

Estate Planning Document Checklist

Use this checklist to understand the important documents that should be considered in any estate plan and the purpose of each.

1. Balance Sheet

- A helpful prerequisite to estate planning documents
- Complete list of owned assets as well as accounts intended to pay out later (like life insurance)
- Includes any outstanding debts

2. Wills

- Lists wishes regarding assets
- Names guardians for minor children
- Names an executor

3. Revocable Living Trust

- Alternative to a will for large or complicated estates
- Ensures privacy from public records
- Includes any outstanding debts

4. Beneficiary Designations

- Can include individuals or groups of people, charities/nonprofits, minor children, and/or trustees
- Names recipients of life insurance policies, retirement account balances, and annuities

5. Tangible Personal Property Memo

- Ensures desired distribution for property that has sentimental value
- Can explain personal reasons for leaving property to certain beneficiaries

6. Advance Healthcare Directive(AHCD)

- Often contains a living will and medical power of attorney
- Outlines medical preferences
- Contains a HIPAA waiver

7. Financial Power of Attorney

- Designates someone to manage finances and property
- Doesn't apply to assets held in a trust

8. Insurance and Financial Documents

- Insurance policies
- Bank accounts and credit cards
- Mortgages and loans
- Tax documents
- Pensions and retirement benefits
- Investments

9. Identification Documents

- Birth, marriage, and divorce certificates
- Social security card
- Army discharge papers, prenuptial agreements, etc.

10. Titles and Property Deeds

- Property including homes, vehicles, and other real estate
- Property may need to be retitled if a trust is established

11. Digital Account Logins and Passwords

- Will may name a separate digital executor
- Includes a list of digital assets and login information for all accounts

12. Funeral Instructions

- Details preferences for burial, cremation, etc.
- Includes any other funeral wishes like music, flowers, etc.

FLAGSHIPFINANCIAL
ADVISORS

• info@flagshiptn.com • 615-823-2233 •

Investment advice offered through Stratos Wealth Advisors, LLC, a registered investment advisor. Stratos Wealth Advisors, LLC and Flagship Financial Advisors are separate entities. Neither Stratos nor Flagship Financial Advisors provides legal or tax advice. Please consult legal or tax professionals for specific information regarding your individual situation.