Beth V. Richards is a Greeley native, daughter of Bud and Virginia Sue Varvel, and granddaughter of Marie Diggs. Beth majored in education and physical education and graduated from University of Kansas in 1978. Her husband, Kenneth M. Richards M.D., also a '78 KU graduate, earned a liberal arts and pre-med degree. They have two sons, Tanner A. and Reeves I. Richards.

Beth has been an active member of UNC's College of Performing and Visual Arts Community Advisory Board, and is also a member of W.T.K. (the oldest women's organization in Greeley), P.E.O. (Philanthropic Educational Organization), Hospice and Palliative Care of Northern Colorado Board of Directors and the Greeley Central Theatre Troop.

The Beth V. Richards Musical Theatre Scholarship was established by the Richards family to celebrate and honor Beth's passion and love for musical theatre and higher education in the Greeley community.

The Beth V. Richards Scholarship is awarded to outstanding theatre students in the School of Theatre Arts and Dance.

The University of Northern Colorado Foundation is pleased to recognize the generosity of the Richards family and friends, who provided the gifts to create this permanent fund to perpetuate excellence in the School of Theatre Arts and Dance.
