WELCOME NOTE

I'd like to personally welcome each of you to the Data Science And Big Data Analytics 2018 on May 24-25, 2018 in Toronto, Canada. It's an exciting time for Analytics as we continue to grow and adapt, remaining always adaptable, motivated and responsive and open to new ideas. Companies are confronting a time of many changes and meeting these changes during a time of larger nation-wide and global change. The world of Business Intelligence (BI) is an exciting area in which to work/study/play, and BI leaders continue to meet and bring inspired people together in forums like this, to ensure our companies remains at the cutting edge.

I'd like to give you an idea of what you can expect and what we hope to achieve over the next few days. The conference program emphasizes evidence-based practice, educational innovation, practical application, and peer to peer networking and collaboration. The goals of the conference is to provide a transformative professional development experience through Bringing together the world's data science & bigdata analytical professional experts to catalyze and advance scientific knowledge about Data Science And Big Data Analytics present the most recent research findings, and promote and enhance scientific collaborations around the world. More details can be found at <https://starconferences.org/dsbda2018.html>

BI is transforming the way we operate to continuously improve our ability to get better data, analyse better and run efficiently. BI communities have continued to meet the challenges of our field and to excel despite setbacks. We should all be very proud of where we are today and excited about where we are headed.

Before I close, I'd like to thank each of your for attending our conference and bringing your expertise. You, as organization leaders, have the vision, the knowledge, the wherewithal and the experience to help us pave our way into the future. You are truly our greatest asset today and tomorrow, and we could not accomplish what we do without your support and leadership. Throughout this conference, I ask you to stay engaged, keep us proactive and help us shape the future of BI. My personal respect and thanks goes out to all of you, the organizers and management team.

Thanks,

Manu
