Stacy Garcia

"...the lady DOES NOT DISAPPOINT. She was honest, revealing and generous in sharing her journey, her process and how she has become so successful."

-Lori Dennis, Co-founder of Design Campus

"...an authoritative, informational and entertaining speaker. Stacy does her research, backing up her contentions with facts and figures. But she also knows how to connect the dots to give her audience the big picture. She's organized, thorough and responsive—a pleasure to work with throughout the process."

-Mary Scoviak, Executive Editor Boutique Design
