

W E L C O M E N O T E

I'd like to personally welcome each of you to the International Conference of Robotics and Artificial Intelligence. It's an exciting time for AI as we continue to grow and adapt. Our organization is confronting a time of many changes and we're meeting these changes during a time of larger nation--wide and global change. The world of AI is an exciting area to work, study, and play in, and we'll continue to meet and bring inspired people together in forums like this, to ensure our organization remains on the cutting edge of AI development.

I'd like to give you an idea of what you can expect and what we hope to achieve. Over the next couple of days America's leading Fortune 500 companies, Investors, Enterprises & Tech Companies are getting together in Southern California to look at how companies are monetizing and adapting to AI and Robotics. You will also have networking opportunities and meet C level executive, directors and senior management from Fortune 500 Companies, Tech Companies & Startups.

The event will actively look at the current strategies being used by America's top business leaders and how they are cutting costs, improving efficiencies and the commercial opportunities that is being brought by AI and Robotics.

Let me give you a brief update on where we are today. We have currently speakers signed up covering the following industries: Legal, Banking & Finance, Retail, Healthcare, Real Estate, Manufacturing, Transportation and Telecommunications who will examine how AI is revolutionizing major sectors across the economy

We're transforming the way we operate to continuously improve our ability to actively look at the current strategies being used by America's top business leaders and how they are cutting costs, improving efficiencies and the commercial opportunities that is being brought by AI. Our employees and partners have continued to meet the challenges of our field and excel. We should all be very proud of where we are today and excited about where we are headed.

Before I close, I'd like to thank each of your for attending our conference and bringing your expertise to our gathering. You, as organization leaders, have the vision, knowledge, wherewithal and experience to help us pave our way into the future. You are truly our greatest asset today and tomorrow, and we could not accomplish what we do without your support and leadership. Throughout this conference, I ask you to stay engaged, keep us proactive and help us shape the future of AI and robotics. My personal respect and thanks goes out to all of you.

Sincerely,

Ali Sina
