesh and bones; and we have become one with Him, bone of His glorified bones and flesh of His glorified flesh. And, yes, we His Wife are one with the Lord and to the extent that our bodies are now the glorified temple of the Lord. We furnished the breakaway feminine part of the Christ Spirit with a glorified body in the earth, for now we are joined unto the King. The King and the Queen are one now. And being the Queen, we stand tall. And the Queen will always stand tall for the King, the Lord Jesus Christ, who is presently waiting in heaven. And soon we will be raptured up to be with Him until it is time to come back to this earth for the millennial reign.

In Revelation 19:11-16 it shows that He brings us back with Him. But the thing is, when He comes back and brings us back with Him, we are kept in a wonderful place to rejoice while He goes out there and fights the Battle of Armageddon, shown in Revelation, Chapter 6. He treads the winepress of the wrath of God. And He does not need any help. He alone will get the job done right, thank you! Then He will get dressed in His Kingly robe, and He will come forth and will bring His Wife to Him; and here sits the King and the Queen throughout the millennium with the glory of God shining upon them. Well, that is just a foretaste of glory divine!

At the end of the millennium, the devil is loosed for a little season to try those that were born and lived their lives in the millennium, for they will be tried to see who will stand for God's ways. Sad to say, many will follow the devil, who will try to deceive the people that were born during this thousand years of peace on earth, and only those who are his seed will follow after him; and they will try to overthrow the saints but are unsuccessful, for God sends fire down from heaven and they are all burned up. At this time, the devil and all those that followed him since time began will be cast into the lake of fire and are all destroyed along with death itself. Then there will be no more sin nor death in the earth.

God has shared all these secrets with us, the Wife of His Son, and we praise Him for it. He has shown us what was way back there in the prehistoric times, and He has shown us the future, all the way into the millennium and what is thereafter. Oh, it is for the glory of God, an earth that we can be so proud of! Oh, what a time! And we are enjoying these truths today. We are enjoying the blessings. We are enjoying this goodness. This fruit tastes better and better every day as these gifts go forth! Amen.

We the Wife are connected and married to Him that already has a glorified Word body, thus making us the same. And here we are today, Christ the Wife of the Lamb! This is so good, so wonderful! And we appreciate Him so much. We cannot say enough good things about Him, because He not only saved our soul, but now the body is saved, for we took another step, we were married to Him and have become glorified bone of His glorified bones and glorified flesh of His glorified flesh. And now we can truly sing, "We are in a new world." Amen! That is why the old one does not hold any attraction to us at all.

God bless you today. Let us keep enjoying this breakaway river where there is nothing but purity. It is just joy, joy, joy unspeakable and in the fullness of the glory of God. Amen.

Father, bless this Word today. May it accomplish that which you have ordained. Lord, you have given us the last trump, and it is not only in the spoken Word form, but now it is in written form. So it can be heard in audio form anywhere in the world and also read, and we thank you for it in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.
