Tony Fossas - Pitching Coach

Fossas (pronounced FOSS-us) returns to the Dragons in 2014 for his fifth year with the club. He previously served as the Dayton pitching coach from 2009-'11 and 2013. He spent the 2012 season as pitching coach with the Billings Mustangs of the Pioneer League. In 2011 with the Dragons, Fossas oversaw a pitching staff that broke the all-time Midwest League record for strikeouts in a season. The staff also broke the franchise record for best ERA while leading the league in ERA, strikeouts, shutouts, and fewest runs allowed. Over his five seasons in the Reds organization, Fossas has been instrumental in the development of pitching prospects Robert Stephenson, Nick Travieso, Chad Rogers, Ismael Guillon, Drew Hayes, Sal Romano, Drew Cisco, and many others.

PLAYING CAREER: Fossas enjoyed a 21-year professional playing career and pitched in the Major Leagues for all or parts of 12 seasons with the Red Sox, Cardinals, Rangers, Brewers, Mariners, Cubs, and Yankees. Despite not reaching the Major Leagues until the age of 30, Fossas pitched in 567 big league games from 1988 until 1999. He was originally signed as a 12th round pick of the Rangers in 1979. Known as one of baseball's best situational left-handed relievers, Fossas finished third in the American League in games pitched in 1993 with 71 appearances out of the Red Sox bullpen. His best season came in 1995 with the Cardinals when he pitched in 58 games and allowed only six runs, posting a 1.47 earned run average with a 3-0 record. In 1996, Fossas appeared in five of the seven National League Championship Series games for the Cardinals against the Atlanta Braves.

The Dragons completed the 2013 season with a record of 65-74, narrowly missing out on a post-season berth as the race went down to the final week of the second half. On August 28, the Dragons were 35-29 in the second half, trailing Great Lakes by four games, entering a three-game set with the Loons. Great Lakes won the first two games of the series to clinch the playoff spot. The Dragons did finish the half with a winning record at 37-33.

The Dragons kept their sell-out streak alive and finished the season at 983 straight sold out dates, extending their own record over all of sports in North America. The Dragons completed the season with an attendance total for the year of 579,946, averaging 8,405 per date to rank fifth in all of Minor League Baseball and first among Single-A teams for the 14th straight year.

The 2013 Dragons featured the last three first round draft picks of the Cincinnati Reds as Robert Stephenson (Reds first rounder in 2011), Nick Travieso (2012), and Phillip Ervin (2013) all spent time in Dayton. The strength of the team was defense as the Dragons set a club record for fewest errors in a season with 137 over 139 games. Major Leaguers Johnny Cueto and Ryan Ludwick both played for the Dragons on injury rehabilitation assignments prior to their return to active duty with the Reds.

Midwest League All-Star Game: The Dragons hosted the 49th Midwest League All-Star Game at Fifth Third Field on June 18. The home team was represented in the game by eight players including starting left fielder Jesse Winker, who won the Home Run Derby as part of the event. Robert Stephenson was selected as the starting pitcher for the Eastern Division but missed the game due to a strained hamstring. Other Dragons who participated included shortstop Zach Vincej and pitchers Sal Romano, Alejandro Chacin, Ben Klimesh, and Sean Lucas. Starting pitcher Drew Cisco was also selected but did not pitch. The Eastern Division won the game 6-5, scoring the winning run in the bottom of the ninth inning before a crowd of 8,746.

BATTERS

Seth Mejias-Brean - The slick-fielding infielder spent time at both first base and third base for the Dragons and finished the year batting .305 with 10 home runs and 79 runs batted in, winning the Cincinnati Reds Minor League Player of the Year award. His finest moment came on July 18. Trailing Beloit 6-3 in the bottom of the ninth, he belted a walk-off grand slam home run. It was just the second walk-off grand slam in Dragons history and gave the club arguably its most dramatic win ever. It was the first walk-off grand slam with the winning team trailing by three runs at the time to occur in the Reds organization since Adam Dunn hit a game-ender for the Reds in 2006.

Jesse Winker - The friendly Floridian was selected as the starting left fielder in the MWL All-Star Game. He led the Dragons in home runs with 16 while batting .281 with 76 RBI. He missed the final two weeks of the season with an ankle injury. Winker blasted a walk-off home run on July 21 against Wisconsin, just three days after Mejias-Brean's dramatic grand slam. Winker was the Dragons Batter of the Month in both April and May.

Zach Vincej - Vincej led the Dragons defensive effort at shortstop, committing only 14 errors as the club set a franchise record for fewest errors as a team in a season. Vincej played in the MWL All-Star Game and finished the year batting .263. On June 27, Vincej was red-hot, batting .473 over his last 17 games to raise his average to .280, when he suffered a strained oblique that caused him to miss nearly a month. He returned on July 24 and was a key part of the Dragons playoff push. He was the Dragons Batter of the Month for June.

BATTERS CONT'D

Junior Arias – Arias provided a rare combination of power and speed while making a smooth transition from third base to center field. In 72 games with the Dragons, he stole 40 bases and contended for the league lead in that category before being promoted to Bakersfield in early July. He added 26 extra base hits, including 10 home runs, while batting .284. In terms of raw baseball tools, Arias matched up well with any Midwest League position player and emerged as a solid prospect in the Reds organization.

PITCHERS

Robert Stephenson - Stephenson got off to a slow start, posting a record of 1-3 with a 5.79 ERA through May 1. But from May 8 until he was promoted to Bakersfield in mid-July, Stephenson was virtually unhittable. Over his final eight starts with the Dragons, he allowed a total of only four earned runs, going 4-0 with a 0.75 ERA. His best performance came May 30 vs. South Bend at Fifth Third Field when he was nearly perfect, taking a perfect game into the seventh inning before allowing an infield single for the only hit against him. He was selected to start the Midwest League All-Star Game for the Eastern Division but missed the game with a strained hamstring. He finished his year in Dayton with a 5-3 record, an ERA of 2.57, and 96 strikeouts in 77 innings. Opposing batters hit just .200 against him.

Nick Travieso - Travieso and Stephenson combined to give the Dragons a pair of first round draft picks in the starting rotation. Selected with the Reds first pick in the 2012 draft, Travieso joined the Dragons almost exactly one year after graduating from high school in the Ft. Lauderdale area. He made 17 starts for the Dragons, going 7-4 with a 4.63 ERA. He allowed one earned run or less in nine of his 17 starts including three of his last four. His best start may have been his last on September 1 when he allowed just one hit and one run in five innings against South Bend.

Johnny Cueto – Cueto, a member of the Dragons in 2006, returned to the club for two starts at Fifth Third Field on a rehab assignment in May. He faced Lansing on May 9 and fired three strong innings, allowing one run, before tossing five scoreless frames five days later to beat West Michigan, improving his career record with the Dragons to 9-1. Cueto started the Reds playoff battle with Pittsburgh in October, marking the second time in four seasons that the Reds opened the post-season with a starting pitcher who had worked for the Dragons earlier in the same season (Edinson Volquez did this in 2010).

Other Notes - The Dragons put together an incredible string of comeback wins at Fifth Third Field in July. Over a stretch of 10 home games from July 17-30, the Dragons went 8-2. All eight wins were comeback victories, including five games in which they trailed by at least three runs; two grand slams that gave the team the lead in their final at-bat; two walk-off home runs; one win in which the Dragons came back from an 8-1 deficit; and a win in which they trailed by four runs going to the bottom of the seventh. The walk-off grand slam by Seth Mejias-Brean on July 18, followed three days later by Jesse Winker's walk-off homer, were two of the most dramatic victories.

END OF FIRST HALF

The All-Time Greatest Ending

On July 18, 2013 at Fifth Third Field, Dragons slugger Seth Mejias-Brean provided the most dramatic ending to a win in team history. Trailing Beloit 6-3 in the bottom of the ninth inning, the Dragons loaded the bases. Mejias-Brean then promptly drilled a "walk-off" grand slam home run to right-center field to give his team a 7-6 win. It was the first walk-off grand slam when trailing by three runs in Dragons history and the first in the Reds organization in five years.

The Only No-Hitter

On May 13, 2006 in Appleton, Wisconsin, Johnny Cueto fired what still stands as the only no-hitter ever thrown by a Dragons pitcher. It was the second game of a doubleheader, scheduled for seven innings. Cueto cruised through the first five, striking out eight and walking two without allowing a hit as only two balls left the infield. Rain stopped the game before the sixth inning and it did not resume. Cueto was credited with a no-hitter in the rain-shortened game. Cueto pitched a complete game in his next start (another seven-inning game) allowing just one hit.

Billy Hamilton's Season for the Ages

Billy Hamilton became a Fifth Third Field legend in 2011 when he stole 103 bases for the Dragons, establishing an all-time single-season record for the entire Reds organization. In four straight games August 21-24, he led off the game with a base hit, then stole second base on the very next pitch. In the first two games among the four, he also stole third base on the second pitch. Hamilton went on to break his own record in 2012 when he stole 155 bases in the Reds system, the most in a season in the history of professional baseball.

Daniel Renken's Strikeout Streak & the 2011 Dragons Pitchers

On June 29, 2011 at Fifth Third Field, Dayton starting pitcher Daniel Renken dominated the Lansing Lugnuts. Renken struck out the final batter of the first inning, then struck out all three hitters in the second, third, and fourth. Ten consecutive batters were strikeout victims. Renken finished the night with 14 strikeouts over six shutout innings to tie a club record. He allowed only two hits and one walk for the win. Over the 2011 season, Dragons pitchers broke the all-time Midwest League record by striking out 1,292 hitters, led by Josh Smith, the MWL's strikeout king that year, with 166 to break the club record. Smith won 14 games and was the starting pitcher in the all-star game.

Austin Kearns' Assault on the Record Books, 2000

Dragons outfielder Austin Kearns enjoyed an eight-game stretch from July 17-July 24, 2000 that will likely never be matched in Midwest League competition. Kearns hit a home run in eight straight games and reached base in 14 consecutive plate appearances. Over the eight games, he hit 10 home runs (including one inside-the-park homer), drove in 20 runs, scored 19 times, and batted .720, going 18 for 25. For the year, Kearns was named Midwest League co-Prospect of the Year, along with Peoria's Albert Pujols.

Donald Lutz's Reverse Cycle, 2011

On July 21, 2011 at Fifth Third Field, Dayton's Donald Lutz became the first and only Dragons player to hit for the cycle, and he did it in reverse order over the first five innings of the game vs. the Peoria Chiefs. Lutz belted a home run in the first inning, connected on a triple in the second, hit a double in the third, and singled in the fifth in a 13-0 Dragons win. Lutz's Dragons teammate, Ronald Torreyes, went 5 for 5 in the same game. In 2013, Lutz became the first player raised in Germany to reach the Major Leagues when he debuted with the Reds.

60-78 OVERALL 1ST HALF: 30-40; 2ND HALF 30-38

DID NOT QUALIFY FOR PLAYOFFS

The Dragons finished in eighth place in both halves in 2012. Second baseman Ryan Wright represented the club in the Midwest League All-Star Game. The final week of the regular season featured the return to Dayton of Reds all-star Joey Votto when he joined the Dragons for three games on a Major League rehabilitation assignment. The former N.L. MVP became arguably the most decorated player ever to wear a Midwest League uniform when he played for the Dragons, the same season in which he had started at first base in the Major League Baseball All-Star Game. On July 4 vs. South Bend at Fifth Third Field, the first eight Dragons batters in the first inning all reached base and scored. The Dragons scored four more runs in the second inning and led 12-1 after two, winning 17-4 and setting a club record with 24 hits. It was a year of honors for the Dragons franchise. In March, Street & Smith's SportsBusiness Journal selected the Dragons as one of five finalists for their national "Team of the Year" award. The Dragons became the first Minor League team in any sport to be chosen as a finalist. Then after the season, the Dragons were awarded the John H. Johnson President's Award, the top honor in Minor League Baseball.

MIDWEST LEAGUE EASTERN DIVISION SECOND HALF CHAMPIONS

The Dragons enjoyed a milestone season in 2011. They garnered national attention when they broke the all-time sports record for consecutive sold-out dates on July 9, registering their 815th straight sell-out. The event was covered by CNN, ESPN, the New York Times, Sports Illustrated, the Wall Street Journal, and hundreds of other media outlets. Dragons owners Magic Johnson and Archie Griffin and former Dragons (current Reds) Drew Stubbs, Chris Heisey, and Logan Ondrusek were part of a special celebration on July 23.

On the field, the Dragons set a franchise record with 83 wins and won the second half division title by going 48-22. They lost in the first round of the playoffs to Lansing, two-games-to-one. The Dragons became the first Midwest League team in 16 years to lead the league in both team batting and team pitching, setting club records in both categories. They were just the second MWL since 1969 to lead the league in both runs scored and fewest runs allowed. Dragons pitchers broke the league record in strikeouts.

Perhaps the most memorable element of the Dragons 2011 season was the base stealing exploits of short-stop Billy Hamilton, who swiped 103 bags on the year to break the Reds organizational record. Hamilton and relief pitcher Drew Hayes were selected as full-season Midwest League All-Stars. Starting pitchers Josh Smith and Daniel Corcino and first baseman Dominic D'Anna represented the Dragons in the MWL All-Star Game and Smith led the league in both victories and strikeouts.

DID NOT QUALIFY FOR PLAYOFFS

The Dragons won their first five games of the year, but the season was marked by frequent roster changes as the team utilized a club-record 55 players, dropping 24 straight home games from June 29-August 13 to set a club record. 59-80 OVERALL 1ST HALF: 28-42; 2ND HALF 31-38

DID NOT QUALIFY FOR PLAYOFFS

The Dragons 2009 season was highlighted by the historic Reds Futures Game at Fifth Third Field on April 4th. This first-of-its-kind event served as the final '09 exhibition game for the Cincinnati Reds as they battled a collection of the top prospects in the Reds organization from the A, AA, and AAA levels. The season also featured the return to Dayton of Major League star Joey Votto, who joined the Dragons for a two-game rehab stint in June. Votto belted a home run in his first swing with the Dragons on June 20th. The Dragons got off to a rough start on the field in 2009, suffering through a club-record 11-game losing streak that left them with a mark of 1-12 after 13 games. But the club improved throughout the season and fell just one game short of qualifying for the playoffs for the third straight year. Left-handed starting pitcher Matt Fairrel (8-5, 2.93) and catcher Kevin Coddington (.278, 2 HR, 42 RBI, 11 SB) represented the Dragons in the Midwest League All-Star Game in June. Shortstop Miguel Rojas was named "Best Defensive Infielder" in the league in a poll of MWL managers by Baseball America.

66-72 OVERALL 1ST HALF: 28-40; 2ND HALF 38-32

MIDWEST LEAGUE EASTERN DIVISION 2ND HALF WILD CARD

For the first time in seven years, the Dragons advanced to the semi-finals of the Midwest League playoffs. The club reached the post-season for the second straight year, taking advantage of a club-record 10-game home winning streak in July to complete the second half with a 38-32 record and earn the Eastern Division wildcard slot. The Dragons swept the Lansing Lugnuts in two straight games in the best-of-three first round of the playoffs before losing to South Bend in two straight in the semi-finals. Two Dragons players, third baseman Brandon Waring and shortstop Zack Cozart, were selected as the best players at their positions in the league on the Post-Season All-Star team. Cozart was also selected as the league's best defensive infielder by Baseball America. Two of the top prospects in the Reds organization spent parts of the 2008 campaign with the Dragons. Infielder Todd Frazier started the year with the team and third baseman Neftali Soto finished the season with the Dragons. The Dragons established a new club record for average attendance per home game at 8,624. Their full-season total of 586,417 led all minor league teams below the Triple-A level.

78-62 OVERALL 1ST HALF: 44-26; 2ND HALF 34-36

MIDWEST LEAGUE EASTERN DIVISION 1ST HALF CHAMPIONS

Donnie Scott returned to the Miami Valley and once again led Dayton to the postseason. The Dragons got off to a blistering start, winning their first nine games and 24 of their first 29 en route to a 44-26 record and first half championship. Infielders Justin Turner, Chris Valaika, and Juan Francisco were chosen to start the Midwest League All-Star Game for the Eastern Division, and were joined on the squad by outfielder Drew Stubbs, and pitchers Rafael Gonzalez, Marcos Mateo, Pedro Viola, and Sean Watson. With a strong Dayton influence, the East beat the West, 8-2. With the loss of players due to promotion and a playoff berth already wrapped up, the Dragons finished the second half at 34-36, 11 games behind the West Michigan Whitecaps. In the playoffs, Dayton took game one on the road over the South Bend Silver Hawks, but lost two straight at Fifth Third Field to lose the first round series. After the season was complete, the Dayton Dragons landed three players on the Midwest League Post-Season All-Star Team with second baseman Justin Turner, short-stop Chris Valaika, and third baseman Juan Francisco. Over the course of the season, 41 different players saw playing time with the Dragons. A total of 585,348 fans filed into Fifth Third Field to once again lead the Midwest League in total attendance and the consecutive sellout streak reached 565 games.

DID NOT QUALIFY FOR PLAYOFFS

Under first year manager Billy Gardner, the Dragons posted a 67-73 record, their best since 2002. Their 35-35 1st half record placed them in a tie for 3rd place in the Midwest League Eastern Division, 7.5 games back of eventual champion West Michigan. Injuries, promotions, and trades left the Dragons fighting for the playoffs, eventually fading from the race and finishing 32-38 in the second half. RHP Johnny Cueto posted an 8-1 record with a 2.59 ERA before being promoted to Sarasota, including throwing the first ever Dragons no-hitter in a rain-shortened game at Wisconsin. RHP Carlos Fisher led the team with 12 wins, and LHP Travis Wood recorded a season high 133 strikeouts. RHP Zach Ward's 2.29 ERA set a new Dragons record, but he finished the season with the Beloit Snappers after being traded at the deadline for major leaguer Kyle Lohse. OF Jay Bruce led the Dragons in home runs, doubles, and RBI, and won the "Star of Stars Award" after hitting a two-run home run at the All-Star Game in June. 582,903 fans filed into Fifth Third Field to once again lead the Midwest League and all of Single-A baseball in total attendance.

DID NOT QUALIFY FOR PLAYOFFS

The Dragons missed out on the playoffs for the third consecutive year, finishing the regular season at 60-79 overall. Dayton limped out of the gate with a 7-14 record in the month of April, and would never hit the .500 mark on the season. The Dragons finished 30-40 in the first half of the season, 11.0 games behind Eastern Division champion South Bend. Dayton opened up the second half of the season with three consecutive victories over Fort Wayne to put themselves in first place, a post they would only occupy for five days. After the hot start, the rest of the season was very similar to the first half as the Dragons closed the second half with a 30-39 record, 12.5 games behind South Bend. All total, the Dragons used 48 different players during the 2005 campaign as injuries and promotions affected the day-to-day lineup of the team. Several Dragons players earned promotions during the 2005 season: Drew Anderson made the jump from single-A Dayton all the way to AAA Louisville; John Purdom went to AA Chattanooga; while Evan Conley, Phil Gentry, Blake Hendley, and Brad Morenko finished up the year in high-A Sarasota. Fans continued to support their Dragons in large numbers in 2005. A total of 572,003 fans made their way into Fifth Third Field to once again lead the Midwest League and all of Class-A baseball.

DID NOT QUALIFY FOR PLAYOFFS

The Dragons struggled to a 48-92 record under first-year manager Alonzo Powell, failing to qualify for the playoffs for the second consecutive season. The Dragons finished 27-43 in the first-half of the season, 15.0 games behind Eastern Division winning South Bend. The second-half of the season started on a high note for the Dragons as the team picked up a second half opening game win over Lansing in extra innings to mark the first (and only) time all season that Dayton was over .500 in a half of baseball in 2004. The Dragons finished the second half at 21-49, 19.0 games behind first place West Michigan. Dayton once again lost key players to both injury and promotions within the Cincinnati system and used 51 different players in 2004.

DID NOT QUALIFY FOR PLAYOFFS

In his third year as manager of the Dragons, Donnie Scott fielded the youngest team in the four-year history of the club. The Dragons finished the first-half at 35-35, 6.0 games behind the division winning Wizards. Dayton started the second-half looking to qualify for a playoff berth. The Dragons were tied for the Eastern Division's top spot as late as mid-July, but injuries to key personnel in Dayton and throughout the Cincinnati system stripped the Dragons of numerous players who were promoted to fill in at the higher levels of the Reds minor league system. The team never recovered from losing both starting pitching and key position players and finished the second half with a 26-43 record, 17.5 games behind the division winning South Bend Silver Hawks.

MIDWEST LEAGUE EASTERN DIVISION 2ND HALF WILD CARD

The Dragons, under manager Donnie Scott, never quite got on track in the season's first half and struggled to a 32-38 fifth-place finish in the Midwest League's Eastern Division, 10.0 games behind the Michigan Battle Cats. With the all-star break approaching and the first-half coming to a close in mid-June, the Dragons, behind the complete game pitching of Bobby Basham and Andy Boutwell, won the final two games over Burlington at Fifth Third Field to close out the half.

The Dragons ripped off 11 straight wins to open the second-half and sported a 13-game winning streak, the longest in franchise history and the third longest in all of professional baseball in 2002 en route to a 41-29 second half record.

The Dragons used the pitching of Bobby Basham, Daylan Childress, Brad Salmon and Nate Cotton and the hitting of Edwin Encarnacion, Randy Ruiz, Noochie Varner and Chris Williamson to clinch a second-half playoff spot. For the third time in franchise history and the second time under Scott, the Dragons were playoff bound.

Dayton fell to the West Michigan Whitecaps 2-0, losing in the opening round of the MWL's post season for the first time.

82-57 OVERALL 1ST HALF: 41-29; 2ND HALF 41-28
 MIDWEST LEAGUE EASTERN DIVISION 1ST HALF CHAMPIONS

Dayton posted a franchise best record as Donnie Scott began his first year as manager of the club. The Dragons captured the Midwest League's first-half Eastern Division crown with a 41-29 record. After hosting the MWL All-Star game, Dayton played the second-half of the campaign with one less loss, finishing 41-28, three games behind the Michigan Battle Cats.

For the second consecutive season, the Dragons made the MWL's post season, dispatching the Lansing Lugnuts in the first round of the playoffs with a 2-0 sweep. The Eastern Division Finals weren't as easy for the Miami Valley's team, as the South Bend Silver Hawks eliminated Dayton with a 2-0 sweep.

Wily Mo Pena led the MWL with 113 RBI, setting a club record. The Dragons had the leagues top long ball threat for the second straight season as Samone Peters hammered a MWL best and Dragons record 28. Josh Hall's 2.65 ERA was tops in the league, while fellow righty Ryan Mottl's 15 wins tied for the league lead.

MIDWEST LEAGUE EASTERN DIVISION 2ND HALF WILD CARD

Baseball returned to the Miami Valley for the first time in 51 years as the Dayton Dragons took to Fifth Third Field for an historic opening night on April 27. Manager Freddie Benavides led Dayton to a playoff berth in its first season by virtue of capturing the MWL Eastern Division's second-half wild card. After an opening round win over West Michigan, the Dragons were knocked out of the playoffs by the Michigan Battle Cats. Austin Kearns was all-world for the Dragons in 2000. He was named the MWL's Co-prospect of the year as well as a post season all-star. He led the league in HR's (27) and RBI (104) and finished in the top ten in batting (.306). Right-hander Travis Thompson tied for the league lead in wins with 16 and his 2.54 ERA placed him in the top five. Inaugural season Dragons Brian Reith, Jose Acevedo, Adam Dunn, Ranier Olmedo and Kearns all saw time at the Major League level with the Cincinnati Reds.

Dragons Managers 2000-2013

Freddie Benavides: 2000 (70-67; 2-3 post season)

Benavides was named the Dragons inaugural manager after leading the Clinton Lumber Kings in 1999 to a 69-68 record in his first season as a manager in the Reds Minor League system. Under Benavides the 2000 Dragons posted a 70-67 record and qualified for the MWL playoffs as a wild card, losing to the Michigan Battle Cats in the second round.

Donnie Scott: 2001-2003 (216-202; 2-4 post season)

The Dragons reached the post season in two of Scott's three seasons as manager. Scott's first season of 2001 saw Dayton post an overall record of 82-57, which ranks as the second best in team history behind the 2011 club. The 2001 team advanced to the second round of the playoffs. Under Scott the 2002 Dragons ripped off a 13-game win streak and reached the post season for the third consecutive season.

Alonzo Powell: 2004-2005 (108-171; Did not qualify for post season)

The Dragons failed to make the playoffs in Powell's two seasons as manager, mainly due to hitting and pitching restrictions placed on the Reds A level minor league clubs during his tenure. Under Powell in '05, the Dragons won 12 more games than in his first season, with a 24 point improvement in team batting average, 24 more home runs and 114 more runs.

Billy Gardner, Jr.: 2006 (67-73; Did not qualify for post season)

Once again the Dragons overall record improved as Gardner led the Dragons to a 67-73 record in his only season on the Dayton bench. Despite the increase in wins, the Dragons failed to qualify for the playoffs for the fourth straight year. Dayton finished in a third place tie at 35-35 in the first half, the best half of baseball for the team since the first half of 2003.

Donnie Scott: 2007 - 2008 (144-134; 3-4 post season)

Scott returned to the Miami Valley for his second stint as Dragons manager in 2007 after a three-season absence from the Dayton dugout. The Dragons returned to the MWL playoffs in '07 for the first time since Scott led the team to the post season in 2002. They advanced to the league semi-finals in '08.

Todd Benzing: 2009 - 2010 (112-165; Did Not Qualify for post-season)

Benzing, a key member of the Reds' 1990 World Series Champions, guided the Dragons through two seasons. The failed to qualify for the playoffs in either year, losing out to South Bend by one game for the final wildcard spot in the second half in 2009. The Dragons began the 2010 season by winning their first five games and were at the .500 mark at 17-17 before numerous roster changes sent the club into a skid. By season's end, a club-record 55 players had worn the uniform of the Dragons.

Delino DeShields: 2011 - 2012 (143-135; 1-2 post-season)

The Dragons established a club record for victories in a season in 2011, going 83-57 in DeShields' first season with the club. The team won the second half East Division title, going 48-22 to mark the best half in team history. It was also the best second half record in all of Minor League Baseball among leagues that play a split-season format. The Dragons lost to Lansing, two-games-to-one, in the first round of the playoffs. The 2012 season was a struggle as the Dragons finished in eighth place in both halves.

Jose Nieves: 2013 (65-74; Did Not Qualify for post-season)

The Dragons battled for post-season competition until the next to last series of the second half before being eliminated. After a rough start in which the Dragons went 13-26 over their first 39 games, the team improved to 52-48 over their final 100 contests including a 37-33 mark in the second half. The Dragons offense proved capable as the season progressed but the club finished last in the league in team pitching.

Bats: R Throws: R

Born: April 5, 1991

Birthplace: Tucson, AZ

Resides: Sahunita, AZ

School: University of Arizona

Acquired: Selected in the 8th round of the 2012 First Year Player Draft.

Seth Mejias-Brean was selected as the 2013 winner of the Sheldon "Chief" Bender Award as the Reds Minor League Player of the Year. Mejias-Brean spent most of the year with the Dragons and led the entire Reds organization in batting average and runs batted in while adding 11 home runs and playing gold glove quality defense at both first base and third base. Mejias-Brean was responsible for perhaps the most dramatic win in Dragons history on July 18 when he connected on a "walk-off" grand slam home run with the Dragons trailing by three runs in the bottom of the ninth inning against Beloit. From May 12 through the end of the season, Mejias-Brean batted .338 with 10 home runs and led the Midwest League with a .927 OPS. This award honors Bender's 64 years in baseball including the last 39 years of his career in the Reds' scouting and player development system. Bender passed away in 2008. Twelve of the 14 winners of the award since its inception in 2000 have been current or former Dragons.
