THE
ANN-CAROLINE and ZEPH FOGERSON
SCHOLARSHIP for Women Athletes who participate in Intercollegiate Womens' Golf
University of Northern Colorado

Zeph Fogerson was born March 3, 1955, in Seminole, Texas. He was raised in Texas, but also lived in Colorado and Alaska, graduating from West Anchorage High School in 1973. He earned his bachelor's and master's degrees from UNC in 1992 and 1993 and coached football with Joe Glenn during UNC's 1992 and 1993 seasons. His family boasts three generations of UNC graduates. Zeph is owner of Ragged Bull LLC, an oil and gas investment company, and Triangle S Properties, which handles land and minerals acquisitions. Zeph and Ann-Caroline make their home in Midland, Texas.

Ann-Caroline Fogerson was born September 17, 1969, in Midland, and graduated from Midland High School in 1988 and San Antonio College in 1992. She worked at Midland College for 11 years as a GED teacher in the adult basic education department. Ann-Caroline is a 3rd generation West Texan.

Zeph and Ann-Caroline enjoy supporting UNC and established their scholarship to enhance enrollment at UNC through student athletes who are great ambassadors for the University.

The Ann-Caroline and Zeph Fogerson Scholarship is awarded to students who participate in intercollegiate women's golf.

The University of Northern Colorado Foundation is pleased to recognize the generosity of Ann-Caroline and Zeph Fogerson, who provided the gifts to create this permanent fund.
