QTPOC SPIRITUALITIES

QTPOC Spiritualities is a group for LGBTQIA+ Black, indigenous, and person-of-color (BIPOC) students who want to explore faith, ethics, and spiritual life in community with each other.

Sign up for the Listserv:
https://lists.uchicago.edu/web/info/qtpocspiritualities

Join our Facebook Group:
"QTPOC Spiritualities @ U Chicago"
https://bit.ly/33Wi2KF

Student Contact, Allison Reed:
allisonreed@uchicago.edu

All events (next page) held over Zoom. Sign up on Listserv or contact Allison to receive event links or more info.
QTPOC-S FALL 2020 PROGRAMMING

All events held over Zoom, sign up on our Listserv (https://lists.uchicago.edu/web/info/qt pocspiritualities) or e-mail Allison (allisonreed@chicago) for link

QTPOC CAFE
(1st Fridays, 12 to 1p CST)

Bring coffee or tea, bring lunch. Bring your laptop to get some work done, or some colored pencils and a craft just to relax. Bring anything, or don’t bring anything more (or less!) than yourself. Sometimes there will be light programming, at other times we’ll simply enjoy each other’s company while we do our own things. This is hosted by QTPOC Spiritualities, but to attend there’s no obligation to be spiritual or to come to the general QTPOC-S meetings.

1st Fridays October 2 | November 6 | December 4, 12-1p

QTPOC SPIRITUALITIES GENERAL MEETING
(3rd Fridays except December, 5:00-6:30p CST)

Our general meetings follow a general rhythm, though it’s definitely fluid. We’ll start with check-ins, to get a sense of who is in the room. Then we’ll do what we call sacred reading, though not necessarily with a conventionally spiritual text—it might be Black feminist poetry like Lucille Clifton’s “won’t you celebrate with me,” or some Queer of Color brilliance like Audre Lorde’s “Litany for Survival”. Then we’ll dive into the conversation of the day, which has spanned topics from love to monasticism to justice to what it means to find refuge.

3rd Fridays October 16 & Friday November 20, 5-6:30p | 1st Friday December 4, 5-6:30p