Please Note:

1. All names, a complete address, telephone number(s) must be included for all persons involved in the leases sponsored stallions, partnerships, syndications, etc. of AHBA stallion. Any indebtedness to AHBA must be settled before the nomination will be accepted.
2. A service to all sponsored stallions must be made available to AHBA each year the stallion is in the program, for use, at the discretion of the auction committee.

3. AHBA FUTURITY CLASSES:

All AHBA Auction Futurity Classes will be held in conjunction with the Arabian Breeders World Cup Show.

- All AHBA Auction Futurity Classes are Amateur to Handle classes (ATH).
- Only officially nominated yearlings out of AHBA Nominated Stallions are eligible to participate
- Each AHBA Futurity Nominated Stallion can have a maximum of two (2) foals nominated: One (1) mare nomination is allowed for the purchaser of Auction breeding and in addition, if the final purchase price in the Auction is $2,500 or more, then one (1) additional foal may be nominated by the AHBA Futurity Nominated Stallion owner.
- Mares (one or two) in foal with AHBA Nominated Stallion Service Auction breeding must be nominated before Dec 31 of the year of breeding for the resulting foal to be eligible to participate. (forms and deadline information are available on web site)
- Nominated Foals resulting from AHBA Stallion Service Auction breedings are eligible to participate in two separate AHBA Futurity classes. AHBA Futurity Classes will be held for the nominated foals in each of their yearling and two year old calendar years. AHBA prize money will be provided (equally) for each of these two years of competition.

AHBA FUTURITY LEGACY CLASSES:

All AHBA Futurity Legacy Classes will be held in conjunction with the Arabian Breeders World Cup Show.

- All AHBA Auction Legacy Classes are Amateur to Handle classes (ATH).
- Only Officially Nominated yearlings out of AHBA Nominated Stallions are eligible to participate
- Any mare in foal to a AHBA Futurity Nominated Stallion can be nominated for the AHBA Futurity Legacy Classes. The mares must be officially nominated before Dec 31 of the breeding year for the foal to become eligible for the AHBA Futurity Legacy Classes.
- Nominated foals for the AHBA Futurity Legacy Program will compete only as ATH Yearlings in the AHBA World Cup show and now will have a two year old class combined with the Auction Two Year Old Foals. The Prize money for these Legacy classes will be provided from the Mare Nomination fees collected prior to the birth of the eligible foals.

The AHBA 'Right' holder is responsible for getting any and all information, including program rules, nomination procedures and forms to the proper person regarding all nominated stallions. A space is provided on the Disclosure/Nomination form if that person is a member.
