TRANSLATED FROM VIRGIN TO GLORIFIED WIFE OF THE LAMB

It is so good to be here today. My wife, Barbarajean, was talking about the weather changing, because it has gotten cold here again. I said that I was not going to be a weatherman preacher, but it is just an amazing thing that God does to this earth, for He twists it one way or the other and the trees get green and produce, then it gets another way like it is now, where the leaves are dry and it has turned cold. But it is still beautiful. We were saying yesterday how an artist cannot fix it like God can, the colors and all. It is just something He does. He is real, and we love Him just the way He is. We would not want to change Him, and He would not want to change us, because He predestinated us to be like we were before the world was.

It is so good to know Him and the things of the Lord. And He is the same yesterday, today, and forever. How could it be that He is the same, and yet He does different things in different ages? God remains the same, and His plan remains the same, but He does not reveal His plan all at once. He expresses one part of it, and then He moves on to reveal another part in its proper season. It is so good to know God and to serve Him. We are having a good time here and thanking God for what He has shown us. We would not know these things except for revelation. And I love revelation, don't you? Just to see how God opens things up from time to time. And it is all so good and all so beautiful, all these things that are happening and all that is going on. We praise God for them!

So, when talking about God, we know that it takes real understanding, and that understanding comes by revelation. So, only by revelation can we truly understand God and how He is moving. And it takes even greater understanding and faith when we begin to realize that God spoke to a certain young woman named Mary, and she became pregnant and bore the Son of God, the Lord Jesus Christ. So, here came another One in the Godhead—One equal with God. And we praise God for that! After crucifixion, the Lord Jesus Christ rose from the dead and came forth in glorified flesh and bones. It was then that He took a Wife. Notice, He did not take a Wife until after He had come forth in glorified flesh and bones, and that did not take place until the fulfillment of Revelation, Chapter 10. And now there is another member, the feminine part included in the Godhead, which is us, the Wife of the Lamb, whom God named Christ the Wife. So, because of our marriage, the Lord Jesus Christ and us, His Wife, are one flesh.

Notice, that is what Adam said way back there in the beginning about Eve: “She is now bone of my bone and flesh of my flesh.” Paul spoke this same truth in Ephesians 5:30 when he prophesied about a marriage yet to take place, saying to the espoused virgin, “For we are members of His body, of His flesh, and of His bones.” This was speaking of glorified flesh and bones. But it did not come to pass in Paul’s day. Again, notice that this came to pass in our day, at the fulfillment of Revelation, Chapter 10, when our marriage to the Lord Jesus Christ took place, and it made Him and us the same; it made us one. Now, we the Wife of the Lamb are the feminine part of the Godhead.

So, we see that after our marriage took place to the Lord Jesus Christ, then we are truly one with the Godhead. The Lord Jesus Christ is the fullness of the Godhead bodily, and when He took us as His Wife, we became part of the same—the fullness of the Godhead bodily. We have become as He is. Therefore, just as He has direct access to God, we the Wife of the Lamb also have direct access to God. So, neither the Son nor us, His Wife, needs a mediator between us and God. So, today as we talk about this, it will paint such a beautiful picture as we go along, thus showing that what was hidden in God, the feminine part, is now revealed here in the earth.

A while back, God gave me a dream about two rivers, and the revelation in the dream was earthshaking. I saw a great river coming around the bend, which is the main river of salvation that has flowed through time. But then I saw another river, separate from the main river. The second river was pure and clear as crystal, while the first river had become muddy over time. In Genesis 2:10, we see a river that flowed out from Eden and divided into four heads. That river was not only for mankind, but it was also for the greenery of the earth. It was there that God gave Adam and Eve the commandment to conquer and subdue the earth. The garden was a beautiful place, yet God still left man something to do: to go forth, bring increase, and extend that beauty throughout the earth. So, that main river of life that began in Eden continued running all the way through time. But here at the end time, after the main river had run its course for us, the Wife, a crystal-clear river, shown in Revelation 22:1 flowing from the throne of God and the Lamb, came into plain view. Now, this is an entirely different river than the main river, and it is not broken up into four heads, and it has nothing mixed with it. It is only purity—the purity that is only seen in the Wife of the Lamb. See, when our marriage to the Lord Jesus Christ took place, God created us, the Wife, a brand-new river.

So now, we the Wife of the Lamb are in this new river, and this new river is in us, making us and the river one and the same. Yes, that main river is still flowing, but it ran its course for us, and then here came something else from God's plan that was already in His plan to begin with, and that is us, the Wife of the Lamb. So, God created us, the Wife, a brand-new river. And this river is pure and crystal clear. When I saw it in the dream I could look down through the water and see the stones at the bottom of it, while the other river ran on by, with a lot of debris, like stumps, washing down with it. And even though that main river was mixed with different things, it not only gave life to the natural things, but it also gave life for a certain element of God's people that have accepted the Lord Jesus Christ. They accepted God's ways, and it gave them eternal life. That river, which divided into four heads, has flowed all the way through time and into many places. No doubt, over the centuries, it divided further and continued watering the earth—not only giving life to the natural world but also bringing eternal life to those who were in God's plan from the beginning. Yet, we the Wife of the Lamb are a group that is special beyond all others in the eyes of God. We are not only the Wife of His Son, but we are also the feminine part of the Godhead. As the Lord Jesus Christ is part of the Godhead, so we, His Wife, are part of the Godhead as well. This truth is real and wonderful, and we rejoice in it. My wife, Barbarajean, gets to reading our books, and I can hear her in another room laughing, shouting and having a good time! And that was not afforded to women very much in the Old Testament, nor was it afforded much during the church ages. But in this new river of life, it is afforded to Her. Being the Wife of the Lamb, we are the feminine part of the Godhead, part of the Lord Jesus Christ, bone of His glorified bones and flesh of His glorified flesh. All these things are truly wonderful!

I love the way God revealed the masculine and feminine parts of His Spirit using the image of rivers. He could have used something else, but He chose rivers from the beginning, in Eden. But when we came to the end time, He has brought forth a new group unlike any other, which is us, the Wife of the Lamb. When the Lord Jesus Christ married us and became one with us, the whole Godhead was brought together in this new river of life, a new bright shining way. So, now through our marriage, we see the new river and the fullness of the Godhead in the earth today. It is the new river of the Wife of the Lamb. Glory to God, and we are rejoicing in the Lord!

Recently, someone spoke with me about the two rivers and said that it helped them greatly. They could clearly see the group of people living in the main river of life; that part was plain to them. However, when it came to the new river of the Wife of the Lamb, they could not see or understand it. The reason is that they are not part of the Wife of the Lamb. They are not ordained to be that. Yet they are still part of God's family, living in and receiving the blessings of God through the main river of life, which continues to flow through the millennium. In that place, they fit perfectly.

We appreciate the Word of God—not only the Word written in the Bible, which has served its purpose for us by preparing us and bringing us to our marriage to the Lord Jesus Christ, but also the revelation now being shown through us, the Wife of the Lamb. We are showing forth another river, one that is pure, crystal-clear, and wonderful. Hallelujah! But we thank God for the main river as well, for it is for those who are not chosen to be part of us, the Wife. In that river, they still desire to be like Jesus Christ, to be conformed to the image of the Son of God, unlike us, who are Christ the Wife of the Lamb, that are living in this new river of life.

I remember a few years ago when Barbarajean came to me with something the Lord had shown her about God's projected image for us, the Wife of the Lamb. She saw that being conformed to the image of the Son of God, as Paul described, and becoming the Lamb's Wife, as revealed in Revelation 19:7-8, were two different images. And it was right after this that God gave me the dream of the two rivers, showing that we the Wife of the Lamb are the feminine part of the Christ Spirit in glorified flesh and bones. God let us know that, by creating Adam as male, and then He created Eve as female. That reveals something about God that the world did not know—that God is both masculine and feminine. And when we came down to the time that we are in, God created a new river of life at our marriage to His Son.

Notice, there is now a new people, and we are the Wife of the Lamb, the feminine part of the Godhead. God is our Father, and we the Wife do not have to go through a mediator to speak with Him. I am not talking of those in the other river, the main river of life, for they still need a mediator to make intercession for them. But we the Wife can go to the Father directly, just as the Son goes to the Father. Those in the main river of life also have access to the Father, but they come through the appointed process, with a mediator; and of course, there is no greater mediator than the Lord Jesus Christ. The main river is still flowing, and we the Wife understand this. Therefore, we keep the right attitude towards those who are not part of us, the Wife. As the Wife of the Lamb, we see clearly and understand that we are a separate people that are living in the new river of life, while the others remain in the main river of life, and they have their part of God. The main river continues to flow, while we, the Wife, are rejoicing with an inexpressible joy full of glory in our new river of life—the new book of life seen in us, Christ the Wife of the Lamb. So, to us, the Wife, the two rivers make perfect sense. And it only made sense to us when the revelation of God got involved. And we only entered into this new river of life strictly by revelation. No other way. And that revelation let us know that we know that we know! And here we are today.

In the past, I have been reluctant to say too loud that we are the Wife of the Lamb and leave all these others out. But see, they have their place and they are happy in their place. And they would not be happy in any other place, because God put them in a place that fits their nature, their mentality. And God is right there with them to bring them through everything they need to go through. When the tribulation takes place—and we see everything is gathering together and getting ready right now for it to take place—there is a group of people still living in that main river of life. They may not be saying too much now about their love for the Lord Jesus Christ, but when persecution comes and they must openly accept Him and serve God, there is going to be people stand for God. We find them in Revelation, Chapter 7, dressed in white robes, praising God. But there is another group in Revelation 19:7-8, and this group is us, the Wife of the Lamb, dressed in fine linen, clean and white, which is the righteousness of the fullness of the faith of Christ. See, our marriage to the Lord Jesus Christ has already taken place, and we are the feminine part of the Godhead. And here, we see both rivers. Notice, God's Spirit that is in these two rivers are not contending with each other. Everyone is happy in the river they are in. If you do not believe it, try and talk to those in the main river about the Wife of the Lamb, and they will say, "You have your belief and I have mine." See, it all works out, the plan of God is working out.

As the Wife of the Lamb, we are living in this new river of life, which is pure and crystal clear, and we continue to learn more of the things of God, and it is so wonderful. But notice: that other river continues to flow on its own course. Those in that river do not concern themselves with what we do, what we believe, or the revelation of this new river. First of all, they do not know about it. Yet there is a people on earth today, which is us, the Wife of the Lamb, whom mainstream Christianity does not know anything about, because this truth has been hidden from them. We are in a different river than they are, a river that is pure and crystal clear.

Notice what happened at Calvary. After Jesus Christ was crucified and rose from the dead, it was the sisters—women who had not previously been given the right to handle the Word—who were told to go and tell the apostles that He had risen. In that moment, they began to have a part in spreading the gospel. I am not saying that God called women to preach, but you do not have to be a preacher to have a testimony that will set people's hearts on fire. Later, in the New Testament, it was Paul that specifically recognized and honored the women who helped him in the gospel. God gave Paul the creative Word to espouse a virgin to the Lord Jesus Christ, preparing her to be married to Him later. During that espousal stage of the gospel, Paul began to give women a greater place in the things of God. Their handling of the Word increased, yet it remained within the espousal stage and continued to flow in the main river of life. Because the virgin fell away from the purity of Paul's gospel, the marriage did not take place then. As a result, the woman was not yet elevated to stand with the Lord Jesus Christ on the same level as His Wife, nor was she included in the Godhead. Now, however, outside of that main river, the new river of life—the new book of life—reveals that our marriage to the Lord Jesus Christ has taken place. It is separate from the other river. In other words, this new river is not merely a branch flowing out from the main river. When I first preached this, shortly after receiving the dream of the two rivers, I described the new river as a breakaway river. But it is not a breakaway river off the main river, because it is an independent river. It did not have to break away from the other river, because it was never part of it. It is a river of life in itself, and it is for the Wife of the Lamb. This pure, crystal-clear river is flowing today, and we are a glorified body of people who truly love it and appreciate it. This is what we, the Wife of the Lamb are: the pure and crystal-clear river, the feminine part of the Christ Spirit, which came directly from the throne of God and of the Lamb. She, the river, came into us and solidified, bringing the masculine and feminine parts of the Christ Spirit together in marriage within us, making us the Wife of the Lamb. Now, we are showing forth the Word that is of us and for us, the Wife after marriage—the Word in the fullness of Christ. And we bear witness to the truth that we, Christ the Wife of the Lamb, are the Word of glorified flesh and bones. Through our marriage, the full Godhead has been brought together and is now seen in our new river of life.

Notice, those who belong to the main river of life cannot see our new river of life, nor are they meant to leave the river in which God has placed them. If they were to leave the main river, they would be lost—not in the sense of losing their souls, but in the sense of being out of the place appointed for them. But we, the Wife of the Lamb, understand that we are not in the main river that began flowing from Eden and continued throughout time. That river divided into four heads and, as I mentioned earlier, no doubt continued to branch out through the centuries, giving life to all whom God ordained to receive eternal life. But this new river of life is the river of the Wife of the Lamb. So, nothing belongs in here but us, the Wife of the Lamb, who is part of the Godhead Himself. Through Jesus Christ, the Godhead part of God became flesh and bones. And Jesus Christ said, “He that has seen me has seen the Father.” He became the flesh and bones of the Father; for the Word became flesh in Mary, and she gave birth to the Son of the Most High God. So, Jesus Christ could say this because He was the fullness of the Godhead bodily. Now we, the Wife, are saying, "Because we are married to the Lord Jesus Christ, he that has seen us has seen Christ the Wife—the feminine part of the fullness of the Godhead bodily." We, His Wife, have become the same as He is, for we are bone of His glorified bone and flesh of His glorified flesh, and mind of His mind. But His mind is expressed on the masculine side, while ours, the Wife, is expressed on the feminine side, showing the fullness of the mind of Christ in marriage.

So, those in the main river have the water of life, but they have received it in a different portion than we, the Wife, have received in this new river of life. It is a different portion, yet it is portioned out exactly as God ordained it to be. If someone were to ask us, "Are you a Christian?" and we answered, "I am a member of the Wife of the Lamb," they might reply, "That is not what I asked. Are you a Christian?" Yes, as members of the Wife of the Lamb, we are Christians. But we are much more than what the world calls Christianity. Many people in denominations have truly found God in a way that they can worship God and are accepted of God. But when it comes to us, the Wife of the Lamb, it is altogether different. We are absolutely and positively part of the fullness of the Godhead bodily. We see that within God there is both the masculine part and the feminine part. Through our marriage to the Lord Jesus Christ, we were joined together as Husband and Wife, revealing a truth that had only been made known here at the end time: God is both masculine and feminine. No one had ever thought of such a thing before, yet it is exactly so.

We see that the Lord Jesus Christ through the masculine part of the Christ Spirit was expressed vividly and put on display throughout the church ages. But then God moved the Spirit away for the time being, and, of course, it faded;

but those that really had something from God, they stayed right with it. But then here came something brand new: a new river, pure and crystal-clear. And along with this new river came new revelation—that God is both masculine and feminine. The feminine part of the Godhead was to be seen here in the last day, and it was to be seen in the person of the Wife of the Lamb. And here we are today.

Our being the feminine part of the fullness of the Godhead bodily, the Wife of the Lamb, that put us on the same level with the Lord Jesus Christ, the masculine part of the Godhead. He is not on one level and has to look down on us, His Wife. No, we are on the same level, for we are part of the Godhead bodily too. And that is the fullness of the Godhead bodily. This reveals the great eternal God, both masculine and feminine, being made known in the earth, as God works out His plan and brings it into being. That is why, today, we the Wife of the Lamb bear witness to who we are: part of the fullness of the Godhead bodily and one with the Lord Jesus Christ.

When God was ready to bring this truth to the forefront, He first used a man named William Branham. Through his message, which was the shout of 1 Thessalonians 4:16, certain truths went around the world and were brought to light. One truth he especially highlighted was the little virgin bride. Then came Raymond Jackson. In his message of the voice of the archangel, he also spoke of the virgin bride. After Brother Branham passed off the scene, and after Brother Jackson passed off the scene, here came this message forth: the sounding of the trumpet of God. And at the sounding of the last trump, here came someone talking about the Wife of the Lamb. Through the sounding of this trumpet, we were brought into the new river of life and joined to the Lord Jesus Christ in a proxy marriage. Today, we rejoice and praise God for the creative Word of God that has come after marriage—the Word of glorified flesh and bones revealed to us through the last trumpet message. And even as we rejoice, we do not look down on those who are living in the main river of life. They have their place, and God is in there with them to the degree that He is supposed to be. They love God, and their revelation of God goes to the extent that is appointed for them. And here we are today, the Wife of the Lamb, knowing with certainty that we are the feminine part of the Godhead. This is because the feminine part of the Christ Spirit and the masculine part of the Christ Spirit came together in marriage within us, making us what we are, the glorified Wife of the Lamb. And now, here we stand in the earth, exercising the power of the living God.

These things are so real today. God gave us this truth and has revealed it to us by His Spirit. Who would have thought there was a feminine part of God, or that there would be a Woman made up of those who have the feminine part of the Christ Spirit—the Spirit that came down from the throne of God and of the Lamb, and would take a permanent resting place in a body of people? And now as that body of people, we the Wife are furnishing Her with a physical body of glorified flesh and bones. So, here it is, and here we are, the feminine part of the Godhead, just as Jesus Christ is the masculine part of the Godhead. Now the masculine and feminine parts have come together as one. We are rejoicing in the Lord and shouting the victory and seeing the great things of God come to pass—some things as in secret and other things out in the open—according to whatever way God ordains it. Praise God! So, just the masculine part alone is not on display right now. No, it is the feminine part, it is Her being displayed now, not Him, but it is Her—because Him has already had Him days. Now, it is Her day.

We are so proud to be members of the Wife of the Lamb, knowing that God has translated us from the virgin into the glorified Wife of the Lamb. Very soon, we will visibly see all the saints who are here with us and who are part of us, the Wife. These are the very ones Christ Jesus brought with Him to earth in His spiritual coming, as shown in Revelation, Chapter 10, and 1 Thessalonians 4:14. When He first brought them, they were in spiritual bodies or tabernacles. And at the sounding of the last trumpet of God, our proxy marriage to the Lord Jesus Christ took place. Through our marriage, God brought us together with them into the new river of life, a dimension created specifically for us, the Wife of the Lamb. In this realm—the Wife’s realm of glorified flesh and bones within this new river of life—we have all been living together, hearing and receiving the trumpet message: the creative Word of glorified flesh and bones. Through this Word, we have taken on glorified flesh and bones. Notice, as in secret, the Lord has been creating Word bodies of glorified flesh and bones upon them, as well as within us. Together, we have been putting on incorruptible Word bodies, and now our Word bodies have come to fruition. Through this trumpet of God message, we the Wife of the Lamb have been united together as one physical body of glorified flesh and bones. The Lord named us Christ the Wife and exalted that name, placing us beside Him as the feminine part of the fullness of the Godhead bodily. We, the Wife of the Lamb, praise God and are honored to be the vessel of glorified flesh and bones in which the feminine part of the Christ Spirit has taken a permanent dwelling place, all for the glory of God.

Again, very soon, we will see one another visibly. As this supernatural event comes to a close, a great desire and yearning has risen within us, drawing us to see them, and that same desire and yearning has risen within them, drawing them to see us. More than that, a deep longing has come within all of us to see and be with our Husband, the Lord Jesus Christ. That same desire, yearning, and longing has also risen within Him, drawing Him to see us, His Wife. The time has come for us to see one another physically. This is what God is doing now with us, the Wife of the Lamb: He has moved us into “visibility and catching away time.” Notice, “visibility and catching away time” is part of the new and pure language God has given exclusively to us, Christ the Wife of the Lamb, and we are echoing the Voice of the Last Trump of God, and the Voice is saying that our Word bodies of glorified flesh and bones have come to fruition. A great time of a visible get-together is now taking place with us and the saints who have been here with us all along. And together, through this supernatural event that is taking place, we will soon meet the Lord Jesus Christ. For this, we are all rejoicing and giving Him praise!

So, we see that many of the church-age saints really loved the Lord, but they did not see at that time the feminine part of God. No one preached it, because it was one of the things hidden in God. Certain truths had been kept secret since the foundation of the world, but now this truth is no longer hidden; because now there is a glorified body of people that have come forth saying that we are the Wife of the Lamb. See, many do not know about the Wife of the Lamb, but we do; and we are not ashamed to say that we are members of the Wife. And we the Wife of the Lamb are bringing forth the glory of God right now; it is being shed upon the people that are the Wife of the Lamb. Again, we are glad to say that we are members of the Wife of the Lamb. No, not just one person is the full Wife of the Lamb, but we the members all together make up the Wife of the Lamb. That is why we are so happy. Someone may ask, “What is wrong with you people?” Well, that is what is wrong with us, right there.

Notice, each one that had a message, they stressed it, of the three messengers that have come in this last day: William Branham's message, Raymond Jackson's message, and this message that we are bringing. Each one had a part, and each one made room for the other. But some of the things that we are saying now were not revealed in the earlier parts, because those two parts belonged to the main river of life. That is one of the main points. What is being shown now is brand new: the new river of life, pure and crystal clear. The earlier two parts served both a natural and spiritual purpose within the main river of life. But this new river is the river of the Wife of the Lamb. It reveals God the Father, the Son, and the Wife, with the Wife being part of the fullness of the Godhead bodily just as the Son is. In the Lord Jesus Christ dwells the fullness of the Godhead bodily. When He married us, that placed us, His Wife, in the same position with Him. As said earlier, now we can say, "He who has seen us, Christ the Wife, has seen the feminine part of the Godhead," just as Jesus Christ said, "He who has seen me has seen the Father," for now, we the Wife, are put in there. Jesus Christ was the fullness of the Godhead bodily, and now we the Wife are the fullness of the Godhead bodily also, being part of Him and one with Him.

So, this is where we are today. It puts God in a way where we can see the makeup of God. We did not know it, for He kept this part of Himself hidden until the time came for Him to reveal this part of Himself. And when He revealed Himself this time, He did not reveal Himself through His Son, but now He is revealing Himself through us, His Son's Wife. And being part of the Son, that makes us, the Wife, part of the Godhead also. And everything He is, we His Wife are also. And while Christianity continues on its own course in the world, it has nothing to do with us. This is something different, it is real, and it is exclusive. The Son and us, His Wife, are exclusively part of the Godhead bodily. I love to put that word bodily in there. And it is not like when we read in the Word of God where it says in 2 Corinthians 5:1, “For we know that if our earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved, we have a building of God, an house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.” See, it is talking about a spiritual house there. Well, this is more than a spiritual house. It is a spiritual house that has taken on glorified flesh and bones. For here is a message, and this is the part of the message that we are ministering, which is glorified flesh and bones. And through it, we the Wife of the Lamb have taken on glorified flesh and bones, for that is what this message has produced—glorified flesh and bones. And it feels better and better as we go along.

Many times, people hold on to old ideas they have picked up that a woman cannot do this, and she cannot do that. A husband might rebuke his wife for testifying to the things of the Lord, asking, “What are you trying to do, preach?” But as the Wife of the Lamb, we share the same mind as our Husband, the Lord Jesus Christ, and therefore have the same authority to speak. As mentioned earlier, His mind is expressed on the masculine side, while ours is expressed on the feminine side. Together, we are showing the fullness of the mind of Christ in marriage. We are one. I encourage Barbarajean all the time: whenever the Lord gives her something, we share it and rejoice over it together. I do not say, “If you were not a woman, I could receive it.” That would be ignorance on my part. Now the feminine part is as much of the Godhead as the masculine part is. Whether you are male or female has nothing to do with this part, because this is the working of God. So, when we received the fullness of Christ, we received both the masculine and feminine parts of the Godhead. Hallelujah!

Many years ago, I came through the Pentecostal deliverance movement and other movements of God, where He ordained certain things and continued moving us forward through time into deeper truths of His Word. In each season, He appointed certain people to bring forth truths needed for that time. But in this present time, one of the truths God has ordained me to bring out and make real is this: A woman has the right to bring forth the revelation of glorified flesh and bones and testify of what God has given her. She can rejoice freely and just be happy, because this is Husband and Wife sharing together in the things that God gives. So, we see the masculine and feminine parts have come together.

Notice, that is what happened when God created Eve from Adam. And when Adam looked at her, he knew by revelation and said, "This is bone of my bone and flesh of my flesh, and she shall be called Woman because she was taken out of Man." God took a rib from Adam and formed Eve's body. Then He took the feminine part of Adam's spirit and put it into Eve. And there she was, the beautiful wife of Adam. That is what this is today. We, the Wife of the Lamb, are expressing the feminine part of the Godhead. And that is big, that is very big! It is not something to sneeze at, we would say. But here we are today, and oh, how good it is that God is moving. And more and more, my wife, Barbarajean, is fully half of this ministry now—the way God is revealing. And when I say fully half, the things I preach, some of them, she got them from the Lord before I did. And she explained them to me, and I said, "Yes, yes, that is so good! I like that." And God likes it, because He likes to see that we are expressing the fullness of Christ. It is not only the masculine part of the Godhead on display now. Yes, God first put the Son on display, and now He has put the Wife, the feminine part of the Godhead, on display. And here we are. Hallelujah! I get so excited that it causes me to start swinging my microphone away from my mouth, causing my volume to drop! So, I am going to ask my wife to come now; maybe she has a good testimony to add on, and we appreciate it.

Testimony of Barbarajeane Howard

I tell you, I loved hearing all of that; it was hard to sit still. I wanted to get up and just fly away—it was so good! Ben was speaking about the river in Revelation 22:1, the hidden river, which is the feminine part of the Christ Spirit. We see that Peter mentioned the Christ Spirit was there in the Old Testament, speaking through the prophets; but that was the masculine part of the Christ Spirit. But the Lord revealed to me that the feminine part of the Christ Spirit was there also, and from time to time, God used that feminine part of His Spirit to influence certain women, such as Sarah and Rebekah. Yet, She did not come into anyone in a permanent way or become solidified. She remained hidden until God's appointed time.

In the New Testament, we see that Paul received and expressed some of the feminine attributes of God. God gave Paul the creative Word that formed a virgin, for he said, "For I have espoused you to one Husband, that I may present you as a chaste virgin to the Lord Jesus Christ." Through words such as her, she, and virgin, Paul began to reveal something feminine within the Lord Jesus Christ. This showed that something had awakened in His Spirit—much like Adam, as though He were saying, "Where is my helpmeet?" Through Paul's gospel, God began to express certain feminine attributes of the Christ Spirit. Yet, at that time, this remained in the Spirit, because the virgin was only providing the feminine part of the Christ Spirit with a spiritual body. They were the spiritual body of Christ, formed through Paul's espousal message. In this, we see that the feminine part of the Christ Spirit within the Lord Jesus Christ was seeking to come forth and express Herself. Still, She had not yet been taken out, placed into anyone in a permanent way, or solidified. That fulfillment did not come until Revelation, Chapter 10, when our marriage to the Lord Jesus Christ took place. Then the feminine part of the Christ Spirit came into us and solidified, bringing the masculine and feminine parts of the Christ Spirit together in a proxy marriage. At that time, we the Wife began to furnish a physical body of glorified flesh and bones for the feminine part of the Christ Spirit to permanently live in. I praise the Lord for all of this, because through this last trumpet message that Ben is preaching, and through this Word we have received, the Lord has created us the Wife of the Lamb in glorified flesh and bones and has revealed us here in the earth. So, this trumpet of God message did not form us merely into the spiritual body of Christ; it formed us into the body of Christ in glorified flesh and bones. It is so wonderful how the feminine part of the Christ Spirit has taken on a physical body of glorified flesh and bones in us, the Wife of the Lamb. And God put the fullness of the power of Christ in us, because those masculine and feminine attributes came together in marriage within us. And now we are standing here in full power in the righteousness, which is of the fullness of the faith of Christ. So, we, the Wife of the Lamb, are the feminine part of the fullness of the God-head bodily. And I praise Him for this. The things Ben said were so wonderful that I wrote many notes down, because I received so many good things from what was said. Throughout the week, I listen back to the sermons, and the Lord quickens things to me out of them and puts a picture together, and it is just beautiful. I praise the Lord for all of it!

Ben Howard says: We appreciate your testimony, Barbarajan, and we appreciate you. We appreciate all the Wife of the Lamb. We do not draw boundaries or show partiality within the Wife, for we are one body of glorified flesh and bones, and we praise God for it!

Father, we praise you and thank you for all the good things you are doing for us. We pray that you will continue the flow of revelation, and I know you will because it is your will to do so. We appreciate you and love you. Amen.

SIMPLY PRAISING GOD AND TELLING ABOUT HIS GOODNESS

God has been so good to us, giving us fresh Word through the sermons that reveal truths no one could have imagined before. When the children of Israel and the world pass through the millennium (a thousand years) and move into eternity, God will still be revealing His plan. Each week He opens something new and lets us see things the prophets and wise men desired to see but could not because it was not time for it. Those who enter the millennium as mortal people will be taught and learn things. They will read these books that we have written and say, "My, there was a people who knew this all along." Yet, we only know it because the Lord revealed it. In the last few years, He has really begun to open these things and bring them to pass; and it is wonderful to see what He has done, what He is doing, and what He will do. He has let us see all the way to the Great White Throne Judgment, where the wicked are cast into the lake of fire and Satan is destroyed. Then there will be no more devil, no more wickedness, and all will be glory right here on this earth. I like this earth; I am not trying to get to another planet. This planet suits me fine. God has fixed this one so well. He gave us seasons. In spring He warms the earth and brings greenery out again. Now fall is here, winter is coming, and the leaves are falling to fertilize the ground and build up the soil. God does everything right. It is wonderful what He has done, what He is doing, and what He will continue to do. The great thing He is doing now is glorifying us, the Wife of the Lamb. Our bodies have taken on the Word of glorified flesh and bones, and this work has come to fruition. So, it has been taking place for quite some time—even before we understood what was happening; and now we can see clearly how He has been bringing it to pass. We praise God for it and thank Him for the privilege to be here today to speak His Word and tell about His goodness.

For the past few weeks, we have been telling about the goodness of God and how these things have come into being. It is wonderful to see what God is doing. And He reveals these things to us so that we know what was, what is, and what will be, because we are part of Him. We can look back and see before the prehistorical age, understand what is taking place now, and look ahead to the end of the millennium and into eternity. It will be heaven right here on earth, and God has been here all the time, faithfully working everything out. So, today we praise Him. Now let us pray before going any further.

Heavenly Father, we come to praise you and ask you to move in a great way and give us all that you have ordained for us for this day. Let us continue to rejoice in the Lord, as we have been rejoicing since early this morning, and we thank you, we love you, and we praise you. Amen.

We now have many books that express what has been done and what is being done, and the people in the millennium will have a good time reading them. When I see my name, Ben Howard, on my Bible, it only signifies ownership of that Bible; it does not mean I had anything to do with writing it. But we have hundreds of books with my name on them because they came from preached sermons and were put into written Word. As we put sermons into written Word, the Lord often gives me or my wife a furtherance of revelation. When He does, we add it in right then, because we are the living Word in glorified flesh and bones. These Books are not only for the Wife of the Lamb to enjoy now, but they are also for the natural people who go into the millennium to enjoy. I can imagine them reading our books and saying, "My, what would it have been like to live in that day?" So, they will read the Word that we have, because God will pass it on to them.

The revelation God has given us is glorified revelation; for the river flowing from the throne of God and the Lamb, which is pure and crystal clear, has solidified within us, and we are the Wife of the Lamb. This is what God fore-ordained us to have, and here we are today. Who could ask for anything more? See, there is nothing more precious that the Lord could give us than revelation. That is what we are truly concerned about. Many people long for worldly things, but our desire is for the spiritual blessings of God. We praise Him for the Bible, because when we look back and see how every Word came to pass at its appointed time, we can only say, "Lord, how did you know all of this would happen?" The Prophet Isaiah spoke of One who was led as a sheep to the slaughter and did not open His mouth, which came to pass at the crucifixion of Jesus Christ, the Son of God. How did God know that so long ago? He knew it, He spoke it, and it came to pass exactly as He said through Isaiah. In that same way, what God is doing now is blessing His people, and He will continue to bless us. We are busy in the things of God, and He keeps revealing more and bringing to pass things we never would have imagined.

Sometimes God uses people who are not educated in the natural sense, but who can hear what the Spirit is saying to the soul. I have told this before, but I feel it would be good to tell it again here. I was holding a few meetings in Athens, Georgia, near the university, and some of the students came out to hear me preach. They were respectful and listened closely. While I was preaching, I told them that I only had a fourth-grade education; for that was as far as I went in school. They looked at one another, a little shocked. Then after the service, a tall, dark-haired young man came up to me and said, “Ben, what are you trying to pull on us?” I said, “I do not understand what you mean.” He said, “You said you only have a fourth-grade education, but you have at least four years of college to speak the way you are speaking and bring out these kinds of things.” I had been preaching from the Book of Genesis about Adam, Eve, and the serpent—how perversion took place, and how the mixing of seeds came into being. They had never heard anything like it, and it caused them to listen carefully. That young man thought I had a college education, but I had never gone to college. I had only gone through the fourth grade. The Lord started helping me, and I have not graduated yet. I am eighty-six years old, going on eighty-seven, and I am still learning. Each week we learn more. My education has not stopped; it has moved into another realm: education from God, education by revelation. I do not know what grade I am in there, but I praise God for what He is doing. Every time we read the Bible, we learn something we did not know before. Now our books, which are the writings of Christ the Wife of the Lamb, are going forth with present truth, and they will last on into the millennium. We praise God for all these things.

You will notice that the songs that my wife, Barbarajean, writes are all about revelation, about what God is doing, and about glorifying Him. That is what He wants from us: He wants us to glorify Him. And the tree of life—my, my, my—She brings forth Her fruit. And the She is us, the Wife of the Lamb. We can see fruit all around us, and every day there is more fruit being produced. We thank God for what He is bringing forth through us.

We also thank God for that little place of Israel in the Middle East, especially the Jerusalem area. The Lord God has had His eyes on that place all the way through time, and He has spoken about it over and over. He still has His eyes on it; and right there things are taking place and will continue to take place. That is where the King will sit on His throne; and that King is the Lord Jesus Christ. We are married to Him, the One in whom dwells the fullness of the Godhead bodily. And because we have become one with Him, we are rejoicing in the Lord and have direct contact with God the Father. We do not have to go to someone else and ask, "Could you make arrangements for me to talk with the Father?" The Wife of the Lamb does not need a go-between or an intermediary. The Lord Jesus Christ can go to God anytime, and so can we, His Wife. That is why He comes in anytime He chooses and reveals Himself in the different ways that He does. It is amazing and wonderful, and it sure feels good to see Him and to know Him. When I say, "to see Him," I am not speaking of seeing Him with the natural eye. I am speaking of seeing the manifestation of God: what He does and how He does it.

Over the years, in my travels, I have been to many places where the water was not good and was contaminated in different ways. So, when I take a drink of water while I am preaching, I thank God for it. In those travels, Barbara-jean always made sure we had plenty of good water. No one told her to do it; she just took it upon herself. She was the "water carrier." Whenever we came by a store that sold bottled water, she would stock up so that we, and those traveling with us, would have what we needed. We praise the Lord that He made a way for us. It has been wonderful to see how God has led and guided us. He brought me from a lowly place in the mountains of White County, Georgia, and gave my family a farm where we raised crops. God gave us favor with a man who had good farmland. He said, "I want you to raise the crops, and we will split everything down the middle. I will furnish the land, and you furnish the labor." We did that for many years, and God made a way. During that time, I was always learning and watching God in nature. We can see God in nature right now here in Georgia. In this part of the world, the leaves have turned brown, and most of them have fallen to the ground. But those leaves fertilize the soil for a new crop. God has also brought forth a new crop now: the Wife of the Lamb, whom He named Christ the Wife. And we have produced the fruit He ordained—glorified flesh and bones—and we are rejoicing in the Lord for it. We love Him, appreciate Him, and praise Him for what He is doing among us.

I know some say that I talk about the Wife a lot. One man, after hearing some of my sermons, said, “What Ben is saying is amazing, but I like to hear preachers talk about the church. I have never heard much about the Wife. I am interested in the church, but Ben does not talk about the church; he talks about a Wife!” See, if the man understood what the church is and what the Wife is, he would see that there is a difference. We the Wife are a special group that came out from among all of God’s redeemed children. Some people say, “I do not think we should show partiality.” But I do, and God did. I show more partiality to my wife than to all the other women in the world. There are other women who are good and dedicated, but God gave my wife to me by a special leading, and there is a great story behind that.

We can look back and see how God moved us in certain ways. My first wife, Joyce, passed away after we had been married for about twenty-two years. When God was ready to move this ministry into another phase, He gave me Barbarajean. My first wife did not like to travel much, but in this next phase I had to do more traveling. Barbarajean and I went to many places around the world, and God made everything all right. She took care of many things, and, again, she always kept us supplied with water. We had been in desert areas where there was very little water, and in other places where water was either unavailable or not suitable for drinking. So, she made sure we had bottled water with the seal unbroken, and we could drink it and enjoy it. We had some good times as we traveled. And I do not know everything that is going to take place, but I know what is taking place now. There is a rapture; there is a translation taking place. It has been coming gradually, and now here we are rejoicing in it. Rejoice in the Lord! Hallelujah!

At times, we feel as though we could keep walking and walk right into meeting the Lord Jesus. He will meet us, and all of that will take place in the realm of the earth's atmosphere. This earth is where God has ordained a special place for Himself. This is His home; this is where He abides. That does not mean He is limited to one place. He abides throughout the universe, and He is so great that the universe cannot contain Him. Yet, He is also small enough to come into a little baby's heart. So, here we are today, rejoicing, praising God, and thanking Him for all the good things that we are talking about.

Over the years, we have watched God's work grow and increase, and we praise Him for it. I remember many years ago, as I was learning to read and learning to walk with God, I spent a great deal of time fasting. Looking back, maybe that was not always the main way to find out things from God. I fasted many times—ten days, twenty days, thirty days, and two times I fasted for forty days—taking only water. Yet, when it is all said and done, God is going to do what He wants to do whether we fast a day or not. If He tells us to fast, that is all right; but we do not fast just to hurry Him along. He will bring it in His time. Some people cannot fast; they do not get anointed to do it. And they should not go contrary to what they feel the Spirit leading them to do. Some people hardly ever fast, and some fast often. The important thing is to follow the leading of the Lord. I have fasted, worked, and preached all at the same time. It put a lot of wear and tear on my body, but I am still going. If God tells me to do something, just get out of my way, because here I come. That is the way God is moving.

Today, there are many who will be saved who are not part of us, the Wife of the Lamb. When I use the word "saved" here, I am speaking of natural, mortal people who do not receive what we call being born again or the new birth of the soul, but whom God allows to enter the millennium and repopulate the earth. There will be children born in the millennium, and life will continue in that age. There will also be a group of kings and priests who will help those people. Meanwhile, we the Wife of the Lamb will be near the throne of God, receiving all the blessings of the Lord. There has never been a day like the days that lie ahead of us. God is moving by His Spirit, and I appreciate what He is doing. We praise Him and thank Him.

We thank God for the books that we have written. And He has always taken care of everything in the printing of them. Every book we have printed and sent around the world has gone out free of charge. No one has ever been asked for a penny. I know many preachers take it upon themselves to have a ministry and print books, and much of their time is spent raising money. Sometime back, I heard a preacher say, "Water is free, but it costs to get it to you. This gospel is free, but it costs us to get it to you." But for us, we simply did what God wanted us to do, and every bill has been paid. We never had to make a pull for money. God put it on someone's heart at the right time, and at the right time it came in. God took care of it. Many people have asked me, "How do you do it? You have only a small group." Many times, I have preached in homes with just two or three people present. That is where I did much of my ministering: going into homes, preaching, and watching God bless the people. People have been healed and blessed in different ways. These are the things God does. It is not so much about a big building or a large program; it is about the simplicity of God. William Branham had a saying that I really like: "If you can get simple enough, you can get to God." God works in simplicity. He is simple enough to reveal Himself, yet so great that no one can reach Him without revelation. It takes revelation to follow the Word of God in this moment of time, just as it has in other days. When you pick up one of our books, the message may seem so plain that you might think no revelation is needed. It lays things out so clearly that you want to shout while reading. You might ask, "Who would need revelation for this?" But God fixed it so that revelation is still required. God has given us, the Wife of the Lamb, a new and pure language. We do not quote Paul's language as though it was the full language for this day. Paul had a new and pure language for his time, and that was for the virgin. But this is the message of glorified flesh and bones that is both of us and for us, the Wife of the Lamb, after marriage. We are rejoicing because we, the Wife, have become fully established in the glorified person we have been completed to be. And here we are today.

I have read the Bible through many times, and there are still so many good things in it. I especially like the Book of Isaiah and the Book of Daniel and the things they said. All those things are going to come to pass. Even now, we can see the Word gradually moving into place, including the things connected with the Battle of Armageddon and the kings of the East. It is all moving and joining together. We have to say that the Bible, the Word of God in the main river of life, is one hundred percent right. And the Word of God, our writings of Christ the Wife of the Lamb, which is in the new river of life, which is being brought forth today, is also one hundred percent right as God is moving us and bringing to our minds what to say. Many times, we say things we did not plan to say; for God gives them as we need them. There are some things I may not need to know right now, but I may need to know them tomorrow or next week. If I do need them, God will make them known. He will work these things out in His time.

Today, I came to the pulpit simply praising God and telling about His goodness. We love Him, thank Him, praise Him, and rejoice in Him. This morning, Barbara-jean got up singing. While she was fixing breakfast, I heard her singing praises to the Lord. Many times, it is a new song that she has written, and this morning she was singing the same song that she sang earlier in the service. I asked her, "Is that a new song?" I had heard part of it that morning as she was singing and worshipping God. Someone might ask, "What is wrong with that woman?" But when you know God and understand how He deals with her, you see it differently. I have been around her long enough to know how God deals with her. We have been married twenty-five years, and here we are today. It is so good to know Him and not only in the power of His resurrection after He came back as the Holy Ghost, but also in the fullness of Christ, for our marriage to Him took place and we are bone of His glorified bone and flesh of His glorified flesh. And now we, the Wife, are revealed as the living Word in glorified flesh and bones after marriage. See, that is what has been taking place among us. Until this last trump message came along, we did not hear anyone preach about becoming glorified flesh and bones and being changed in that way. Glorified flesh and bones is our message. He has given us glorified flesh and bones, and we are bone of His glorified bones and flesh of His glorified flesh. This is something God has been doing, and it is unique and wonderful! As the old saying goes, "Who could ask for anything more?"

We praise God for it and thank Him. God will never grow tired of us praising Him or glorifying His name. He loves it when we praise Him and when we glorify Him. So here we are this morning, praising God and glorifying Him. Each step we take is something God encourages and reveals. He shows us what the next step is. That is why a brother who came to church here many years ago said, "There is one thing I can say about coming to Brother Ben's church, 'You will get something fresh, you will get something new, and you will get your soul fed from the Word of God each time you come to service.'" I praise God for that. It is the Lord who does it as He moves; and we have kept moving with Him.

Today, we thank God for the opportunity to come together and praise Him. It is getting about time to close, but we praise Him for all the good things He has done for us. I feel like saying, "Jesus, I love You. Jesus, I appreciate You." And He sends His love right back to us. It is good to sing praises to His name and obey Him without being bound to one fixed order. We used to have a familiar pattern: three songs, then prayer, then preaching. Everyone pretty much knew what was going to happen next. But God moves in different ways, His wonders to perform, and He blesses us in ways that go beyond our imagination. He moves through dreams, visions, and many other ways. If you have a problem that you do not know how to solve, and it seems as though there is no answer, put it in His hands and trust Him with it. He can give you a dream, a vision, or even speak audibly to you. I have had all those things happen to me, and I can stand here and tell you that He will not fail you or let you down. Only trust Him, and He will make it work out all right for you. And everything is working out just right for us, the Wife of the Lamb.

Heavenly Father, we praise you for bringing us together to worship you, to learn of your Word, and to hear your Word. I pray that not one Word will fall to the ground without being received, and that you will bring it to pass as you have ordained. We will be careful to praise you in your wonderful name, Jesus Christ. Amen.

WE THE WIFE OF THE LAMB ONLY FEEL AT HOME IN OUR
GLORIFIED FLESH AND BONES

Testimony of Barbarajean Howard

I want to greet everyone today, and I am so glad to be here. I praise the Lord for this Word of glorified flesh and bones. I want to share a thought from last week's message, Our Glorified Existence Has Been Granted to Us, the Wife, Manifested in This Great Bottomland. Ben and I were listening to it last night while lying in bed, and something in the sermon was strongly highlighted to both of us. We had been listening to the sermon off and on throughout the week, but we had not noticed this thought before. Then, partway through the message last night, we both heard it, and it immediately stood out to us: "We the Wife of the Lamb only feel at home in our glorified flesh and bones." That statement was so clearly highlighted to us that I got out of bed and wrote it down. It was wonderful to hear, and it blessed us so much. This is true for us, the Wife of the Lamb, for the only place we truly feel at home is in our glorified flesh and bones, where our feminine nature is made known. And in this special moment of time, we are actively proclaiming it, and it is actively manifesting through us. Therefore, we only feel at home when we speak this Word of glorified flesh and bones. This is our new and pure language, given to us by God. I praise the Lord for all of this, and I thank Him so much for everything He is doing. I also thank the Lord for the dream He gave me recently. In that dream, He came and spoke directly to me, saying, "I have given you some great Bottomland." That Word was not only for me personally, but it was for all the Wife of the Lamb, the body of Christ in glorified flesh and bones. And it is in our great Bottomland that we have produced our fruit of glorified flesh and bones. This is our fruit: fruit unlike anything that has ever been seen or heard before, and unlike anything that will come afterward. It is very special, and it has all been taking place in this great Bottomland given by the Lord. And I praise Him for that! Through our writings of Christ the Wife of the Lamb, our great Bottomland is clearly seen. These writings are both of us and for us, the Wife after marriage, and they reveal our Word body of glorified flesh and bones that we have taken on—a body now brought to fruition within this new river of life, pure and crystal-clear. Through the sounding of the last trump of God, the masculine and feminine parts of the Christ Spirit came together in marriage within us. This made us the glorified Wife of the Lamb, whom God named Christ the Wife. Therefore, we the Wife of the Lamb are the feminine part of the fullness of the Godhead bodily, and we are proclaiming this truth and rejoicing in it! This is what we talk about: the Word of glorified flesh and bones. It is what we the Wife are—the Word of glorified flesh and bones—and there is nothing like it, nor shall there ever be. I love it so much! And I love the Lord so much! He is so good to us. And I cannot thank Him enough for all of it. Thank you, my Lord. Thank you.

Sermon of Ben Howard

Thank you for that, Barbarajean. Amen. I thank the Lord for all the good things He has done for us. His blessings are so many that we could never count them all. We cannot outrun the blessings of God, because they will always catch up with us. So, we praise God for all His blessings, and for the great Word of God that He has given us in this time that we are living in. We saw the New Testament era fulfilled and the church ages, but God did not stop there; He began again and our marriage to the Lord Jesus Christ took place. Since then, we have been writing books that are of us and for us, the Wife of the Lamb, after marriage. Much of the New Testament was given for the virgin. But after the virgin was married, we were no longer the virgin; we became the Wife. That is when God began giving Word for the Wife after marriage—Word written for this new place, this new relationship, and this new understanding that He has brought into us. Therefore, we have many books. Especially during the last five to six years, we have written bigger books as we received what the Lord gave, and He blessed us with revelation. Notice, the virgin had her Word, and many still follow the Word that God gave to the virgin. That Word is in the main river of life, though over time that river became muddy as different things entered into it. When our marriage to the Lord Jesus Christ took place, we the Wife entered into a new river. This river is pure and crystal-clear, as shown in Revelation 22:1, and it flows straight from the throne of God and the Lamb, which is the river of the Wife of the Lamb. And this river only belongs to us, the Wife. In this new river there is no spiritual struggles, no strife, no confusion, and no death. So, it does not have any contaminants in it at all, and it is such a beautiful river. It is the pure river of the water of life, crystal-clear before God. Unlike the main river, which became mixed with other things over time, our river remains pure.

So, we are here to do the will of God, preach the Word of God, and serve Him. Whatever He would have us to do, that is what we want to do, being obedient to Him in all things. From time to time, He gives us instruction, and His instruction is not grievous. He always gives His Wife the very best. That is why we have this Word of God of glorified flesh and bones. There is not only the Bible, which is the Word of God for those living in the main river of life, but we also have our writings, which are of us and for us, the Wife of the Lamb, after marriage. These writings show that we are a body of people living in this new river of life, where the Word of glorified flesh and bones has become solidified within us, which has caused us to become glorified flesh and bones. Yet, the main river of life continues to run, while the new river of life reveals the Word that God has given to us, the Wife of the Lamb, in this special moment of time. The phrases of the “main river of life” and the “new river of life” is only some of the new and pure language that God gave us. This language shows His Spirit is both masculine and feminine. Once we received this revelation, it opened new avenues for us to see and understand more of God’s mind and what He was thinking. I do not mean that we have the full understanding of God. We will know more of Him throughout the millennium, and even in eternity we will still be learning things about Him that we did not know before. But He has given us what we need now, and He is blessing us in every possible way. He is giving us more than we could ask for. We are not asking for much, but He keeps giving.

As I said earlier, we cannot outrun the blessings of God. His blessings follow us, and He keeps on adding to, adding to. Amen. I count the knowledge of God a blessing of God. When He gives us more knowledge of the Word and shows us what He is doing, it is so beautiful. It strengthens our bodies. We might feel down, but when God gives us a revelation, we suddenly feel supercharged. And we praise Him for all the revelations He has given us. Through them, He has built His Word within us in a greater way, making us the Word in glorified flesh and bones, just like the Lord Jesus Christ—glorified flesh and bones. These are the things God has done, and they are so beautiful.

I appreciate my wife, Barbarajean, and the way she reads and listens to this Word and receives revelation from the Lord. And sometimes at night she gets up and writes things down when something comes to her. At other times, we both wake up together and suddenly there is a revelation from the Lord as we speak the Word. She writes it down, and it works out so good. It is always a revelation, always refreshing. The Lord is supplying the needs of His Wife with spiritual blessings. And He not only meets our spiritual needs, but He meets our natural needs as well. Here we are today, rejoicing in the Lord and praising God. Each day we wake up under His blessings, and the Lord continues to reveal His Word and bless us in unexpected ways. And for all of this, we praise God.

We thank God for sending His only begotten Son, Jesus Christ. Notice, He did not send Him as a grown man from heaven to earth. Instead, He sent His messenger, the angel Gabriel, to a virgin named Mary. Gabriel told her that she would conceive and bear a child, and that this child would be the Son of God, and His name would be called Jesus. Then, Mary said unto the angel, "Be it unto me according to thy Word." And God's Word came to pass exactly as He had spoken; for Mary bore Jesus. As Jesus grew, He found favor with both God and man. When He was about thirty years old, the fullness of the Christ Spirit, containing both the masculine and feminine attributes of God, came into Him after He was baptized by John the Baptist in the Jordan River. This made Him Jesus the Christ, and now in Him dwelt the fullness of the Godhead bodily. He then went forth in the power of the Spirit, preaching and fulfilling that part of His ministry. After He was crucified, He rose from the dead after three days and nights, and His flesh and bones were glorified. He came forth as a glorified person. Through our marriage to Him at the fulfillment of Revelation, Chapter 10, we became the Wife of the Lamb, the feminine part of the Godhead, and this made us a distinct group. As the Wife of the Lamb, we do not need a mediator between us and God the Father, for we have become part of the Godhead part of God.

Notice, the “Godhead part” of God is one of the many revelations the Lord has revealed to us, and we have expressed it often lately. See, there is a Godhead part of God, which is the special part of the Word where the Son came from. So, God used that same special part of the Word (the Godhead part) and created us the Wife of the Lamb through our marriage to Him. Therefore, neither the Son nor us, His Wife, needs a mediator to approach God the Father. Being married to the Lord Jesus Christ, and being given the name Christ the Wife, gives us free course to go straight to the heart of God, praising Him and glorifying Him. And God always has His arms open in welcome. Being Christ the Wife, we are always welcome to come to God at any time, and we do not have to get permission from the Lord Jesus Christ or anyone else. So, that is real closeness, which has just really begun to dawn on us in the last few years, as we have begun to see exactly what we are in the Godhead part of God. Our being joined to the Lord Jesus Christ in marriage has made us bone of His glorified bone and flesh of His glorified flesh. We have become one with Him, and that places us within the Godhead part of God. Therefore, we have moved forward, praising God with full confidence. Hallelujah! He has made us part of the Godhead, the feminine part, and here we are today glorifying Him. And I love the songs, the testimonies, and all the things that God gives.

When we look at the Godhead part of God, we see that in the Lord Jesus Christ dwells the fullness of the Godhead bodily. Notice, not all the fullness of God dwells in Him, but it is the fullness of the “Godhead part” of God. There is, therefore, a Godhead part of God. And when we got married to Him, that included us in the Godhead part of God. Through our marriage, we have become the feminine part of the fullness of the Godhead bodily. This is how the Godhead part of God took on glorified flesh and bones in us, the Wife of the Lamb.

So, when we talk about the Godhead part of God, we are not talking about the fullness or bulk of God Himself. God is so great that heaven and earth cannot contain Him, yet He is also small enough to get in a little baby’s heart. Still, there is a Godhead part of God, and through our marriage to the Lord Jesus Christ, we have become bone of His glorified bone and flesh of His glorified flesh—the feminine part of the Godhead part of God. And being married to God’s Son made us one with Him, and that made us one with God also (one with the Godhead part of God). But then there is God, everywhere present at the same time, and He has people all over the earth. Even so, most will never see what we, the Wife, have been given to see, because our place is special. We are the Wife of the Son of God.

As mentioned earlier, our place as the Wife of the Son of God was made possible when God the Father sent a special part of the Word to Mary. She conceived and brought forth a flesh-and-bone Son of God. He lived on the earth for about thirty years, and then God anointed Him and He began to preach the Word of God. Then religious people had Him crucified. But He rose from the dead and came forth in glorified flesh and bones. Notice, we were married to Him after He became glorified flesh and bones, which made us bone of His glorified bone and flesh of His glorified flesh, a very part of the Godhead part of God. See, glorified flesh and bone of the Godhead. These are the things that we are looking at and seeing today. These are the things that are thrilling us. We are praising God, glorifying Him, and it gives us that closeness to God like we have never known before, for it was not possible to know it. Through the Lord Jesus Christ, the Word was born into the human family as the seed of God. In the beginning was the Word, the Word was with God, and the Word was God. Then the Word was made flesh. After His crucifixion and resurrection, the Word became glorified flesh and bones. And when we were married to Him, we were made glorified flesh and bones. So that is why we are rejoicing. That is why we are happy in the Lord. That is why we do not let anything stop us or hinder us. We keep on praising God, loving Him, and knowing who we are: the very part of the Godhead part of God through our marriage to the Lord Jesus Christ, who is the fullness of the Godhead bodily.

Notice that the fullness of the Godhead bodily took us for His Wife, and through our marriage to Him, we became the same as He is—part of the Godhead in glorified flesh and bones. And that makes us close kin to God the Father. And we can go to the Father anytime. We have an open door. See, we are welcome, and we do not have to go to the Lord Jesus Christ and ask Him to allow us to go through Him to talk with the Father. No, we do not have to because we are part of the Godhead the same as the Lord Jesus Christ is part of the Godhead. See, the rest of God's family is part of God overall, but not part of the Godhead part of God. All who are born again have the life of God; and for that reason, I am careful not to say too much about those who go through tribulation, because they missed being caught up into the glory of God.

Notice, only we, the Wife of the Lamb, were caught up together with those whom Christ Jesus in the fullness of His Spirit brought back with Him, as shown in Revelation, Chapter 10, and 1 Thessalonians 4:14. Those He brought back are the saints who passed on from the time of Paul through the church ages—those ordained to be part of us and who were joined with us as the Wife of the Lamb. As previously mentioned, when Christ Jesus first brought these saints, they were spiritual bodies or tabernacles. But they are not just spiritual tabernacles any longer; they are now glorified flesh and bones. Through our marriage to the Lord Jesus Christ, all of us together have taken on glorified flesh and bones through the message of the last trump of God. Now, we the Wife of the Lamb stand as one unified physical body of glorified flesh and bones—the feminine part of the fullness of the Godhead bodily—created and now revealed here in the earth. For some time, all of us together have been hearing and receiving this creative message of glorified flesh and bones while living within this supernatural event. As mentioned before, the Lord has been secretly creating Word bodies of glorified flesh and bones upon them, as well as within us. Together, we have been putting on incorruptible Word bodies, and now our Word bodies have come to fruition. Now, as we come to the close of this supernatural event, God has moved us into visibility and catching away time. A great desire has now risen within us. In the Spirit, we understand that the time has come to meet one another physically, to see one another face to face, and to go meet with the Lord Jesus Christ. Together, we are feeling this reality and speaking of it, because God has centered our minds on this truth: it is now visibility and catching away time.

It is so good to see what God has been and is doing, it just staggers the imagination. And as people say today, it simply blows my mind to think that through our marriage to the Lord Jesus Christ, we are the feminine part of the glorified flesh and bone of the Godhead. See, there is God, there is the Lord Jesus Christ, and there is us, Christ the Wife, who have put on glorified flesh and bones; that is what we are now—glorified flesh and bones. That is where we staked our claim. That is why we, the Wife of the Lamb, only feel at home in our glorified flesh and bones.

Today, we are praising God and honoring His Word that is found in this new river of life. We are here to honor the Father, and we appreciate Him. And it makes us appreciate Him even more to know that we can go directly to Him, right to where He is at in our new river of life, where there is nothing that stands between us and Him, and talk to Him. And He welcomes us. As the Wife of the Lamb, He gave us a revelation about Himself that we did not have years ago: He is both masculine and feminine. We are the feminine part of the Godhead, and this revelation gave our understanding a different slant than seeing God only in the masculine way. It brought the feminine touch, and that made it perfect.

Notice, we are the feminine part of the Godhead because we are married to the Lord Jesus Christ. See, the feminine part of the Christ Spirit of the Godhead—the new river of life—that was within the Lord Jesus Christ was taken out of Him and placed within us, where She took a permanent resting place. Through this, the masculine and feminine parts of the Christ Spirit came together within us in marriage. This made us the Wife of the Lamb, bone of His glorified bone and flesh of His glorified flesh, and He named us Christ the Wife. Now, here we are today facing all foes, walking in glorification in the new river of the Word of God, for we have taken on glorified flesh and bones.

We have an example in Enoch, found in the Bible in the main river of life. We see that Paul brought forth a revelation concerning Enoch; but sometime back, we brought a further revelation, showing that Enoch was walking in glorification with God before God took him. So, yes, Enoch received a glorified body; but notice, it was not created from the Lord Jesus Christ's glorified flesh and bones as ours are. The Lord Jesus Christ had not yet come on the scene, so He could not have shared His glorified flesh and bones with anyone at that time. But when He did share His glorified flesh and bones, He shared them only with us, His Wife. Only us, His Wife, are bone of His glorified bone and flesh of His glorified flesh.

Now we know that through marriage to God's Son, we have been included in the very Godhead part of God. I like to repeat the "Godhead part of God" because that is where we sit. Our being part of the Godhead part of God also brought the feminine thinking of God into the whole body of the Wife saints of God. There, we can talk, discuss things, fellowship, and honor one another. So, with the feminine part in the Godhead, it is perfect.

Notice, having the feminine part is what made it perfect. Just like myself, I got married when I was twenty-two years old. But the Lord took my first wife after we had been married twenty years. And I was so lonesome. I stayed single for five and a half years. And I tell you, the house felt mighty lonely at night. It is something about the darkness that kind of bothers me. My older brothers when I was growing up would tell ghost stories and would scare us younger ones to death nearly. Well, that fear kind of stayed with me, and it kept on being that way. But then Barbarajeane and I met, and it was love at first sight. So, we got married very soon, and it was so great. Glory to God! The Lord has been gracious to me. I have had two wives, and my first wife was very good and gracious to me. Then here came Barbarajeane along, and she is the same way. My first wife did not have a thirst for traveling. But here came Barbarajeane and she fit the bill. She got right in and traveled with me, for I traveled much back in those days. We have been married twenty-five years, and we have done quite a bit of traveling. And we can say that the Lord has directed our pathway, and He has given us all the good things that anyone could ask for. So, we praise the Lord and thank God for this opportunity to talk about the Lord—to be a witness. There is a witness on the earth now that there is the Wife of the Lamb, the feminine part of the Godhead; for this last trump of God message of glorified flesh and bones has reached practically every country in the world. And there are even those that have been coming in from the Middle East, reading our books. So, all those things are wonderful, as things have picked up and are moving at a faster pace. But it all must be the will of God. It is ever how He has ordained it; that is what we want. I am so happy today. I am thrilled to know these revelations that we know. Can you imagine being the Wife of the Lamb and part of the Godhead? That is so wonderful! Yet, when we look at God's overall plan, we understand that He has many people who are not part of us, the Wife of the Lamb. They are still part of God, but they are not part of the Godhead part of God. And that makes a difference. So, these things that we are seeing come to pass, we know that we are very close to something tremendous that is about to happen. And we are going forth in full strength, praising God, loving Him, and doing the will of God.

I used to spend a lot of time in the New Testament, comparing scripture with scripture, but now those scriptures have served their purpose for us, the Wife of the Lamb—and here it is important to stress, “for us the Wife of the Lamb.” But here came new writings for us, which are the writings of Christ the Wife of the Lamb. New writings for our new river, which is pure and crystal clear. And it is made available all over the world free of charge. Not only that, but it can be downloaded from our website. It is all free. And it is being taken advantage of by many around the world, and that thrills us! That is why we are rejoicing in the Lord. That is why we are going forward. That is why we do not let anything slow us down or stop us. But we do not jump ahead, trying to do things that are not quite timely. But we are walking precisely in the time that God has ordained—and in a timely manner. And here is what we are doing and how we are doing it: we are praising God, walking with Him, and doing His will. So, we praise Him and thank Him for His Word.

We thank God for the Holy Bible. As we traveled through the New Testament in the main river of life, while we were still the virgin, it prepared us and brought us to the time of marriage to the Lord Jesus Christ. That marriage has already taken place, and now we are rejoicing in glorified flesh and bones through the Word that is of us and for us, the Wife of the Lamb, after marriage, in this new river of life. And we are not only rejoicing in our glorified flesh and bones; we are also rejoicing that God has let us see that the Old Testament portion of the Bible has awakened. We are watching it come to pass as Israel has begun to take back their land, along with many other things that are now taking place in other parts of the Middle East. In the vision God gave me recently, I had laid my hand on the Bible, as I sometimes do in reverence to God's Word. When I did, the Old Testament portion began to quiver and shake, as though it was saying, "Do not lay me aside too quickly, because I still have work to do." I stood there in amazement, watching it quiver and shake. It had come alive, and everything God said would happen will happen. Just think about the great millennium. Very few people will die, because the devil will be bound for a thousand years. After the millennium, the devil will be destroyed and cast into the lake of fire, along with death and hell. Then that part will be finished, after the thousand years are complete. All these things are included in what God has shown us, and He has shared that knowledge with us, the Wife of His Son, the Lord Jesus Christ. I praise Him for that, don't you? Then we go into the great eternity, where it will be perfection upon perfection, and God's people will be so happy. The natural, mortal people will have their farms, till the earth, and make it like the Garden of Eden all over again. That is what God told Adam to do: conquer the earth and subdue it. And that is what will take place. Just think—we are part of everything God has brought to pass, so we will have plenty to do.

I want to say this before closing out. We want to do the will of God and thank God. I thank God for letting me come out and speak today, for it has been a blessing to me just to come out and talk to you a little bit. And even though the weather is bad outside, inside we are warm, and we praise God for all these good things. Amen.

REJOICING EVEN MORE AS THE LORD HIMSELF DESIRES US TO FULLY ENJOY ALL THESE GOOD THINGS TAKING PLACE

We thank God for all the great things that He is doing for us, which are too numerous to count, and we give Him praise for it all! I am so glad to be here today and see the sun shining out so brightly; it just makes us feel so good. I thank God for the Bible; it is such a beautiful book with beautiful writings, and it has served as a source of guidance for God's people throughout time. But when it comes to our writings, God knew what He was doing as He anointed the writings of Christ the Wife of the Lamb to begin where the New Testament left off; for that was fulfilled once we as the virgin bride were married to the Lord Jesus Christ. So, we picked up there and brought it forward, thus showing forth the message that is both of us and for us, the Wife of the Lamb, after marriage. That is a great thing; it is after marriage. What the Apostle Paul wrote was before marriage, for he delivered the espousal message. He espoused a virgin to be married, and his message lasted for its appointed time. And by the time it gave out, or was fulfilled, there was already another writing that had picked up where he had left off. See, once the espousal message had completed its purpose, new writings began to come forth, which are our writings of Christ the Wife of the Lamb. And the books that we have written, which is the Word for us, the Wife, after marriage, flow in a separate river—a brand-new river that is pure and crystal clear. Through these anointed words, we have been sharing with one another the message and testimony of glorified flesh and bones that followed the fulfillment of the New Testament and our marriage to the Lord Jesus Christ, highlighting the ongoing movement and revelation in this new river of life. And we praise God for it!

Notice again, the writings of Christ the Wife of the Lamb came forth after the New Testament had fulfilled its purpose for us, thus showing the Wife's part of God's plan. The New Testament was completed within the main river of life, and following its fulfillment, our marriage to the Lord Jesus Christ took place and was established in this new river of life. And from this new river of life has come a glorifying message that was produced by the creative Word of the last trump of God: The Message of Glorified Flesh and Bones, which is specifically of us and for us, the Wife of the Lamb, after marriage; and it is distinct from the earlier message of the main river of life.

I thank God for the dream that my wife, Barbarajean, had about our new river of life. In the dream, the Lord spoke directly to her, saying, "I have given you some great Bottomland." This Bottomland means fertile river ground—rich land that will produce any kind of fruit. And as the Wife of the Lamb, the feminine part of the Godhead, we have been placed in this Bottomland, which has enabled us to bring forth fruit that is perfectly suited to what was needed in this season. And here, at the closing out of this supernatural event, we are witnessing the unique and exclusive kind of fruit that we have produced, which is glorified flesh and bones. This fruit is distinctive in nature; meaning it is different than any other fruit, for it was fruit that was produced by our marriage to the Lord Jesus Christ. So, everything is working perfectly; and it is clear that someone has been guiding and bringing it into fulfillment; and that someone is the Lord Himself. See, all of this is according to God's divine plan, and we give Him all the glory for how everything is working out.

It is so good to know the Lord and to see what He is doing in the time that we are living in. We often wondered how it would be at the end time, and now we are experiencing it. When I speak of “the end time,” I mean this brief and supernatural moment in which we, the Wife of the Lamb, have been living—and which is now drawing to its close. It is here that our total translation is completed, and taking on our glorified flesh and bones is fully accomplished. The Lord has been creating Word bodies of glorified flesh and bones, and now our Word bodies have come to fruition. So, God has now moved us into the visibility and catching away time. So, here we all are today, just as happy as can be. And it does not hurt a thing to be happy. It does not hurt a thing to enjoy all these good things and even laugh, for laughter is good for the soul. Now, let us have a Word of prayer before going any further in the Word of God.

Father, we come to you praising you and thanking you and saying, “Lord, you are all we need.” We praise you and give you thanks for meeting every need. Also, we thank you for leading us, for everywhere there was to be a turn, you gave us the wisdom to turn, and we were able to make the turn. And everywhere there were rough spots, you helped us to overcome every one of them. Lord God, we are thankful for all your people, especially for those who are members of the Wife of the Lamb. You have led us and guided us and united us and brought us into one place where we are all together. That is the thing. And when I say all together, I do not mean locally all in one place, but joined to your Son, Jesus Christ, in the Wife’s realm of glorified flesh and bones. And we praise you for this! We rejoice and give you thanks for all these good things taking place as we have become the fullness of Christ the Wife of the Lamb.

Today, we are here to praise God and honor Him. In the past, many things were preached, and they were good and wonderful. Those messages encouraged and guided us as virgins through the New Testament era, with each one fulfilling its purpose as God blessed it. But now God is speaking through the spoken Word, which does not have to be written beforehand. We are living in a special moment of time, where we the Wife of the Lamb are showing forth the spoken Word of glorified flesh and bones. This Word is not prepared in advance; it is coming directly through us. In this new river of life, we the Wife no longer need a mediator as was seen in the main river of life. That former order served its appointed purpose, but in our new river there is no need for a mediator or a go-between. The living Word is now being expressed directly through us, the Wife of the Lamb, in glorified flesh and bones. So, this shows a clear distinction from previous periods of time, as the living Word of glorified flesh and bones reveals God's ongoing work and presence in our midst.

Notice, when the New Testament had fulfilled its purpose, God began to draw attention back to the Old Testament for the Jews. This is the vision God gave me recently. And as I have told about it several times lately, some people have wanted to know more details about it, but there are not many details to give. In the vision, I had the same Bible that I use now — a relatively new Bible with a leather cover; and at times, I lay my hand on it in reverence and thank God for His Word. So, in the vision, as I laid my hand on the Bible, the Old Testament portion began to quiver and shake. I was shocked as I watched it continue to move, realizing it was no longer dormant but alive! Life had come back into it; it was resurrecting itself. And now we can see that this is exactly what is taking place. Praise God! Because of this, we cannot help but turn our eyes toward the land God gave Abraham in the Middle East and see what is happening in Israel. From the natural standpoint, Israel appears to be in trouble. But from the spiritual standpoint, Israel is abundantly blessed, because God is working out everything that must be fulfilled. So, God is there, the Lord Jesus Christ is there, and we, Christ the Wife, are there as well. Everything that is needed is already there, and God is allowing His plan to unfold. People will witness miracles and be blessed by what He brings to pass. I think of Ezekiel, Chapters 38 and 39, where the bear from the north, which is Russia, comes down into Israel and is defeated on the mountains of Israel, and only one-sixth of those in the battle will return home to tell what has taken place. See, God is moving, and everything is working out exactly as it is supposed to. And seeing the way He is working it out in Israel makes us so happy. Also, we are very contented to see the things that He has done, and is doing, for us, the Wife of the Lamb. And we are rejoicing even more as the Lord Himself desires us to fully enjoy all these good things taking place!

In earlier times, when we came to preach, we mainly preached from Paul's writings. We would find a good title for a sermon, being led of the Lord, of course, because God was leading and guiding. We would gather the scriptures, comparing this scripture with that scripture, and bring them together. And it worked well during that appointed season of time because God was leading and guiding us through that time. But see, that season, the espousal part, came to its completion. Then the marriage took place, and now we are the Wife of the Lamb. And Glory to God, it is so great! Now, we are talking about Her instead of Him. We have been used to saying 'Him,' but God has now revealed the great secret He had kept hidden: the feminine part of the Godhead, which is us, Christ the Wife of the Lamb.

In Genesis 1:27, we find that when God created man, He created one man and his name was Adam, and he was one hundred percent masculine—and for a while it remained that way (but as time opened more truth, revelation, and understanding, we began to see more of God's original nature, which was masculine and feminine); after a while, God saw that Adam became lonely. Why would Adam become lonely? Because he was made in the image and likeness of God; for the Bible says, "So God created man in His own image; in the image of God created He him; male and female created He them." See, Adam was there, but something was missing. After Adam named the animals that God brought to him, he began to feel that loneliness; for he realized that all the animals had a mate, but he was alone. Then God put Adam to sleep, and when he woke up, there was Eve; for the feminine part of Adam was brought forth. In this way, the feminine part was manifested in visible form. So, this is what has taken place today in the creation of the Wife of the Lamb, and it is wonderful to see how God brought us, the feminine part of the Godhead, into plain view. See, He kept it hidden until this special moment of time.

Notice, after God created Adam, He later brought forth Eve; yet He did not create Eve exactly like Adam, because He did not want another Adam. Adam was all masculine, and God desired a vessel through which the feminine part could be expressed. God, in His original makeup, was masculine and feminine before He began creating and bringing forth. So, God did not make Adam and Eve different from what He was in the Spirit. In the Spirit, both the masculine and feminine parts were present. Yet God kept the feminine Spirit hidden and reserved until the appointed time, so no one knew about Her. We did not hear ministers preach about Her when speaking of God or the Lord Jesus Christ, for the language was always He and Him. But now the feminine part of the Godhead has manifested in us, the Wife of the Lamb. As we see male and female throughout creation, we now recognize that this same original makeup is being revealed through us, the Wife of the Lamb. So, we are the Wife of the Lamb, the body of Christ in glorified flesh and bones. And the Lord named us Christ the Wife. That is the thing: He has done all this for us. And we see as clear as crystal what God has done; for we see the wisdom of God and how He took and used that wisdom to accomplish His purpose in creating a Wife for His Son, the Lord Jesus Christ.

God has created us the Wife of the Lamb, for when we heard the Voice of the trump of God sounding, we rallied to it. Through revelation, we began to see and understand what God had in His mind, as He joined the Lord Jesus Christ and us together by a proxy marriage. And by our marriage to Him, we saw that God's mind is both masculine and feminine. This revelation helped us to understand what He had in His mind from the beginning and how He has brought it into being through us, Christ the Wife of the Lamb. God rejoiced at the creation of His Son, the Lord Jesus Christ, but when He created us the Wife, that made it complete. So, here we stand today, the Lord Jesus Christ and us, Christ the Wife, in completeness. And what a time we are having!

We are seeing these great things right here in the end time. The Lord Jesus Christ has a Wife, and being the feminine part, we have come into our appointed place. So, now the King and the Queen stand together, each in our proper position. And the dream that Barbarajean had about the Bottomland is where we, the Wife of the Lamb, have produced our fruit of glorified flesh and bones in this moment of time. From my early years as a farmer, I know what Bottomland is, and I have often heard that term used. I have heard it called by other names, but "Bottomland" is the proper name. It is a name that is close to the water, where it reaches the land and enriches the soil, and it is a land that is very desirable, like male and female. So, we see how all of this has been taking place as God is moving in the time we are living in. We are living in a supernatural event where the trump of God message of glorified flesh and bones is sounding through us, Christ the Wife of the Lamb. And now, as we stand at the end of this event, we see what all is taking place in Israel, and we are praising God for the victory that He is bringing to them. So, we are rejoicing even more as the Lord Himself desires us to fully enjoy all these good things taking place!

Many people say that Israel sure messed up by getting into a fight. But we see it differently; for in God's plan, it came time for Israel to move and take their land, to take over all that God has given them. And we see that is exactly what is happening, because they are in the process of doing it now. Each morning, we look to see what has taken place, knowing that everything is unfolding exactly as God has ordained it. Israel is going to have all their land. Not only Israel, but for us, the Wife of the Lamb, God is giving us all that belongs to us. We are the King's Wife. And we praise God! We the Wife are the feminine part of the fullness of the Godhead bodily, which was hid in God. We were once hidden and unknown, but now we stand manifested in glorified flesh and bones. And everything with us is taking place exactly as God ordained it.

The things that God is doing, He is moving in such a way that it is absolutely marvelous, and it is absolutely miraculous. And the things that He has begun to work out in the land of Israel, it is something so great; for the Spirit of God the Father is there, looking over that natural work. And, also, there is the Lord Jesus Christ and us, Christ the Wife, there in the separate workings of God; for in that main river of life some are recognizing that the Lord Jesus Christ is indeed their Messiah, and in this new river of life, we the Wife have been proclaiming and giving witness of our glorified flesh and bone message. So, we see the separate workings in the two rivers, the main river of life and the new river of life. And it has all been taking place just like it is supposed to. God also has other people involved, and they do not know themselves that they are following what God wants. They do not realize they are doing His will through certain actions, battles, and events, for God is giving them wisdom and knowledge on what to do. These things are helping Israel, and Israel is going to wind up with all their land. In the end, it is going to come out just like God ordained it, and we praise Him for it. So, we are here today to talk to you about it; and we are waiting for tomorrow to see what is going to take place there.

We are rejoicing in the Lord and having a wonderful time. God is moving in such a way, and we are so happy! We have seen the New Testament fulfill itself, and then God brought us into this new river of life that started flowing in Revelation 22:1 when our marriage to the Lord Jesus Christ took place. For the feminine part of the Christ Spirit that was hidden in the Lord Jesus Christ emerged from the throne of God and the Lamb and came into us and solidified, bringing the masculine and feminine parts of the Christ Spirit together in a proxy marriage, making us the Wife of the Lamb. And here we are today, bringing forth our unique fruit of glorified flesh and bones in this moment of time at the closing of this supernatural event. And we are praising God!

Notice again, God created a river for us, the Wife of His Son. We have our very own river, which is named Christ the Wife, after us. In this pure crystal-clear river, there is no sin, no death, no strife, and no burden. There is no need to carry a cross through the main river of life, which has become a muddy river over time. What is seen in our river is the crown of life, celebrated in our marriage to the Lord Jesus Christ. It is a smooth flowing river, pure and crystal clear. This is the very essence of Revelation 22:1 being manifested today among us, the Wife of the Lamb.

At our marriage to the Lord Jesus Christ, this river, the feminine part of the Christ Spirit, entered into us and solidified within us. In this, God revealed what He had in His mind from the beginning: the masculine and feminine parts of the Christ Spirit coming together in marriage and showing the fullness of Christ in us, the Wife. And in our river, we have been wrapped tightly together in fine linen, clean and white, which is the righteousness of the fullness of the faith of Christ. Now we the Wife and this new river of life are one and the same. This water is so desirable that people are drawn to it, longing to come and drink from its life-giving flow. And we praise God for this day and time in which we are living!

This past week, we have been working on a book, and there has been a lot going on. God has been opening things up, causing everything to come together, and we thank Him for all the good things He is doing. Maybe Barbarajean would like to testify to some of these things that I have been talking about, because she might be able to help me out on some of them. One thing I want to say is that God has let the feminine part of Himself begin to show, see, not that she is a preacher or anything of that nature, but there is the feminine part of the Godhead. And that is what we see when God created Eve; for when she was manifested, Adam was never so happy in His life! So, we praise God for all these good things that are taking place. Yes, we are keeping our eyes on Israel and are rejoicing with them, while our main focus remains fixed on what we are looking for with great anticipation: the appearing among us of the saints who are here on earth, for God has moved us into visibility and catching away time. Amen.

Testimony of Barbarajean Howard

I enjoyed that, and I praise the Lord for the fruit we have produced, which is the fruit of glorified flesh and bones. Just as we see miracles taking place in Israel and elsewhere in the natural realm, we are also witnessing the miracle of glorified flesh and bones that has come to fruition in us. We have taken it on because we are the miracle Wife of glorified flesh and bones. When the marriage took place, we were no longer seen only as the body of Christ Paul spoke of—the spiritual body of Christ—but as the body of Christ in glorified flesh and bones, having taken on the glorified flesh and bones of the Lord Jesus Christ. Yet, we are not trying to be like Him; we are ourselves. Those in the main river of life want to be like Jesus Christ, but He does not want us to be like Him. He wants us to be His Wife. Therefore, we are like Her, because we are Her. I praise Him for everything and love Him with all my heart. I also love the book we wrote recently called The Full Godhead is Now in Israel: God the Father, the Lord Jesus Christ, and Christ the Wife. In it, we the Wife give witness to our Message of Glorified Flesh and Bones and to the awakening of the Jews Testament. I fell in love with it! Ben and I had worked on it day and night, waking up the next morning and going back to it again. It is so wonderful! I know those that it is for will love it when they read it. We are giving witness to all these things, as God has let us, Christ the Wife of the Lamb, step out and give testimony of all of this; for we know all of it. We came through the New Testament and saw it fulfilled. Now we stand with the Word that is of us and for us, the Wife, after marriage: the last trump of God, the Message of Glorified Flesh and Bones, going forth at the close of this supernatural event. Through this Message, we the Wife bear witness that we are the living Word—the Word of glorified flesh and bones. As we have been doing this, we are also now witnessing the awakening of the Jews Testament, and we are rejoicing! I praise the Lord for it! Thank you, my Lord. What the Gentiles call the Old Testament, we the Wife of the Lamb call the Jews New Testament—and I love that!

Ben Howard says: We appreciate the Lord and all these good things that He is doing for us. Our service might be a little different here sometimes as we have moved into the newest order of what God is doing. So, we do not necessarily do it the same way each time. But we want to get out what God puts on our heart, which is the main thing. If He lays something on our heart, then we want to say it. Now, we want to dismiss the service here, and I want to ask Barbarajeon to dismiss us.

O' precious Father, we thank you today for letting us come out here and say a little something about you and what you are doing. And we thank you so much for all of it. Lord God, we are so overjoyed in what we are seeing in Israel and about our Word of glorified flesh and bones and the fact that the two rivers, two separate workings, are in Israel. For we see the main river of life, and we also see our river, the new river of life that you named Christ the Wife after us, giving witness through our Message of Glorified Flesh and Bones. And we praise you for everything! Again, we thank you so much for the book The Full Godhead is Now in Israel: God the Father, the Lord Jesus Christ, and Christ the Wife. It is so wonderful, all the things that you gave us while we were working on it, and we cannot thank you enough for it. I appreciate my husband, Ben Howard, for standing faithfully through all these years, moving as you would have him move, and helping us move forward through the preaching of the Word that you gave him. We appreciate him and all the members of the Wife of the Lamb. We also thank you for the Apostle Paul and all the other saints who are here with us now, as the time has come for us to see them visibly. They are here, and they are longing to see us as well. That longing has come upon us, Lord; it is time not only to see them, but also to see you. And we love you for it. Bless you so much for the great Bottom-land you gave us. We cannot thank you enough. I know I say it over and over, Lord, but what else can we say when we have been given such wonderful things as these. We cannot help but stand up and give witness to it. I love you, Lord. Thank you so much! Amen.

THE WIFE OF THE LAMB IS NO LONGER USING THE OLD TESTAMENT AND NEW TESTAMENT
SCRIPTURES AS A MEDIATOR

Testimony of Barbarajean Howard

I thank the Lord for being here today, to be able to come and rejoice and give Him praise for everything that He is doing. And as we see the full Godhead is now represented in Israel—God the Father, the Lord Jesus Christ, and us, Christ the Wife—our rejoicing and thankfulness extend not only to what He is doing for us, the Wife of the Lamb, but also for what He is doing among the Jews. We praise the Lord for all of it, and we thank Him for letting us know about the awakening of the Old Testament. So, the Old Testament is now recognized by us, the Wife, as the Jews New Testament, and we are rejoicing in this revelation, giving God thanks for letting us know about it and witness the revival of their testament that God gave them. Also, we praise God for the way that we the Wife of the Lamb are approaching Him. In the past, our approach was through the scriptures of both the Old Testament and New Testament, using them as a bridge, a go-between, to connect or get access to God. At that time, the scriptures served as a mediator, representing the Redeemer—the Lord Jesus Christ—and we relied on them to approach God. However, we the Wife of the Lamb do not need to use the scriptures of the Bible as a mediator to approach Him. Instead, our connection is through the direct spoken Word, by which He speaks to us, and us to Him—personally and directly. And while we the Wife are experiencing this direct relationship with Him, we see that to those who dwell in the main river of life, the scriptures still serve as a mediator—a go-between that helps them draw closer to God. So, their connection to Him continues through the Bible, bridging the gap, as it has throughout time. Yet, for us, the Wife, this is no longer necessary, because we are now a member of the Godhead, the feminine part of the fullness of the Godhead bodily, with our own writings—the writings of Christ the Wife of the Lamb, which is scripture—thus showing forth our new river of life, where there is no mediator between us and God. This has come by our marriage to God’s Son, the Lord Jesus Christ; and through this union, we are bone of His glorified bone and flesh of His glorified flesh. I praise Him for this glorifying Word that He has given us and how He continues to give us more and more.

Sermon of Ben Howard

I want to thank my wife, Barbarajean, for her testimony. It is so wonderful to see what God is doing, and to know what He is doing. We have been doing a lot of work around here, and we are busy most of the time now. But we always want to make time to come and worship the Lord and give Him praise, for He is really doing a lot of good things now. We may not understand all of what is taking place in Israel, because some of the things have not worked out like I thought they would in my mind; but I know they are working exactly like they are supposed to. So, we praise God for all these things!

Well, the month of April is here; and on the 28th I will be eighty-seven years old, though I prefer to say eighty-seven years young, which is a better way of looking at it.

Today, we are happy in the Lord and rejoicing in the things He is doing for us. And as Barbarajean said, we cannot thank Him or praise Him enough. And the more we thank Him and the more we praise Him, it seems like the more He does for us. Praise the Lord! So, we are here today to say, "Lord, we love you! Lord, we appreciate you! And if we love you and appreciate you, we love your people and appreciate them." And when we are talking about the Wife of the Lamb, we are all one in the Lord, for we are united as one body of glorified flesh and bones.

When we look at our place as the Wife of the Lamb, it becomes clear that our glorified flesh and bones is something very special, for we are not simply redeemed or glorified; rather, we are intimately joined to the Lord Jesus Christ, being bone of His glorified bone and flesh of His glorified flesh. Yes, there are a lot of other people in the family of God that will receive glorified bodies, but they are not bone of His glorified bone and flesh of His glorified flesh. See, this distinction is important, for as the Wife, we are part of Him in a way that others are not. Then beyond the glorified people of God, there are those who are redeemed of God but do not have glorified bodies (in the sense of what we know as glorified bodies), but they are mortal, natural people who will live forever in their natural bodies. They go into the millennium in their natural bodies, and they will be entrusted with the care of the earth. See, their role is different from the glorified people, yet it is important, as they maintain and take care of the earth throughout eternity.

In the beginning, as recorded in Genesis, God gave Adam the responsibility to conquer the earth and bring it into subjection by His divine will. A river flowed out of Eden, and it divided into four streams that watered the various lands, sustaining life and nourishing creation. Adam was given the commandment to make the entire earth look like Eden. However, that was not fulfilled at that time, as Adam and Eve strayed from God's original commandment. Despite this, God's plan remains unchanged, and it will yet come to pass. The earth is soon to enter a period of a thousand years (the millennial reign), during which time it will be transformed and prepared for its final state. Notice, during the millennium, as foretold by God's Prophet Isaiah in Chapter 65, we see there will still be instances of judgment on the mortal people, and some will be put to death. But when the earth and mortal people move into eternity, everything will be beyond perfect. And that is how we the Wife of the Lamb are now, for we are bone of the Lord Jesus Christ's glorified bone and flesh of His glorified flesh, with His mind and His ways. Notice that His mind is expressed through the masculine side, while ours as the Wife is expressed through the feminine side, and together we are showing forth the mind of Christ in marriage. Yet, there are other people of God who serve in different parts of His plan. There will be a group that comes out of the Great Tribulation, who will have gone through much torment. But when the Lord Jesus Christ sits on His throne to judge them (as shown in Matthew, Chapter 25), He shall gather all nations before Him, and He shall separate them one from another, as a shepherd divides his sheep from the goats. And He shall set the sheep on His right hand, but the goats on the left. Then shall the King say unto them on his right hand, "Come, ye blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world." But the goats shall be destroyed. Notice, the goats will be destroyed, but the sheep people will inherit the kingdom that God has prepared for them from the foundation of the world—but they will still be in their natural bodies. So, all of that is so beautiful, and it is laid out so good in the scriptures of the Bible.

I can look back over time, and as I journeyed through the scriptures of the Bible, ministering the Word of God, I learned many things from those that came before me. Brother Raymond Jackson was the first I ever heard preach that some of the mortal people would die during the millennium. He taught that during that time there will be those who refuse to obey God and just want to do wrong, and God would have to take them off the scene, ensuring that the millennium remains a time of righteous rule. Then at the end of the millennium, the Great White Throne Judgment will take place, and this is where time ends; for it is here that death and hell will be done away with, and the devil, along with all who oppose God's plan, will be cast into the lake of fire and be completely consumed. This judgment will result in various outcomes for different people, depending on their deeds. See, God has been so gracious to show us these things, so we have a clear understanding of the millennium and on into eternity.

Years ago, I did not know exactly about the working of God during the 70th Week of Daniel, but as He showed me, I learned that there was one more week left for Israel. So, they have one more week left—a seven year period in which God will deal with them. So, we see the very beginning of these things taking place; for we see what Israel is doing now. And whether the world wants to or not, they are all having to look to Israel. So, it looks like we are getting very close now. And getting very close does not scare me. It makes me look with anticipation; for we know that prophecy has begun to quiver and shake—"coming alive!" Thus, signaling the beginning of its fulfillment. So, we praise God for all these wonderful things that are in the Bible, things which have laid there all this time. Just think, we did not know all the ins and outs about it, but God has opened it up and it has become an open book to us. We understand all these things, and we really appreciate God giving us the understanding!

Now, having said all of that, today I want to title my sermon—The Wife of the Lamb is No Longer Using the Old Testament and New Testament Scriptures as a Mediator. In other words, God is speaking; and when God speaks, it is spoken Word. And we know the spoken Word is the original seed. See, it does not have to be written in the Bible. But everything that comes by the spoken Word, it finds its roots in the Bible. So, we see all the good things that God has brought to us as He revealed the Bible to us. See, we were on a journey through the Bible all these years and we did not realize it. Then, suddenly we woke up one morning and opened our eyes and we found ourselves in a new time, where we, the Wife of the Lamb, were no longer using the Old Testament and New Testament scriptures as a mediator. So, we thank Him for all He is doing.

The Bible, I have read through many times. Years ago, I heard a man say that if the Bible got destroyed, he could write the whole Bible again without copying it off. Well, that is all right. But the thing is, whatever God is going to do, He is doing it. But this thing has now come into the final gear, as we are at the end of this present world order and we are seeing all these good things taking place. We see trouble in the land of Israel, but that trouble is working out for their glory. And even Russia will be defeated in the land of Israel, and only one-sixth of them will be able to return home and tell what happened. All of that will soon take place, for even now it has begun to unfold. So, we praise God for revealing the wonderful truths contained in the Bible.

Notice, while journeying as the virgin in that main river of life, the Lord opened His Word to us, making the scriptures an open book. Through revelation, we saw the richness and goodness that was flowing from the Bible, showing the main river of life. But now, as the Wife of the Lamb, we have experienced an intimate and unique relationship with God. The Old Testament and New Testament scriptures, which once served as mediators between us and God, are no longer necessary as intermediaries. Instead, God speaks directly to us, Christ the Wife of the Lamb, through the spoken Word in this new river of life.

If you will notice today, when we speak about God and the Lord Jesus Christ, we naturally say “He,” thus showing the masculine part of the Godhead. Well, the Lord Jesus Christ has taken a Wife, and we have become bone of His glorified bone and flesh of His glorified flesh. He has given us the name Christ the Wife. So, by marriage we have become the “She part” of the Lord Jesus Christ the Lamb of God, thus showing that we are the feminine part of the fullness of the Godhead bodily. In other words, we are the Wife of the Lamb. Our position as the Wife has nothing whatsoever to do with the millions of people who have come to God through the ages, and those who will care for the earth during the millennium and on into eternity. So, while there are the other people of God, we the Wife of the Lamb still have our place.

In recent weeks, we have been bringing in about the great Bottomland that the Lord gave us. Barbarajean shared a dream in which the Lord spoke to her, saying, “I have given you some great Bottomland.” The word Bottomland means fertile river ground; soil that is rich and productive, made fruitful by the river that flows through it. In our recent book, The Full Godhead is Now in Israel: God the Father, the Lord Jesus Christ, and Christ the Wife, we included a chapter devoted to this revelation of our great Bottomland. That chapter brings together and expands in further revelation upon two audio sermons: Christ the Wife of the Lamb Was Given Some Great Bottomland and Our Glorified Existence Has Been Granted to Us, the Wife, in This Great Bottomland.

For the book, we presented the combined chapter under the title Christ the Wife of the Lamb Was Given Some Great Bottomland. So, this “Bottomland” is what has been given to us, the Wife, by the Lord. But when we look at the land of Israel, we can see the distinction with the twelve tribes of Israel, and each tribe already has their allotted portion. But notice, there is some greater land, some Bottomland, which is usually brought forth as the best land because a river runs through it, making it very fruitful. Thus, there is fertility, fullness, and abundance flowing from the river, which is seen in us, the Wife of the Lamb. But as far as God giving a specific section of the land of Israel to us, the Wife—no, because that land is allotted to the twelve tribes. But we the Wife of the Lamb are part of everything the Lord Jesus Christ has. Jesus Christ is the King, and we are His Queen. So, what belongs to the King belongs to us, His Wife. But it does not hinder the twelve tribes; they each have their section in the land of Israel. But we the Wife are from all over the world, and we have been given the “Bottomland”—fertile river ground that can produce any kind of fruit. And that is what we are looking at today. In this special moment of time, because of our marriage to the Lord Jesus Christ, we the Wife of the Lamb have brought forth the fruit of glorified flesh and bones. We have been living in a supernatural event, hearing and receiving the message of the last trump of God—the creative Word that has brought forth glorified flesh and bones. As that Word was established and solidified within us, it has brought forth its full expression in us, the Wife, as the Word made manifest in glorified flesh and bones. Now we stand at the close of this event, rejoicing all the more because there is a rapture and a translation taking place, and we are rejoicing in it now!

Notice again, we the Wife of the Lamb were given some great Bottomland, which is fertile river ground. And this Bottomland is not literal land; it is God's way of describing, by the new and pure language He has given us, what spiritually belongs to us, the Wife of His Son. And I thank God that He gave us a new and pure language. So, we the Wife are speaking this new and pure language, and we do not have to quote scriptures from the Old Testament, nor the New Testament, because He has given us a new and pure language to speak, which is also seen in our writings—the writings of Christ the Wife of the Lamb. Therefore, we are not approaching God by using the Old Testament and New Testament scriptures as a mediator, which is in the main river of life. Instead, we are speaking in this new and pure language, showing that we the Wife are the new river of life. Again, in our new river of life, there is no mediator or a go-between to access God.

Today, I am so happy to know the Lord and to be a member of the Wife of the Lamb, and to watch how things are unfolding in Israel. And I am not saying that it is going to unfold in the next few weeks, but it has already started. And if that 70th Week of Daniel has started, it is only a seven-year period before the Lord Jesus Christ fights that Battle of Armageddon. So, this reality stresses the urgency and significance of the time in which we live.

Notice, we were made the Wife of the Lamb before the Battle of Armageddon, because the Lord Jesus Christ did not want the feminine part drawn into that fight. So, He does not bring us, His Wife, into open visibility while He goes forth to fight that battle. We are clothed not for battle, but in fine linen, clean and white, showing that we have the righteousness which is of the fullness of the faith of Christ; therefore, for us, the Wife, there is no struggle and no striving—no fighting at all. But when we look at Israel, we see the brethren; we see a certain order—appointed places and appointed portions. The twelve tribes each have their location, written and set forth in the Bible; and each portion is a part of the whole land, a heritage that falls into the hands of the Jews. That is what we are seeing in this moment of time, as the Jews Testament has awakened and they are claiming the land that God gave them, because it was theirs from the beginning; and, therefore, they must claim it! And in the same way, we the Wife of the Lamb had to claim what God has given us. See, all we have to do many times is claim what God has given us. And He has given us this great Bottomland, which is fertile river ground, which has produced the glorified flesh and bones in us, the Wife of the Lamb. We have been given the best there is! And we praise God for it and for all the great things that are taking place.

It used to be when I would preach that I would memorize every scripture in the Bible that I could possibly memorize. See, I would read and read, to get the goodies out of it. I remember a man that I worked with on the job when I was building metal buildings saying, "If you want to know anything about the Bible, ask Junior." Of course, my name is Ben Howard Junior, and many in that day just called me Junior. So, he would always say, "Just ask Junior and he will tell you where it is found, and he will explain it to you. He knows all about it!" Yes, that was all right back then. But now God has given us a new and pure language that we the Wife of the Lamb are speaking. And this new and pure language is unique and ever-expanding. So, we speak the things that God has moved to give us. And a new and pure language is not quoting scripture, but it goes beyond. Yes, it points to scripture, but it has taken us beyond the scripture, thus showing our new land, our Bottomland, which is the Wife's part of the plan of God.

So, today everything is going just like the Lord wants it. And what I want us to see is that what we are seeing now in the land of Israel, we are in it now, and it is taking place.

Many of the things we see that have started are not going to stop until it is all completed. And God has men in place (and I will not name any names) who can pull the strings and are able to make things work. It is God anointing them to do that; therefore, we see all these things coming to pass. And it is such a blessing and is so wonderful. Glory to God! We appreciate it and appreciate what God is doing. I thank God for giving us a good place to come and worship Him in Spirit and in truth. He is moving with us, and we are having dreams and visions, and the Word is being revealed—spoken Word, which comes directly from the Lord. We see that spoken Word has come into play even more in recent months, as we see the end of this present world order has come upon us. I will say that in the last few elections we have had here in the United States that things have really changed. And the things out here in the world have changed. Nations have changed. And we do not want to try to pinpoint everything and say this is going to be this way and that is going to be that way, to the point that we do not give room for the way God wants to do it. So, we praise God and thank Him for all the good things that He is doing!

So, I thought I would come out this morning to greet you and say something that would bless you. We praise Him and thank Him for the glory of God and how everything is working out. We really thank the Lord for these things. God bless each one of you. Keep looking to the Lord.

Heavenly Father, we praise you and thank you. Lord, we give you honor and give you glory. "Give all the glory to Jesus," and you have made us part of that. You have made us part of the Godhead, the feminine part, and we appreciate it. Lord, I pray that you will take and use these few words, which are few indeed, for your glory. Amen and Amen.
