

Golden Apple Scholars of Illinois Program Summer Institute Overview

The Golden Apple Scholars of Illinois Summer Institute program is a rigorous, multi-week teacher preparation program for undergraduate Scholars.

Components of Summer Institute

On Site

Classroom teaching experience in Illinois schools-of-need in urban, suburban and rural communities

Coursework

Competency-based courses to prepare Scholars to be ready to teach on Day 1

Reflective

Seminars led by master teachers discuss on site experiences with Scholars

Five Core Competencies of Summer Institute

Cultural Competency

Identity, awareness and impact

Instructional Best Practices

Pedagogy, technology integration, classroom management

Growth Mindset

Collaboration, reflection and feedback

Civic Engagement

Change agents in school, community and district

Professional Expectations

Meeting and exceeding standards