To Whom It May Concern:

This is a letter of recommendation for Michael Gualtieri. Michael has indicated to me his desire to work in the field of broadcasting, especially as a sports commentator.

Michael has been committed to taking the necessary steps towards achieving this goal for several years. During his senior year of high school, Michael created, produced, and hosted his own television show on West Hartford Community Television. In addition, he has worked nine events for CBS Sports ranging from a spotter on our golf coverage to the talent runner for Phil Simms and myself in the broadcasting booth at the New England Patriots home football games.

Michael has also pursued his love of sports and broadcasting while attending Boston College, a school he graduated from on May 19, 2008. Michael was the Sports Director of the campus radio station, WZBC 90.3 FM, where he was the "student play-by-play voice" of the BC football team. In addition, he was a four-year student manager for Head Coach Al Skinner on the Men's Basketball team working home practices and games while traveling with the team on the road.

With Michael's determination to succeed and work ethics, I know that he will achieve his dreams and would be a great asset to your team. If you have any questions about Michael, I can be reached at 203-227-2271.

Sincerely,

Jim Nantz
