

Hard Work is Worth Protecting.

SeibertKeck is on a mission to change the insurance experience. That starts by doing the right thing, every time. We protect the hard work of our small business, middle-market commercial, and personal insurance clients, focusing on improving their risk profile and controlling cost. Behind every client stands our 100 year history of expertise and the great people of SeibertKeck.

Marc McTeague

As executive vice president of SeibertKeck Insurance, Marc's main focus is commercial account development and retention while striving to create a dynamic and very different insurance agency.

Marc joined Best Hoovler McTeague as a personal lines producer in 1993, after three years in newspaper advertising. He later turned his focus to commercial risk strategies. He was elected president of the agency in 2001. Best Hoovler McTeague joined SeibertKeck Insurance Agency in 2007.
